

Collection of Books Received

Bridal Shower Given Mrs. Hayes at Meeting

(By Mrs. John M. Davidson)
HELVETIA—Helvetia school received a donation of over a hundred books from Mrs. Walter Haines of Portland last week. The books had been the property of her husband, Dr. Hamilton Weir, and were left in the possession of the late William Scheuerer when he bought the Weir farm. Some were valuable old encyclopedias, others the works of great authors. The school board bought a book case for the school to accommodate the new supply of books.
Helvetia Sunshine club met with Mrs. Emma Dierdorff Wednesday, September 16. After business sessions the special feature of the afternoon was a miscellaneous bridal shower for Miss Delta Hayes, who is to become the bride of Howard Stratton of Gales Creek. Mrs. Sandford announced that the "Pioneer Pages" that was presented Thursday night during fair week will be presented again sometime in October at the Venetian theatre. The hostess served a dainty lunch assisted by Mrs. E. Zurcher. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. Simmons, 155 E. Edison street, Hillsboro, October 21.

Sale Attracts
A public sale of unusual interest took place at the late William Scheuerer farm Saturday. Many of the articles were antiques and others used by the late Dr. Weir in his profession. Dr. Weir was a mechanic as well as a doctor and had in his possession tools for plumbing, carpentering, shoemaking and other trades that are needed in the home and farm. A good crowd attended.
Mrs. Ben Nussbaumer and her baby boy are doing fine at the Jones hospital. The baby was born Wednesday.

Mrs. Jossi Dies
Mrs. Margaret Jossi died at St. Vincent hospital Monday morning. She was the mother of Mrs. Margaret Baumann of this vicinity. Mrs. Jossi was a member of the Helvetia Ladies' Aid and her jolly personality made her a general favorite everywhere.
Joseph Wenzel with his brother Fred and Jim Davidson went hunting Sunday in the Scoggins valley country. The party got a two-point buck of unusual size and in prime condition.

A group from Helvetia joined the Valle Vista group to charivari Mr. and Mrs. Matt Vileak Saturday night. Mrs. Vileak arrived from Canada Thursday. The couple have been married for several months but had to wait until the migration quota was allowed her to enter the United States.
Mr. and Mrs. David Tschobald, Ernest Clarence and Clara Tschobald and Harold McCuen were dinner party guests at the home of Mrs. Mrs. Henry Fugate at Aloha Sunday.

Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Staehl of Phillips September 9. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Paul Landauer October 14.
G. Grant returned to his home Friday after staying a week at the county hospital and is able to get around with the use of two canes. He still suffers from the effects of a fall when he injured his head several months ago.

Roy
ROY—A large crowd attended a miscellaneous shower given at the Roy hall Wednesday evening for Julius VanDomelen and bride-elect, Miss Ruby Harter. The evening was spent in dancing.
Miss Martha Vanderzanden left Sunday for Monmouth to attend Oregon Normal school.
Theo Vanderzanden, J. M. Vanderzanden and Paul Cop left Friday for a hunting trip to Eastern Oregon.

Oregon's 1936 crop of new lawyers was not quite as large as usual but it must have been of better quality judged from the fact that 61 out of the 87 applicants who took the bar examinations passed in spite of the higher standards recently imposed by the bar association. Four of the new lawyers are women.

Old Wives' Tale
A backwoods mountaineer one day found a mirror which a tourist had lost.
"Well, if it ain't my old dad," he said as he looked in the mirror. "I never knowed he had his pitcher took."
He took the mirror home and stole into the attic to hide it. But his actions didn't escape his suspicious wife. That night while he slept she slipped up to the attic and found the mirror.
"Hum-um," she said, looking into it, "so that's the old hag he's been chasin'."—Ex.
