Delay Bible School at Cherry Grove

(By Mrs. P. Patton) CHERRY GROVE—The daily vacation Bible school, which was to have begun Monday morning, has been postponed indefinitely due to several new cases of measles. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Folsom and family visited Mrs. Folsom's aunt, Grace Sewell, in Portland Sunday. Mrs. Folsom hadn't seen her aunt since she was a small girl in Iowa. Exercises Held Eighth grade graduation exercises Monday night were well attended. Rev. Cornils spoke on "The Four D's, Discovery, Decision, Determination and Destination." The three graduates, Delbert Folsom, Vaden Seiffert and Hilda Voelker, passed the final examinations with good averages. A young people's meeting and choir practice will be held Friday evening. Miss Lillie Wallan of Hillsboro spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wallin. Mr. and Mrs. Seiffert and Ovid and Naomi attended the funeral of Mr. Hintz of Newberg Sunday. Mr. Hintz was killed at the Stimson Hill. This was the first fatal accident at this mill since it was first started. G. H. McADAMS Funeral services were held Saturday at the Forest Grove Undertaking company chapel for George Basil McAdams, 60, who died at his home near Gaston Thursday. Burial was at Newberg. Mr. McAdams was born in Illinois June 16, 1875, and married Myrtle May Koppin at Gaston in 1907. He is survived by the widow and five children: George H. Kenneth R. Helen M. Ruth M., and Gerald Victor, all of Gaston. One grandchild and brother, Harry McAdams of Newberg, also survive.

Banks Grade School Closed; Senior Class Program Held

(By Miss Grace Sandy) BANKS—Grade school closed Friday with each of the four rooms having a picnic. On account of the bad weather the three lower rooms had their picnics on the high school grounds. The upper room had their picnic in the Balm Grove park. They were accompanied by their teacher, Verle White. Those graduating from the eighth grade this year were James Casin, Gladys Cop, Lloyd Eberly, Kiyoshi Kautamato, George Shimanalda, and Mary Wakasugi. Program Given Senior class night, which was held May 20 in the high school auditorium, was well attended. Two one-act plays were staged, the first being "The Valiant." Taking part were Agnes Vanderzanden, Donald Spiering, Merrill Mead, John Hiatt, Norman Smith, Paul Hergert. Second play was "Not Quite Such a Goose." Cast included Irene Gardner, Etta Bailey, Mary Sandy, John McBeth and Howard Hollenbeck. Public speaking class sponsored these plays. Between the plays Mr. Bushnell had some of his pupils play. Dale Eberly and Billy Kessler played a guitar duet; Chester Thompson and Bob Deany Stohler a clarinet duet; Nellie Dean Cloninger a violin solo; Mary Wakasugi a piano solo; Hollis Hartwick played several accordion solos; Lester Schlegel two cornet solos. The senior class will read for the only time. Sunday party guests at the Cliff Sandy home were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Thompson and daughter Doris of Vernonia, Francis Thompson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Westcott and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sandy and three children, all of Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. James Harleman of David's Hill and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Armentrout of Banks. Five members of the Banks Boy Scout troop, with their scoutmaster, Verle White, left Friday afternoon for a week-end hiking trip. They drove to Eagle Creek park on the Columbia river and left their car there, then hiked 13 miles to Wat-

Mill Mead; "Grand March" from Norma, "Waltz" from Faust, Wana Wirtz; salutatory address, Irene Gardner; trumpet solo, Lester Schlegel; valedictory address, Howard Reppeto; accordion solo, Hollis Hartwick; presentation of speaker, Frank Sias; commencement address, W. G. Hare; presentation of diplomas, Ed Schlegel; benediction, Rev. R. E. Dunlap; recessional, Wana Wirtz. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitfield of Timber were Thursday evening dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Griffin and family. Miss Moxie Hopkins spent the week-end with friends in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. E. Tilton and son were Banks visitors Monday. They are former residents of Banks. Mr. Tilton is now the Fuller brush man for Washington county and he and his family expect to be located in Hillsboro. Geraldine Kessler of Portland spent the week-end in Banks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kessler. Henry Chrisman returned home Wednesday from Walla Walla, where he spent a few days on business. Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Walker spent last week in Rockaway getting their cottage in Shasta to rent for the summer. E. E. Hopkins of Wishram, Wash., spent from Friday until Sunday at the Hopkins home in Banks. Hopkins, who has been the depot agent in Wishram for several years, has bid in Seaside and took charge of the depot there Monday. Mrs. Hopkins is remaining in Banks for the present. To Present Pupils Miss Julia Hufford of Portland will present her Banks piano pupils in recital tonight (Thursday) in the high school auditorium. Mrs. Charles Kessler is ill and is confined to bed with a heart attack. R. N. A. women are serving a chicken dinner today noon (Thursday) in the R. N. A. hall. Picking Starts The warm weather following the rain ripened the strawberries so fast that picking began in most of the valley patches the first of the week. Plant Begins The Baker-Kelly barrelling plant started with a school run Tuesday evening. The R. D. Bodle plant will also start the middle of the week. They are now shipping berries for the fresh berry market. Camps are filling up very fast, but as yet there is not an oversupply of laborers. Goes to England Miss Alice Lane, history teacher in the Banks high school, left Portland Saturday for a three month's trip to England. She was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Sophie Allen of Portland. Mrs. Allen was head of the Travelers' Aid in Portland for 18 years until it merged with the Y. W. C. A. The two will visit relatives in Seattle for two weeks before going east to take their boat. Miss Lane is going to visit her father while in England. She has not seen him for 17 years. Major J. H. Schoof, a member of the Canadian Mounted Police force, came to the Banks high school May 18. He exhibited his collection of skins of many kinds of animals, costumes and many other interesting things. Major Schoof came from Canada every winter and spends his time lecturing, because the winters in Canada are too severe for his health. Major Schoof was born in Germany and lived there most of his life. He told of many experiences and showed the students several of his medals, which he received for services during various wars. Sunday dinner party guests at the B. W. Armentrout home were

Glen Ireland, Howard Reppeto, Jack Seabold and John McBeth, fielders. The yell leader, Effie Toates, also received the yell leader's emblem and the boys' manager, Akira Kaga, of baseball team received his award. The same time Irene Gardner received a pin for acting as secretary of the student body for the year and Howard Reppeto a pin for being president of the student body for the year. Donald Spiering received a pin and a large "B" for being the best baseball player on the team this season. A few awards were presented to the "Banks Clarion" staff last Wednesday night at the "Senior class night" program. Those receiving awards were: Etta Bailey, editor; Elenora Strassel, assistant editor; Donald Stowell, manager; Leigh Stetter, associate editor. Selected as best reporter, Barbara Retenaur; selected as best feature story writer, Lavonne Gellings. The awards were small pins with sets in them in the shape of "B. H. S." Exercises Held Graduating exercises for the Banks high school were held Thursday night. The following program was given: processional "Grand March" from Aida, Wana Wirtz; invocalation, Rev. R. E. Dunlap; address of welcome, Mer-
