

Conference of Churches Set

Sunday School Picnic on Monday at Kinton

(By Mrs. E. L. Cox)

KINTON—Second quarterly conference of the Evangelical churches in this district will be held at the Mountain Home church tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock. A number from the Kinton church are expected to attend. The address of the evening will be by Rev. E. W. Petticord of Portland.

Postpone Meet

The Bible study and weekly prayer meeting of the church has been postponed for this week.

Picnic Monday

Annual picnic of the "Friendly Six" Sunday schools will be held Monday (Labor Day) at the Rifles. All interested in the Sunday school young folk are invited. A basket lunch will be served at noon, and all are requested to bring dishes and silverware to serve in. There will be games in the afternoon and a good time for all.

Mrs. Fred Valentine of California spent a few days last week with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Valentine.

Aid Picnic Today

Kinton Ladies' Aid society will hold a picnic this week, Thursday, at the church, with basket lunch at noon, and regular meeting in the afternoon. All ladies are invited.

Mrs. Ethel McCormick of Hillsboro spent a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Lilly M. Tierly.

A new floor has been laid the past week in the primary room of the school house, the work being done by Harry A. Richards.

School Opening Set

Kinton school will start the year's work September 14 with the same instructors as the past three years, Miss Helen Schneider for the upper grades and Mrs. Audrey Vandermost the primary grades. These teachers have proven themselves to be proficient and the school has done well under their leadership.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pomeroy and three daughters returned from a week's trip to the coast last Thursday. They visited a number of the coast resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Vandermost and Mrs. Melvin Vandermost took a trip to California by auto during the past week. Melvin Vandermost will accompany them on their return home.

Hite Tears Down Home, Will Build

(By Zell Struthers)

HITEON—E. D. Hite has been tearing down his home this week preparatory to building a new one. This house was built by his parents in 1888 and is an old landmark. He has the basement dug for their new home, which will be a modern shackled dwelling.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson and family left Friday for a week's vacation at the Oregon beaches. He has been ill for some time with neuritis.

Hanson Bros. finished threshing late spring grain and barley in this neighborhood the past week.

Mrs. Woodard and children of Salem were week-end guests at the Ray Kniken home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Olson spent the week-end at Newport.

Mesdames E. D. Hite, Joe Flint, Robert Holland, H. Metzentine and Chris Christensen attended an afternoon party at the home of Mrs. A. Zweimer Thursday in honor of Mrs. Alice Bootenheck, a former resident of Tigard.

Mrs. Lena Olson is spending two weeks at Canby caring for her brother's wife, Mrs. Albert Johnson, who is quite ill.

Miss Pauline West and brother, Connie West, left Tuesday for a week's vacation at Yakima, Wash., and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Davies and children of Minnesota were calling on old neighbors here last Saturday.

Arthur Bacon had his tonsils and adenoids removed last week.

Beyond His Control

Girl to kennel man—"When you sold me this dog you said it would grow into a magnificent Russian wolfhound."

Kennel-Man—"Can I help it if the Five-Year Plan failed.—Ex.

Hillsboro Argus contains all the news of Hillsboro and the surrounding communities. Read it and keep informed on what is happening at home

Hundreds of Washington County Farmers

HAVE LEARNED BY EXPERIENCE THAT

ARGUS CLASSIFIED ADS

BRING BIG RESULTS AT LOW COST

Your friends and neighbors know that Argus Classified Ads are read weekly by thousands of Washington county families. They know that the Argus Classified Page is the county's largest and most active market place.

When you want to turn things you no longer want into ready cash—if you want to trade for something you do want—or if you want to buy something—try an Argus Classified. The cost is low and you'll be surprised at the results. Two cents a word for the first and one cent a word for each additional insertion. Minimum charge of 25 cents for each insertion.

FREE Classified Ad OFFER

SEPTEMBER 3 - 4 - 5 Only

During the three days of the County Fair, the Argus will give a Classified Ad of not more than 25 words absolutely FREE to every person presenting the coupon below together with one new or renewal year's subscription to the Hillsboro Argus.

COME IN TODAY! TRY AN AD AT OUR EXPENSE!

FREE CLASSIFIED AD BLANK

NAME ADDRESS

Good for FREE Classified Ad of not more than 25 words if presented September 3, 4 or 5 with new or renewal subscription to Hillsboro Argus for one year.

Dr. Wm. E. Hinds
Osteopathic
Physician and Surgeon
COMMERCIAL BUILDING
Phone Office 861
Residence 862

Guaranteed Circulation 2500 Families Weekly