

Plan Festival at Beaverton

Mrs. Stipe Named to High Eastern Star Office

BEAVERTON—Beaverton will be the scene of considerable activity Saturday when the local Kiwanis will sponsor a floral festival day, beginning with a kiddies' parade at 11, followed immediately by a flower show under the direction of Beaverton Grange in the high school lunch room by Kiwanis ladies, junior field meet in the afternoon and a dance in the evening.

Beaver chapter, O. E. S., was honored at the 1936 session of the Grand Chapter of Oregon June 9 by the election of Mrs. Dora E. Stipe to the office of associate grand conductress. Mrs. Stipe served as matron of Beaver chapter in 1923 and was on the credentials committee during the 1935 sessions of grand chapter. She has also held the office of Grand Ruth and was grand representative for the state of Connecticut. On Friday afternoon at her home Mrs. Stipe entertained informally friends and members of her chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Metcalf of Beaverton attended the funeral of Mrs. Metcalf's mother, Mrs. Charlotte Metcalf, June 9 at 10 o'clock at the Pearson's funeral church in Portland. Mrs. Metcalf died suddenly at her home in Portland. She leaves her husband, Aaron Metcalf, seven sons and four daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Doy Gray were among those attending the wedding of Miss Mary Helen Wood, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Wood of Portland, and Ralph Charles Stone, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Stone of The Dalles, at the church of the Madeleine June 6 at 10 a. m. Mrs. John Gray, daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Gray, was one of the attendants, and little Joene, their granddaughter, was flower girl.

Mrs. C. C. Bender and her mother, Mrs. Adeline Bender, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Byfield during the past week. Mrs. Bender will accompany her daughter to her home in Omaha, Neb. Mrs. J. E. Davis of Omaha, Neb., is visiting friends here.

New Friends Here
Rev. Peter Clark, recently of Grants Pass, has come to take charge of the Beaverton Nazarene church to replace the Rev. Anderson, who has been called to a church in Everett, Wash.

Return from College
Bob Denney and Douglas and Kenneth Taylor, having finished their second year at Wheaton College, Ill., returned home Tuesday evening by auto. They were accompanied by other western students attending Wheaton College.

McMinnville Man Speaks
Dr. Erwin H. Bendrick, president of the McMinnville Rotary club, spoke before the local Rotarians Thursday on the "Growth and Development of a Rotary Club." F. L. Brown will be chairman today.

Voters Pass School Levy

District Seeks Funds for New Playshed

(By Miss Mary Sandy)
BANKS—Only nine voters were cast at the annual school election Monday night. This lack of interest is surprising, as a special 5-mill tax was voted on. This carried unanimously and the money will be used to build a new playshed, re-roof and paint the school house. Jeff Kennedy was elected director for three years to succeed O. D. Dreeszen. Mrs. Fred Bovee was re-elected clerk. The principal was given an increase of $10 per month. Three other teachers received increases of $5 a month each. Two will then receive $95 each and the other $85 per month.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Sellers of Highland Frog farm were Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Hockett of Salem, Monday Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Lansbury and daughters Marion and Helen of Corvallis visited Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Sellers and children.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bennett of Portland were Sunday evening guests of Mrs. E. E. Wickerson, on route home from the pioneer picnic at Birkenfeld.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pindell and children of Big Springs, Neb., arrived here Saturday and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Pindell, Mrs. N. C. Nelson and other relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. H. Crocker fell over a strawberry carrier and broke her arm at the elbow.

R. H. Rivard, who has been clerking in the Banks Market the past month, returned to Seattle Monday.

The peak of the berry season is past and the barreling plants have reduced forces. While the crop has fallen short of early expectations, it has still been a profitable one. Loss on account of rain has been heavier in some fields than in others.

Miss Gertrude Volpp of Vernonia is staying with Mrs. Florence McFarlane while working in the bar-reler. Gertrude, a former Banks girl, was a member of the graduating class at Vernonia high school this year.

Billy Moore of Portland is spending this week with relatives in Banks.

Miss Wilma Bailey of Green Mountain went to Portland Monday where she will enter nurses' training at the Multnomah county hospital. She will first take a three months' pre-med course at the University of Oregon Medical school in Portland. Wilma is a member of the 1935 graduating class of Banks high.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Mumford of Bonneville are spending a few days' vacation with Wilbur's mother, Mrs. Flora Mumford. Kenneth Mumford of Corvallis spent the week-end with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Cass Wilson attended the annual pioneer picnic at Birkenfeld Sunday.

Maxine Hartwick spent last week in Banks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Walker, while her mother attended the Eastern Star convention in Portland.

Mr. Parry and family moved Sunday from the Phil Parmley house to their logging camp north of Banks.

Mr. and Mrs. Delfert Hutchens and son and Miss Doris Hutchens of Tillamook visited J. J. Hutchens Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Lorena Paetsch, who attended University of Oregon, is spending her vacation with her parents in Banks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hopkins are spending a few months in Banks. Clyde is working at Baker & Kelly Barreling plant.

The Tualatin Valley Banks team lost another valuable member when Alex McDonald, second baseman, went to Vancouver, B. C., where he joined the "Arrows." This is the same ball team which "Boots" Turk joined a few weeks ago. Extracts from a clipping from a Vancouver, B. C., paper has this to say about the two boys, "Arrows, who have added just two new men to their squad, looked better than
