

Firdale Folk Honor Couple

Surprise Birthday Party is Given Charles Brosher

FIRDALE-IOWA HILL—A miscellaneous shower was given Miss Marie Unger and Ervin Keins Saturday evening by the young people and the younger married set at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Austin.

To Honor Miss Unger Never Idle division of St. Matthew's Altar society met at the home of Mrs. Walter Laurance Wednesday evening. Plans were made for a miscellaneous shower to be given Miss Marie Unger, a club member at the meeting October 5 at the home of Mrs. Freece Lilligard.

Mrs. Margaret Gnos, with Joe and Tony Gnos, were among the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herings Sunday at a house-warming.

Mrs. Jack Roberts had her tonsils taken out last week in a Portland hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren of Bonneville spent Sunday here visiting friends and relatives.

Lewis Raymond, who is employed at Bonneville, spent the weekend at home.

Birthday Observed A surprise party was given Charles Brosher Saturday evening by his neighbors and friends in honor of his birthday. Guests present included Roy Carter, stationed on the deep-sea dredge "Mickie, P. S." at South Bend, Washington.

Andrew Walnu of Portland and George Brosher of Cooper Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hickman, Mrs. Roy Carter and members of Mr. Brosher's family.

Mrs. Gladys M. Ede of Portland spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Don Pearson.

There is considerable building in the Firdale district, including a new silo on the Unger farm. Will Hickman and Miss Mary Koch are building garages, R. K. Wilson and D. P. Pearson are building chicken houses.

Mrs. Leonard Morely, who has been quite ill in Portland the past six weeks, came home the last part of the week.

Dan O'Reer and son Russell left Wednesday for Hood River. They expect to pick apples there for the next three weeks.

Andrew Watnu of Portland is making an extended visit with his daughter, Mrs. Will Hickman. Mr. Hickman, who is on the "S. S. Mynam", which runs between Portland and San Francisco, is home for the week.

Mrs. L. Helms, who has been living on the Hanson place at Midway for the past year, is moving into her place. Mr. Helms is still ill in Mr. and Mrs. William Borgelt the Veterans' hospital in Portland, and baby son are living temporarily with Mrs. Borgelt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Wilson.

Mrs. E. Deaville of Hillsboro spent the week with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Gnos. Mr. Deaville was deer hunting near Bend.

Orengo Man Goes to Work on S. P.

Orengo—Lee Randall left Wednesday for North Bend, where he is employed by the Southern Pacific. Lee has been working for William Enschede.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans of Hillsboro have purchased the property just recently bought by Mr. and Mrs. Mucha.

Walter Steinke is living in Johnson's farm house. He is working for Mr. Loomis.

Miss Maude Hamel is working for Mr. Loomis.

Mrs. McKnight and son Ivan have moved into Mrs. Whitford's house.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitford have moved to Beaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodward and Lorene and Kenneth were guests at a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wright of Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan of East Stanwood, Wash., were guests of Mrs. Carlyle Sunday. They were on their way to Forest Grove to visit his father, S. G. Morgan, who will celebrate his eighty-fifth birthday this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Garrett and family of Portland called Sunday to see Mrs. Beach, who has been ill the past week.

D.L.D. newspapers for sale, 10 cents bundle.—Argus.

Flames Threaten Chehalem Place

CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Fire got out of control in the Fir Grove district Sunday. Whipped by a strong northeast wind, it followed the line fences where underbrush and ferns were tinder for the flames. The fences between the Everest and Meyers farms were destroyed and the growing crops along them damaged. The buildings on the Floyd Whitmore place were in direct line with the fire and fear for their safety was felt. A fire warden was called and with the help of many neighbors the fire was under control by evening.

Ed Parrish of Pendleton arrived Friday at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Rufus Ornduff, for a few days' visit.

Peter Ornduff spent last week with his brother, Vine Ornduff, who is ill at his home in Timber.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Wood and family are staying at their valley farm at West Chehalem during the fall harvest. They will remain until after apples and walnuts are picked.

Mountain folks, who were camped at the A. J. Ray hop farm, are home again. Picking there ended Thursday after 19 days of work.

Mrs. Emma Hutchens arrived September 23 at the home of her son Alfred Hutchens for an indefinite visit.

Mrs. Lillian Elsie Spinner of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Minnie Elsie Agnew and son of Portland visited their cousins, Mrs. M. McInnis and Ira G. McCormick Sunday.

Miss Wanda Finigan spent Sunday at Nelscott with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shuck and Mrs. Joe Neitling. Stanley Shuck and Stanley Neitling of Hillsboro, Miss Catherine Boge and Ed Hatfield of near Hillsboro and Ted Rutschman of Laurel.

Mrs. J. E. Blazer had as her guest September 23 her sister, nephew, niece-in-law and niece, Mrs. Ella Lorenzen, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lorenzen and Miss Ruth Lorenzen, all of Silverton.

Mrs. H. Versteeg entertained Thursday evening in honor of her sister and niece, Mrs. F. F. Hanley, Hillsboro, and Mrs. Sherburne Steilbrink and husband of Forest Grove.

Leta Etzweiler and Charles Harrison's nephew, Howard, recently of Montana, are new first grade pupils at the Pleasant View school.

Drilling for water was resumed last week on the well on Otto Ornduff's farm after more than two weeks' work removing a drill broken at the depth of 80 feet.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gahler of Canby visited her sister, Mrs. Lena Meyers, Sunday.

Mrs. Iva G. Stewart and son and daughter Arthur and Iva Mae returned home Sunday from Spokane, where they had been visiting the children's father, Arthur Stewart. Iva Mae and Arthur attended high school there two weeks. They are enrolled at Newberg high now.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Guenther took their son Lynn to Corvallis Friday. They spent Friday night with a nephew, Alvin Reetz, at Junction City. They visited the coast and spent Saturday night at Yachats. At Depece Bay their stay was shortened by the dense smoke from the forest fire that was threatening the town. They saw six different forest fires.

Kenneth Whitmore and Keith Brunson, who have been working for the Consolidated Logging company near Banks, are home until after the danger of fire is past.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Whitmore entertained Sunday with a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Carow, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Brown and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Whitmore and baby, all of Hillsboro. The Floyd Whitmore family remained until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Whitmore and family, who recently moved to Consolidated Logging company near Banks, spent the week-end here with relatives.

Clayton Whitmore, Raymond Meyers, Dan Chambers and Bill and Jerry Walker returned September 22 from hunting deer in the coast range. They bagged four.

Cecil and Paul Morgan spent the week-end at Bill Meyers' homestead in the coast range hunting deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Otto and children spent Thursday and Friday at Netarts. They expected to bring home salmon and clams but found the fishermen all on a strike and were unable to buy any.

Mrs. W. F. Wohlschlegel entertained with a dinner party Sunday for Mrs. J. V. Cralley, Miss Enola Barlow, Miss Puddy Dempsey and Bob Konnuton of Portland.

Respects Paid to Mr. Hren Saturday

HELIVETIA—Many from this vicinity attended funeral service for Joseph Hren held at St. Edward's Catholic church at North Plains Saturday. Rev. Joseph Heesacker officiating. Interment was at the Catholic cemetery near the wireless tower. His brother, Frank, from Diamondville, Wyoming, and his sister, Mrs. Angela Podreznik, and her daughter from Seattle attended the funeral and visited at the Hren home.

Mrs. Louise Bleuer is having her store at Helvetia remodeled. Large plate glass windows, new gas pump, and other improvements being made.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson were guests of their son J. F. Davidson at Rocky Point Sunday. Early Sunday morning Johnnie and Jim Davidson went to old Brix camp and returned at noon with a three-point deer. Jim Davidson shot the deer.

Frank Tschabold visited his relatives here Sunday while his ship was docked at Linton. Mr. Tschabold is a seaman on the S. S. W. R. Koeper, en route for New York. He expects to be gone for three months.

Harold Pieren visited for a few hours with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pieren, Sunday while in Portland. He is a seaman on board the S. S. General Lee which is docked in Portland. He returned from Japan and will leave again Tuesday for Manila and other ports.

A fire near Jackson quarry spread to the timber Sunday by the Central Fuel company, Portland, and on Sunday in the high wind it got beyond control, but on Monday the danger was past.

Boy Scout troop 217 met Friday night. Several of the boys are practicing for their second class tests. On Thursday Arnold Leppin and Jim Davidson attended court of honor at Hillsboro. Arnold received a merit badge for lifesaving and Jim for public health.

State Capitol News Letter—Giving the highlights of official activity at Salem.—Every week in the Argus.

Fishing Tackle GUNS, Ammunition CORWIN HARDWARE 128 S. 2nd Ave. Phone 72 Agent Long Radios

Daily Trips to Portland Hillsboro Auto Freight Bonded and Insured Carrier Serving Beaverton, Aloha, Reedville, Hillsboro, Cornelius and Forest Grove Pickup and Delivery Service at Package Rates Hillsboro Phone 542 East Side Terminal Portland Phone EAST 9131

HARRISON D. HUGGINS M. D. EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT SPECIALIST GLASSES FITTED Room 3 Commercial National Bank Annex Phone 2972 9:30 a. m. to 12 m. Office 2971 1:30 p. m. to 5 p. m.

TRUCKMEN! FREE PUC Service Annual - Monthly RUSHLOW Hillsboro, Oregon 336 E. Wash. Phone 1701Y Not working for Public Utilities Commission

119 DEAD in Oregon during the first six months of 1936 as a result of automobile accidents. This figure constitutes a terrible warning and an urgent appeal to every motor car driver to be alert, courteous—to prevent adding to this deplorable toll.

Gasoline - Oil Batteries - Tires Greasing - Accessories

BUSCH'S Two Handy Locations Service Garage Phone 501 Super Service Station Corner Third and Baseline Phone 391 A. H. Busch, Prop.

Hillsboro Argus AND News-Telegram

BOTH PAPERS One Year by Mail $3.50 FOR LIMITED TIME ONLY Don't Delay--Mail Coupon Today

HILLSBORO ARGUS, Hillsboro, Oregon. Gentlemen: Please mail me The News-Telegram and the Hillsboro Argus for the next year. I am enclosing $3.50. NAME TOWN R. F. D. Box STATE Don't Delay—Mail Today!

Win a Cash Prize! Take advantage of the combination offer of the Argus and News-Telegram, both one year by mail for $3.50, and be eligible for a prize in the Second Hillsboro Argus PROVERB CONTEST. RULES: Prizes: First Prize $5 Cash, Second Prize $3 Cash, Third Prize $2 Cash. Contestants solve the picture puzzles by writing the proverb that the cartoon suggests or illustrates in the blanks below the pictures. The prizes, totaling $10 in cash, will be awarded those sending in complete or near complete picture sets with the best and most appropriate answers to the pictures published and either paying their own subscription for a period of one year or securing one new one-year subscription to the Hillsboro Argus in case of tie, judging will be extended to neatness and presentation of material. Cartoons should not be sent to the paper until the series is complete. Only one answer may be given to a picture. Only one member of a family will be given a prize, the award going to the person in that family submitting the best set. The answers may be written in pen, pencil, printed or typewritten.

PROVERB No. 1 The proverb answer is My name is Address

PROVERB No. 2 The proverb answer is My name is Address

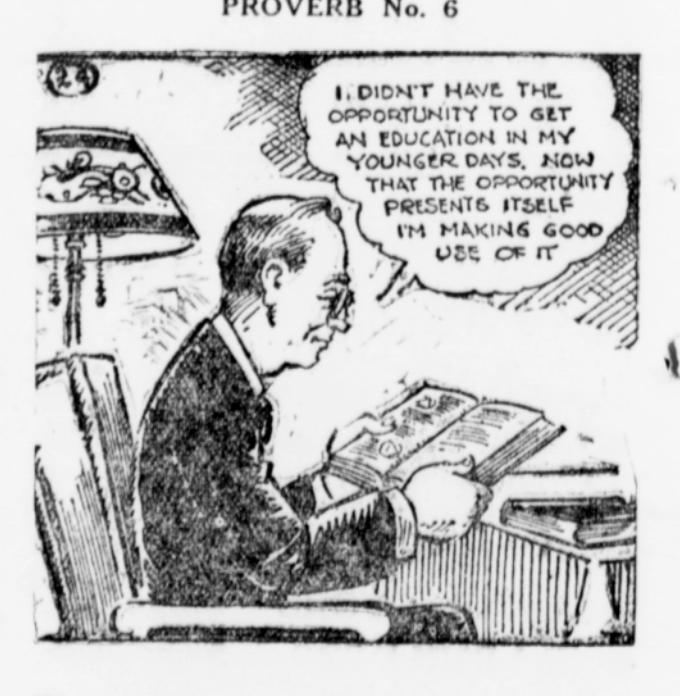

PROVERB No. 3 The proverb answer is My name is Address

PROVERB No. 4 The proverb answer is My name is Address

PROVERB No. 5 The proverb answer is My name is Address

PROVERB No. 6 The proverb answer is My name is Address

Read the Classified Ads Every Week in the Argus-It Will Pay

IF You Have Money Which isn't bringing you as much as 3 1/2 per cent - - - Which isn't guaranteed as a deposit up to $5,000 - - - Which you can't withdraw at once if you need it - - - THEN—You should consider investing it in a Federal Savings and Loan Association which includes these three features: 1. Your account is insured up to $5,000. 2. You can have your money when you want it—30 days notice for large sums. 3. Your money will earn 3 1/2 per cent, compounded semi-annually, if you wish. Tualatin Valley Federal Savings and Loan Association J. M. PERSON, Mgr. Savings & Loan Bldg. Hillsboro