Recreation Institute Here Attracts Many

Members of the Boy Scout organization, extension units, Granges, P-T A, church organizations and public school teachers participated in the second annual institute for recreation leaders, held in the Hillboro Grange hall September 15, 16 and 17.

Instruction was given by Mrs. Gertrude Skow Sanford, extension specialist in recreation and community organization. Attendance for the three evenings averaged about 25 each evening, as well as a discussion on community recreational problems and suggestions for successful programs. The following communities were represented: Hillsboro, North Plains, Dixie Mountain, Cornelius, Forest Grove, Gaston, Buxton and Portland. This leaders' training institute was sponsored by the extension service at Oregon State college.

Dept. Com. Rogers Tells of Month's Sojourn in East

Department Commander and Mrs. Hugh S. Rogers returned Wednesday from Saratoga Springs, New York, where they attended the U. S. W. Y. national convention, being representatives from Oregon. Mr. Rogers reports it as an outstanding convention, with the delegates going on record for "Americanism and Preparedness."

The highlight of the trip, he said, was a ride up the Hudson river to West Point, where they witnessed a dress parade of over 1500 West Point cadets, with a 100-piece band and drum corps. They stopped at Albany, N. Y., and New York City, where they visited Fraunce's tavern, the place where General Washington bade farewell to his army officers. Also the chapel in which he worshipped, and the hall in which the first continental congress was formed. At Philadelphia they visited Liberty hall and saw the Liberty bell. In Washington, D. C., they visited all the public buildings, Ford theatre, where President Lincoln was shot, also Arlington cemetery, General Lee's reconstructed house, and out to Washington's home at Mount Vernon.

Their itinerary also included Cleveland, Ohio; Chicago, Ill.; Des Moines and Grundy Center, Iowa, where they visited relatives. A registration of 7000 was reported at the State college at Ames, Iowa, where they visited Mr. Rogers' 101-year-old mother, Mrs. Jane R. Rogers, was visited at Wayne, Neb., where they were gone a month.
