Picnic Sunday at Blooming

Jean Hergert Has Perfect Record Five Years

(By Mrs. E. W. Hinrichs)

BLOOMING—All pupils of the Lutheran school passed in the picnic tests. Those who have completed the eighth grade are Walter Ruseker, Walter Liebnow, Lester Mully and Vernon and Alta Meyer. Annual school and Sunday school picnic will be held on the church grounds next Sunday. A pot luck luncheon will be served at noon.

Record Perfect
Jean Hergert of the Blooming school has a record of perfect attendance for the five years in which she has been attending.

Local Delegates
Local delegates to the state Farmers' Union convention at Mt. Angel last week served on the following convention committees: John Jepsen, dairy committee; Mrs. Horner, junior organization committee; and John Kamala on the "Good of the Order" committee. Two resolutions passed at the convention which representatives felt would be of special interest to Farm Union members of this community are that all members six months in arrears may continue to purchase oil and other items through the Farmers' Union, but they will not receive the benefits connected with such purchases, and henceforth the dues will be the same in all localities.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brunson were hosts Sunday at a birthday dinner party. Honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker (Velma Brunson) of Portland, Mr. Elmer Whitmore and Charmaine Brunson. Covers were laid for 27.

Sunday dinner party guests of Mrs. Rufus Ornduff were Miss Ann Ornduff and George Wahl of Portland, Mike McKern and Brad Jones of Fernwood, Tom and Wilber Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ornduff.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bettle of Vancouver, B. C., are spending several weeks with Mrs. W. F. Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson left Saturday for their home in Tacoma after spending several days with his father, Dr. M. O. Anderson.
