Invitation was extended by Mayor Joseph K. Carson Jr.

ATTENTION VOTERS
If I am wrong, show me where— I'll change my mind. If you fit to handle the tools of our day, for this is a machine age and the tools are engines of death when they run wild. How shall we keep going the stream-lined trains and all the rest of these new wonders. If state promoted liquor is to turn our high and college men into drunkards? Where are the men to work out the new formulas in the laboratories where the army of experts to build up and keep running a world of complicated processes. If human life is to be shunted into the asylums and penitentiaries by the drink route? 2—State liquor aims to make a record. Each month larger and larger sales and out of what? Out of the first-time drinkers at one end of the line and the broken and be-sotted at the other end. And with more and more such going to the state for drink, what of our business
