

New Students at Rock Creek

Bus Route for Beaverton Changed; Pastor Dies

(By Mrs. Frank Penoldt) ROCK CREEK—Rock Creek school, which opened last week, has several new pupils. There are 27 pupils in the upper grades taught by Herbert Scheidt and 17 in the primary grades taught by Miss Ingrid Lind. New pupils in the first grade are Leona Stauss and Betty Dancer. Other new pupils are Earl Letsinger, Mildred and Irene Ryland, Austin, Isla, Sarah, Calvin and Ella Blodgett, and Gerald and Maxine Presba. Three who graduated from Rock Creek school last spring are attending high school. Walter Tanner is attending Beaverton high and Gladys Dick and Warren Dick are attending Hillsboro high.

Go Deer Hunting Among those from this and other sections who went deer hunting are Christ Reichen and Ted and Fred Zurcher, who went to the Bend country; Ferd Toelle to Coehran, and Joe Letsinger, Floyd Bradley and Art Epperson to Presba. Lucius Bauer and Art Epperson of this section and Carl Bohren of Helvetia went to the Coos bay section on a several days' fishing trip last week.

Earl Jossy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jossy, left Sunday for O. S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herreider and members of the family spent the week-end at their country place here.

Mrs. Ed Berger returned home recently from the hospital after an appendicitis operation. Mrs. Berger (Minnie Daly) is a former resident of this section.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gutschmidt spent two days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schnabele on Sauvie Island.

Weldon Hayes of Portland spent a few days at Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walden last week.

Bus Route Changed

Beaverton high school bus has changed its route through here. It comes over the Skyline road and through the Brooks Hill section and over the Cornelius pass road through this section. Some of the former students of Scappoose high school are now attending Beaverton high school. The driver who drove the bus last year drives it again this year.

Attend Camp

Helen Fugy and Elizabeth Boeckl of Beaverton high attended the Girl Scout camp of officers of the Girl Reserve at Rock Creek on the Clackamas river Friday and Saturday.

Former Pastor Dies

Several people from Brooks Hill attended the funeral services in Portland for John Allen Monday. Burial was at Lincoln Memorial cemetery. John Allen was pastor at Brooks Hill about 20 years ago. Harold Luethe of Brooks Hill spent three months with relatives at Waldport.

Birthday Celebrated

Mrs. Geiza Burger was honored with a party on the occasion of her birthday anniversary by a group of relatives and friends from Brooks Hill Saturday night. Twenty-five were present.

Marie Brooks, daughter of Mrs. J. Brooks, was married recently. The couple will make their home in Portland. They were charivari by a group of relatives and friends on Brooks Hill recently.

Visit from New York

Miss LaVina Weldon and Miss Braithwaite of New York visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weldon last week. Miss Weldon and Miss Braithwaite have been touring the United States and Miss Braithwaite also visited in Canada. They left from here for Salem Monday, where they will visit Miss Weldon's sister, Mrs. Waldon Mayes, and will go on to California to visit her mother, Mrs. M. A. Weldon at Gilroy. Mrs. Fred Weldon accompanied them as far as Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weldon were hosts at a dinner at their home in honor of the visitors Sunday. Others who attended included Mrs. Weldon Hayes of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Weldon of Hillsboro and Ted Weldon.

Laurence house on Angel street Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were formerly owners of a filling station in Portland. It was E. G. Webb, who bought the Sprague house on Watson street and not Don Berg as previously stated. W. H. Boswell, who is confined to his bed at the home of his mother in eastern Oregon, is reported improving. Miss Aline Boswell left Sunday for McMinnville to enroll at Linfield college. David Mason has entered for his second year at Linfield college. Glen Shellenberger is attending the Oregon University.

Leg Fractured

George McKurcher sustained a double fracture of his left leg recently when he was struck by a car while riding his motorcycle on the road near Junction City when returning from a visit at Marshfield. He was taken to Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene for treatment. Mrs. M. C. McKurcher went to Eugene to be with her son for a few days.

A recognition meeting will be held at the Congregational church tonight (Thursday) for the new pastor, Rev. H. Burns. Members of the Congregational state board will be present. A reception will follow in the church parlor for Rev. Burns and his family.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Mason returned the first of the week from a short vacation at the beach. Dr. Maston took care of Dr. Mason's office during his absence.

Myron Gray of San Francisco, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Doy Gray, is visiting his parents.

Miss Genevieve Johnson returned to Beaverton last week after spending a year in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Kennedy of Portland moved into the S. B.

Buxton Group Meets Tonight

Grange Plans for Booster Night September 30

(By Mrs. Jesse Meyers) BUXTON—Buxton Townsend club will meet at the Grange hall tonight (Thursday) with A. D. Hulburd as speaker. Plan Booster Night Grange booster night will be observed by Green Mountain Grange at the hall September 30. Members please come and bring your friends. Delbert Quier of Reedsport CCC camp spent several days at his home here last week. Arley Hudspeth of Portland visited relatives here one day last week. Green Mountain Grange met at the hall with basket dinner Saturday. No meeting was held in the afternoon because of the funeral of W. McGill. Rev. R. D. Everett, state Sunday school worker, visited this school Friday. He held services at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. A contest between Manning and Buxton Sunday schools is underway. Corbett Crowther and Jesse Meyers rebuilt their silos the past week. Ora Garrigus, carpenter, of near Banks did the work. J. Benefiel, who recently underwent a sinus operation at the Veterans' hospital in Portland, is reported improving. Mrs. Wesley Schlegel was here from Washington for the funeral of her brother-in-law, W. McGill, Friday. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Morgan and Miss Frances Fickas left Friday for a visit with relatives in Lane county. They returned Monday. Fred and Merion Benefiel and Neal Baker went to Grand Ronde deer hunting Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Watson and William Watson attended the funeral of their uncle, Charles Taylor, at Banks Sunday afternoon. Gilbert Frost and Billy Best of Harrisburg spent the week-end at the Frost home here. Mr. Frost has been employed at Harrisburg the past month.

Family Moves

Clarence Kirk and family have moved to Vernonia, where he will be employed. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pringle and family of Southern California left Thursday for home after spending a vacation at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. E. Hill. Mrs. Erin Stowell and Patsy have gone to Chehalis, Wash., to visit
