Locals Beat Mantle Club

Sherwood Victorious Here in July 4 Feature

The Hillsboro "Smoke-Eaters" survived the first round of state tournament games played at Vaughn street park in Portland by winning an up hill fight from the Mantle club of the Greater Portland league. Hillsboro started off with a rush that drove across two runs the first inning and another the second while the Hillsboro boys were holding their opponents scoreless until the fifth inning. The Mantle club put over one run in the fifth and then drove Rosky from the mound in the sixth when two hits, one error and a wild pitch netted them three runs. The Mantle club hurler, then hoisted one over the rightfield wall with one aboard to put his team in the lead 6 to 3.

Heinic Zimmerman was then sent into the field and held the Mantle club scoreless the balance of the game as he did not allow a single hit the three innings he worked and kept their batters continually crossed up.

The "Smoke-Eaters" came back with one run in their main would be sixth leaving them still a run behind. In the seventh Heinric, first man up, singled, Shattuck was hit with a pitched ball, putting runners on first and second with one out. Both runners advanced a base on a wild throw to first. Reed, Mantle club hurler, was then taken out of the game and a left hand pitcher was sent in to relieve him. Hillsboro's next three batters, Joes, Batchelar and Hoag, were all left hand batters, which looked like good strategy on the part of the Mantle club. The Hillsboro "brain trust" decided to let them hit instead of putting in pinch hitters as all three were up against left hand pitchers the last three games and have been getting their share of the bingles besides being a little more accustomed to the lights than a new man would be. The judgment of the "brain trust" was well rewarded as Joes beat out a perfect bunt to fill the bases, putting the winning run on first base. Batchelar, the next left hander, worked the pitcher for a walk, forcing in a run. Shattuck tied the score as he ran home on a passed ball while Batchelar and Joes advanced to second and third, respectively. Hoag popped up for the first out, putting the bases up to Zimmerman, who promptly lifted a short fly to left field. Joes raced home with the winning run after the catch as the throw was wild at the plate. Hillsboro added another in the eighth to make it safe as Davis walked, went to third on Hoag's sacrifice and scored as the Mantle club first baseman threw wide of first attempting to catch Davis at the plate.

Hillsboro was defeated by Sherwood 4 to 0 in the feature game of the "Happy Days" celebration July 4. Poblelian, Sherwood pitcher, held the Hillsboro batters to three hits as he was in rare form and was never in trouble. The Hillsboro boys suffering an expected mental let-down from Wednesday night's thriller in Portland, just couldn't get going and never showed the least bit of resemblance to the fighting driving club that they have been all season in league play.

At the request of Manager Gardfield of Orenco, the Orenco game will be played on the Hillsboro field Sunday instead of at Orenco as originally scheduled. Orenco has been an in and out team all season and has strengthened up considerably since the last game, which the "Smoke-Eaters" were lucky to win by a 4 to 1 count. Orenco may upset the locals as the Hillsboro pitching staff is being overworked due to the extra games being played in the state tournament in Portland. The two Hillsboro hurlers, Rosky and Levertt, must hurl four games in eight days this week and must bear down at all times. The Hillsboro batters

Leading Portland Club Wins in Fast Game, 6 to 0

Playing bang-up baseball, the Hillsboro Junior League baseball team, lost to the fast El Ray Roofers, leaders of the Portland junior clubs. Thursday afternoon in the Hillsboro park 6 to 0.

The game was marked by skillful playing on the part of both teams, with the final score no indication of the excellent ball playing of the local boys. L. Jansen, speedball hurler for Hillsboro, dominated the outfield during the entire game.

VanDoremel pitched the entire game for Hillsboro with Vic LaPorte and Kenneth Kroeger behind the bat. He held the Portland batters to six hits. Portland opened the game by scoring twice in the first inning on an error by Hillsboro. The Roofers also scored with Portland in the last inning when a home run, with two on base, brought the score to the final total of six.

Under the coaching of Ben Hansen of Cornelius, the Hillsboro boys are coming into good shape for the coming match play.

Thursday, the boys played to nearly empty stands, the crowd consisting mostly of a few relatives interested in the individual performances on the field.

Battery for Hillsboro was VanDoremel on the mound, LaPorte and Kroeger on the receiving end, Warren Taylor, I. Kenneth George, Lester Schiel, 3b, Wes Ketcham, ss, Orval Sahnov, If, Jansen, cf, Don Hammer, rf, Bob Heinrich was substituted for Sahnov, and Don Kerkman for Hammer.

Portland baseball in this county, handicapped by shortage of funds, never-the-less has been progressing with four teams in the field this spring in an effort to develop young players to support the county junior team in the coming years. Boys, to play on the junior team, must not be more than 16 years of age on March 1. If they become 17 after March 1, they still can complete the season.

Defeated 12 to 13 Monday afternoon here by the Marion county champions in American Legion junior baseball, the Washington county aggregation will play a return match in Woodburn Sunday afternoon.

Hillsboro scored plenty of long hits, including two across the back fence, but the local boys were unable to get team action long enough to stop the Woodburn team, which also was slugger.

Jansen, speedball ace for Washington county, started the game, but was unable to put his ball on the spot. VanDoremel, relief pitcher, finished the game in good form. The same lineup as with Portland was used.

Strong Cornelius Team Eliminated

The strong Cornelius baseball team of the Western Sunset league ran into a streak of hard luck and became the first team eliminated from the Oregon state semi-pro baseball tournament in Portland Friday night, when it dropped a heart-breaking 5 to 4 decision to the Journal in ten innings.

Cornelius tied the count in the last of the ninth, but the Journal put across the winning tally in the tenth inning. In the last half of the tenth the Washington county boys had a chance to knot the count, but failed when hard luck took a hand. Heinrich, Cornelius catcher, decided what apparently was a double. However, he has a "cricket" knee, and as he turned to run for first his leg buckled and he fell flat on his face. Unable to rise, he was tagged out as he lay at the plate. Next man up lined out a single that would have scored Heinrich.

Cornelius lineup: Krieger, m; Beeler, ss; Turk, 2b; Delplanche, rf; Woods, p; Holscher, cf; Deaville, cf; Vandylke, If; Sahnov, If; H. Sahnov, p, and Heinrich, c.

Pian Change P. U. Athletic Set-up

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY—The physical education and athletic department is planning a reorganization according to the plans of Roger Folgate and Pete Miller, Pacific's new athletic directors. The new set-up will provide a minor sport curriculum which will embrace cross country, boxing, swimming, golf and tennis. An active schedule in all branches of minor sports is the aim of the new heads.

A strong intramural program involving both major and minor sports will also be introduced to the campus. This intramural program is expected to throw practically every boy enrolled into participation of one kind or another. The third big move will be the innovation of freshman competition in various branches of sport. The introduction of freshman competition will not eliminate the opportunity of freshmen participating in varsity competition. Competition for freshman teams will probably be provided by scheduling contests with various high schools in the northwest.

North Plains Team Winner

Close Score Marks Contest With Cornelius Here

Jimmy Grogan's southpaw pitching proved too much for Cornelius in the matched game July 3 in Hillsboro ball park with North Plains. Final score was 3-1.

Lund of North Plains erred in the first inning to allow Cornelius one run in the North Plains half of the first, Lund doubled and scored on a single by Hopkins. Again Lund singled in the seventh to score Darey to break the tie, after Darey doubled against the fence.

In the eighth, Cook smashed a fly to deep outfield to score Walker after Walker had singled and advanced to third on a sacrifice and an error. This ended the scoring.

Johnny Lund and Darey were the hitting stars of the day with a double and two singles each out of four times up.

Bill Bernards and Chuck Hopkins contributed some spectacular catches in the outfield to add thrills to the game. In the infield Cook, with Joe Bernards and Siggler, played their usual fast fielding game, making a very easy job of the pitching for Grogan.

North Plains now is mourning the loss of Johnny Lund, former Washington and all star Portland high school pitcher, who has taken a job in Washington. However, the North Plains fans rest assured of a good game when Jimmy Grogan pitches his mound against Twin Oaks Sunday.

Grogan presents an enviable record this season, having won all his games with the exception of one. Two of his games were shutouts.

Saturday night there will be a baseball benefit dance sponsored by the club management in the K. P. hall with music by the well known Oregon Loggers.

Legion to Select Officers Tuesday

Hillsboro post, American Legion, will elect new officers and delegates to the state convention at Roseburg, at the meeting in Veterans' hall at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday.

After the "Goddess" and her party took their places on the dais, Donald Long made a short speech preceding the coronation in which he declared that selection and crowning of a "Goddess" was more appropriate and more American than the selection of a queen for the Fourth of July celebration. He congratulated the young women on attaining the honor of reigning over the "Happy Days" and wished them happiness.

After the coronation, came the coronation ball which did not conclude until early the following morning.

Colorful Program Held for 'Goddess'

The coronation pageant began soon after 9 o'clock with the grand march which formed at the south entrance of the auditorium headed by Uncle Sam in the six-foot eight-inch person of Lew McCusker of Oregon.

He was followed by the National Guard commanded by Second Lieutenant Neil Stangel and the colors. Behind the colors came the "Little flag bearer" in the person of Walter McKinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Verne McKinney. He was dressed in a white sailor uniform and was followed by little Polly Melhuish bearing the diadem on a white silk cushion and little Jack Seary Jr., bearing the torch of liberty. They were dressed in costumes of 1776.

The children led the "Goddess" party, who marched with escorts of firemen including Lester Lackey, S. W. Melhuish, Jay Phillips and William Ziegler. "Goddess" Bernice was escorted by Donald E. Long. Behind the "Goddess" and her party were Miss Tillie Hoffmann and escort, Graham Young. She was "Goddess" Tillie of 1935 "Happy Days".

Next in line came Mayor and Mrs. J. H. Garrett, H. L. MacKenzie, president of the chamber of commerce and Mrs. MacKenzie; Miss Elaine Caldwell, president of the Business and Professional Women's club and her escort, Merle McCoy; M. and Mrs. Verne McKinney, representing the press; two groups of Camp Fire girls, who are under the leadership of Mrs. George Fischer and Mrs. Lawrence

Francis, Sea Scouts under the leadership of A. E. Opdenmeyer came next, followed by the Boy Scouts and their leader, John West, and the Girl Reserves under the leadership of Miss Tennessee Weathered.

The formation of the grand march was under the direction of Mrs. Zola Morgan, assisted by Arthur Kroeger, while the "Goddess" program from beginning to end was sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club of Hillsboro.

After the "Goddess" and her party took their places on the dais, Donald Long made a short speech preceding the coronation in which he declared that selection and crowning of a "Goddess" was more appropriate and more American than the selection of a queen for the Fourth of July celebration.
