Chehalis Berry Harvest Uniform

(By Mrs. Bled McCormick)

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—While the blackcap crop here is lighter this year than usual the fruit is ripening more uniformly. The first picking over part of the W. R. Davis berry field eight pickers averaged over 230 pounds apiece. Marie Fuchs of Newberg, the champion picked 330 pounds. Growers here who are depending on the sun to dry their fruit are experiencing much grief from the rainy weather. Berry picking did not start along the top of the mountain in most fields until the first of this week, much later than usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Elery McDougal returned home July 8 from a week's trip into Washington. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl McGhee and Mrs. F. Cowen at Ashmore, and friends en route. They went as far as Grand Coulee dam and visited the Dry falls, where the Columbia river once flowed. These falls were three times higher than Niagara falls. This is now a Washington state park. Mr. and Mrs. McDougal report seeing some unusually fine crops, especially in the Big Bend country.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jones and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ego and family, Mrs. D. D. Line, Miss Harriet How-

To Make a Long Tale Short

We believe the reason why so many women become nags is because they are married to a jackass. She'd be excusable in "nagging" her husband into buying a good Used Car for general purposes, thereby saving the new car, for any of these listed below will get you there and get you back again just as well as the new car.

Any of These Will Do It:

Gasoline - Oil
Batteries - Tires
Greasing - Accessories

An all-day Townsend picnic will be given by the Cedar Mill Townsend club at Lost Park Sunday, August 2. There will be swimming, races and other outdoor amusements. There will be speaking at 2 p. m. by John Weir and Elton Watkins. Everybody is invited to bring a basket lunch.

A Townsend card party was held Saturday night in the house at Lost Park. High scores were received by Mrs. B. B. Reeves and L. G. Boie, and low by Mrs. R. Haskell and B. B. Reeves. Four tables were in play. Mr. and Mrs. A. Islee, Walter and Leon of Coville recently spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John Berger.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Carr spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. P. Morning of Eugene.

Miss Ruth Lundgren is on a vacation at the beach. Later she intends to make a trip to Tacoma.
