To Make a Long
Tale Short

A friend of ours dropped in yesterday, and we asked him if it was true that his wife called him a blockhead? "No, not in that many words," he said, "she simply told me to pull down my cap, there is a woodpecker coming." A used car as sold by us means a reconditioned car, one in which the worn parts have been replaced, and the car put in A-1 condition.

WILL AMERICA ROT DOWN?
Will the young people now coming into the picture stand out against Communism, Atheism, Registration, Nationalism and all else that rots down a nation?

Will they be of the stuff that dares to stand up and be counted? The fellow who goes through has what we call moral fibre. And moral fibre rots down under easy times, push rugs and Dad's spending money.

Attention, Mother and Dad—We would know whether your brood will be of the old rugged stuff; for your family program in it the thing that turns out patriots and statesmen?

1—Do you believe that God had a SON who died for your sins?
"Yes," you say to that. Good on Question Number One.

2—Do you point to Christ there
