

Exercises at Scholls Friday

Mrs. Raynard New Leader of Woman's Club

(By Miss Lorraine Demmin)

SCHOLLS—Joint eighth grade graduation exercises will be held Friday evening at the Scholls church instead of the grange hall as announced last week. There will be five graduates from Mountain Home, three from Jacktown, one from Laurel Ridge, two from Mountsides, two from Grover and six from Midway. This has been an annual affair for more than 15 years for the purpose of furnishing exercises for pupils of schools not having individual programs.

Mrs. Joseph Flint left Monday to attend Rebekah convention at Roseburg as a delegate from Ruby Rebekah lodge.

Mrs. Edith Tozier Weathered of Hillsboro gave a talk on Oregon History at the Scholls Grange meeting Saturday. Luther Miller talked on history of the Scholls community and other Oregon historical events. During the day the grounds and hall received a general cleaning up and renovating.

Honor Roll Given

Chapman school of 12 pupils all received reading certificates. Some of them read 35 books. Perfect attendance for the year included Betty Joyce and Virgil Dewey. Honor roll pupils for the year were Floyd Stone, Patricia Joyce, Betty Joyce, Elinora Liebnow and Alice Tanada.

Mrs. Raymond President

New officers for the Scholls Woman's club elected at the meeting May 12 at the home of Mrs. S. S. Stearns, are Mrs. J. W. Raynard, president; Mrs. C. C. Lewellin, vice-president; Mrs. Walter Orr, secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Reed, treasurer. Delegates to the state convention are Mrs. J. W. Raynard and Mrs. F. E. Rowell. Works of Tennyson and Burns were featured in the program of poetry and music in charge of Mrs. J. M. Stretcher and Mrs. Elizabeth Reed. Mrs. Ferd Groner, who was joint hostess for the meeting, extended an invitation to the club to spend the week-end at her Depoe Bay home early in June.

Finish Burn

Scholls Tile Mill finished the first burn of the season May 15. Eight men are employed. A second run was started Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lillegard with 12 other relatives were Sunday guests at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Halverson, in honor of their wedding anniversary and an engagement and announcement for Miss Velma Wohlsehgel and Melburn Zeigler, who are to be married soon.

Benefit at Midway

Everyone is invited to attend the program and basket social at the Midway school Thursday (tonight), the proceeds of which will go for new play apparatus.

Mary Lovgren, Ava Howard, Helen Westfall and Herbert Schneider were delegates from the Scholls league to attend the Epworth league convention in Portland Friday, Saturday and Sunday and gave interesting reports at the league meeting Sunday evening.

Birthday Celebrated

A dinner party was given Saturday evening at the William B. Chandlee home in honor of Mrs. Chandlee's birthday. Covers were laid for six.

Dorothy and Fred Young of Portland spent the week-end at the W. G. Hesse home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerr Jr. went to Hoquiam Friday to visit her mother, Mrs. Rose Fournier, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. David Barton of Reno, Cal., are at the Dr. William B. Chandlee home for 10 days' visit.

Mrs. William B. Chandlee will entertain the young people's choir with an outdoor evening party and wiener roast June 5.

Attendance Perfect

Lawrence Burgoyne was the only pupil of the Groner school to achieve perfect attendance for the year. This school held a last day picnic May 8 at the Washington park in Portland.

Twenty-one of the 24 pupils of the Mountsides school received state reading certificates. They were Philip Stretcher, Nadine Bunnell, Lois and John McCook, Vera and Berteen McCann, Shirley Carlson, Erna and Helen Holcom, Paul Jaquith, Herbert Herd, Robert Weaver, Erna May and Elaine Bendickson, Marcile and Charlotte Billings, Jean Wohlsehgel, Billy and Raymond McCann, Jacqueline and Jeanette Howell. A picnic was held at the school house Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carson of Hood River were Sunday guests at the W. L. Peters home.

Players Coming to Scholls

There is hardly a good-sized town, which has not, at one time or another, had a visit from the Cotton Blossom Singers from the Piney Woods school at Piney Woods, Miss. With them they bring a breath of the southland in their spirituals and plantation songs and readings in native dialect. This year the Piney Woods school folk come in a different role. They are giving a musical drama entitled, "We Are Rising." It is all woven together in a manner which will delight the audience. Fourteen songs and readings are a part of the play. "We Are Rising" is to be given in the Scholls M. E. church on Sunday at 8 p. m. Free will offering will be taken.

As principal of a two-room school at Lone Pine in Eastern Oregon and will teach the four upper grades.

Mrs. Richard Nyland spent Saturday at the Laurelwood academy and at the Gansell home there.

Good Record Made

Perfect attendance for the Jacktown school for the past school year was received by Viola Westcott and June Westcott. Reading certificates were awarded to June Westcott, Dorothy Ficken and Viola Westcott. A school picnic was held at Washington park Tuesday.

George Lewellin underwent a major operation at the Jones hospital in Hillsboro Tuesday.

Mrs. Hettie Howell of Portland spent several days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bartlett.

About 60 young people were entertained with a party Friday evening at the Scholls Grange hall in honor of the birthday of Virginia Bunnell, a farewell for Joseph Stretcher and an engagement announcement for Miss Velma Wohlsehgel and Melburn Zeigler, who are to be married soon.

Everyone is invited to attend the program and basket social at the Midway school Thursday (tonight), the proceeds of which will go for new play apparatus.

Mary Lovgren, Ava Howard, Helen Westfall and Herbert Schneider were delegates from the Scholls league to attend the Epworth league convention in Portland Friday, Saturday and Sunday and gave interesting reports at the league meeting Sunday evening.

Miss Helen Schmetzler spent the week-end visiting Miss Betty Williams in Portland.

Sunday visitors at the Carl Wohlsehgel home were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carter and son Jack, and Mrs. Clara Wohlsehgel of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. George McCuen and family of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Roth of Portland, Scotty Churchley of Reedville, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wohlsehgel, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hult of Newberg.

There was a good attendance at the Scholls Epworth League Sunday evening after which a social hour was held in honor of Joseph Stretcher, who left Monday evening for the naval training school.

A relic of the horse and buggy age, "The horse-shed at the Potter & Trask place", was wrecked Saturday and Monday as a part of the renovating plans being carried on by the owners.

Miss Olliedine Coe of Portland spent Monday and Tuesday at the H. T. Hesse home.

Officers named

fall, assistant fourth vice-president; Virginia Bunnell, secretary, and Cecil Heaton, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bennett moved to Blue Lake Friday for the summer to assist with the boat concessions.

Miss Doris Heaton returned to her home Sunday after several weeks' stay at the Tony Wisniewski home in Depoe Bay.

DR. DEAN RECTAL & COLON CLINIC SAYS:
Rectal and colon ailments produce their great harm not by pain, but through the nervous system. Chronic headache, stomach troubles, neuritis, auto intoxication, gas, etc., are all associated with rectal and colon ailments. Thousands of people suffer daily from what they believe to be a stomach trouble, a gall bladder condition or a chronic appendix, when in truth and in fact, their real trouble is in the colon.

Reedville School Holds Exercises

(By Hazel Churchley)

REEDVILLE—Graduation exercises for the class of 1936 was held last Thursday evening at the Reedville church. Graduates are Betty Corrieri, Jean Imlay, Doris Ray Harrison, Irene Jurgensen, Richard Hagg, Bill Foster, Donald Becker, and Fred Puleipher. Betty Corrieri gave the class history, Richard Hagg the class will, Jean Imlay, Doris Ray Harrison and Irene Jurgensen the class prophecy, and Donald Becker the valedictory. A short program, consisting of a violin duet by Shirley and Donald Trueschel, and an accordion solo by Wilbur Janssen was presented. The upper grades sang two selections. Dr. Mason was the speaker, followed by A. M. Janssen, who presented the diplomas. "Farewell," sang by the graduates, was the closing number on the program.

Allan Sullivan, young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Stickney, is rapidly recovering from a mastoid operation a few weeks ago. He is in the Good Samaritan hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bear and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Slade spent the week-end in Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Sullivan, Miss Florence Yeo, Mrs. Bertie Johnson and Miss Jenny Sullivan visited friends and relatives in Chehalis, Wash., Sunday.

Elaine Stiff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stiff, is recovering from a case of scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Becker and family and L. C. Becker of Tillamook visited Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Becker and family Saturday.

Graduation Held Leisyville School

LEISYVILLE—Graduation exercises and program were held at the school house Monday night. Those graduating were Robert Gregg, Eugene Hudson, and Walter Wendt.

The annual Leisyville school picnic was held Sunday at Berggren's woods. About a hundred people attended and participated in games and races.

Mrs. Ford is leaving for Umanilla this week to spend the summer there with her mother. She is going to teach here again next year.
