

Pension Meet Buxton Hall

Delegate Named; Dance to be Held Halloween

(By Mrs. Jesse Meyers)
BUXTON—Mrs. Nora Ivie of Oregon City will speak at a Town-ship meeting tonight (Thursday) at the Buxton hall.

A boy, Earl Courtney, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Reinhold (Frances Mae Quier) at Salem October 4. This is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Quier of this place.

William McCarty of Portland visited friends here last week. McCarty, who was injured in a car accident in June, is still wearing a cast for a broken neck.

W. B. A. business meeting was held October 14 at the grange hall with birthday dinner. Mrs. Vida Powell was chosen delegate to the W. B. A. rally in Portland October 22. Dinner guests present were Mrs. Wallace Edson, Mrs. Ray Roberts, Mrs. Miller and son, Miss Alice Gunther, Miss Juanita Retherford, William McCarty, George Burlingame, William and Delmar Riggle, Perrie Retherford and Jesse Meyers.

Mrs. Jessie Tillman and Mrs. Elsie Kelly attended a W. B. A. pageant at Sacramento, Cal., October 15, 16, 17.

Mrs. Harley Quier visited her daughter, Mrs. Claude Reinhold, and infant son at Salem last week.

Mrs. Harold Peterson and family attended a birthday party for her two nephews, George Kirk Jr. and Lonnie Justice, at Vernonia Saturday.

Perrie Retherford is working at a sawmill on Gales creek.

Dinner guests present were Mrs. Wallace Edson, Mrs. Ray Roberts, Mrs. Miller and son, Miss Alice Gunther, Miss Juanita Retherford, William McCarty, George Burlingame, William and Delmar Riggle, Perrie Retherford and Jesse Meyers.

A dance will be given by the W. B. A. Ladies at the grange hall Halloween, October 31.

Elton Ingram of near Jewell spent the week-end with friends here and at Top Hill.

Oren Frost left Sunday for Harrisburg to work at a logging camp. Billy Best and Gilbert Frost of Harrisburg were here during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Arley Huseph of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Place of near Vernonia spent the week-end at the Powell home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benefiel, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Rineck and Mrs. M. Benefiel went to Ryderson, Wash., Sunday.

Chehalem Group Selects Officers

(By Mrs. Bled McCormick)
CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Officers were elected as follows Saturday evening at the first meeting of the Chehalem Mountain Community Club: E. G. Heaton, re-elected president; F. E. Hoffman, vice-president; Wayne Jones, secretary and treasurer; leaders for committees: Mrs. Rowena Ketcham and Mrs. F. E. Hoffman, entertainment; Mrs. Ira G. McCormick and Mrs. H. H. Neill, supper; and Mrs. Ray Ego games. A pot luck supper and impromptu program was enjoyed.

Numbers on the program were community singing, solos by Mrs. Harry Twigg and Merrill Hoffman; harmonica music by Jessie and Ralph Hintz, and a piano solo by Allan Comber. Next meeting will be November 14.

J. A. Thronson and Frank Painter, who had just returned from Victoria, B. C., visited Mr. and Mrs. D. McInnis last week.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick entertained with a dinner party Sunday for Mrs. Jessie Dezure and friends of Vancouver, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Comber of Portland.

Frank Christie went to Grants Pass October 10 to attend the funeral of his father, 95, who died the day before. Christie returned home Thursday.

Hodson McCormick last week harvested black popcorn with kernels popped on a number of ears, presumably caused by the unusually hot October weather. The corn grew on a south slope.

Mrs. W. F. Wohlbelegel left Friday for Aurora where she is visiting a sister, Mrs. Collins Graham, and brothers, Ernest and Paul Bauman.

D. M. McInnis was in Redville Wednesday last week visiting a daughter, Mrs. J. A. York, who is seriously ill.

Frankie and Ray Shook, Fred Meyers, Keith Marlow and Eldon

Neighborhood news from 30 Argus correspondents in different sections of Washington county appear in the Argus every week. Learn what your friends are doing for less than three cents a week.

State Capitol News Letter—Giving the highlights of official activity at Salem—Every week in the Argus.

Have men returned Sunday evening after a 12 days' hunting trip. They first hunted in the Hardman country and later went to the Burns district where they each bagged a deer. The other two hunting parties from here, who hunted in the Hardman district, returned home last week without game.

A. Otto accompanied Frank Hill and Ed Hoffman, Hillsboro, on a hunting trip Sunday in the Coast range.

Alfred Hutchens delivered stumps to the Yamhill Electric, Newberg, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Morgan's little grandson, Allen, nearly two years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Newberg, was taken to Doernbecher hospital October 14, suffering with a peanut in his lungs.

Many people here are employed in the walnut harvest, either in their own orchards or for their neighbors. According to reports from here and the leaves are so plentiful on the ground they retard picking.

Ernest Guenther received first colts this spring's and last year's colts at the Farm Produce show in Newberg last week. Frank Schmeltzer received first for best sire of colts. Mrs. Ira G. McCormick received two firsts and two seconds on potted plants.

Potato buyers were here this week and last contacting growers. They were offering from $1.25 for No. 1 to $1.50 for commercial grades at the farms. No sales were reported.

Glenn Miller is giving his new barn a coat of paint.

Ely McDougal is building a log house 16 by 20.

Joan Robinson, who spent the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Ragan, returned to her home in Centralia, Wash., Friday.

There will be a workers' conference at the Mountain Top church this Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pratt of The Dalles visited his cousin, Clayton Whitmore, and family October 14. They were accompanied by Mrs. Arthur McCormick of Portland.

Fire Grove Ladies' Social club will meet with Mrs. Flora Baker October 27. Plans will be made for the fall and winter program. This is the first meeting since September 1 when meetings were discontinued until after the busy season. Meetings will again be held every two weeks.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick will have charge of the card room at the Scholla-Laurel Farmer's Union card party and dance at Laurel this Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank Christie, who is employed in the Portland Sanitarium, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hoffman and family visited Earl Nieberger at Ridgefield, Wash., Sunday.

Miss Beryl Deford, who teaches at Eugene and Buford Deford, who is driving a truck for a contractor on the Wolf creek cut-off construction work, spent the week-end at home.

Pleasant View school has been organized to teach the children parliamentary rule, according to the teacher, Mrs. Rowena Ketcham. Officers elected were Gordon Christie, president; Don Vaughn, vice-president; Ardyth Elzowier, secretary; and Willie Rogers and Charles Harriman, sergeants-at-arms. New officers will be elected each month in order to give all pupils the training.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith and son, Donald of Halsey and Mrs. I. M. Tutill of Sutherland were honor guests at a dinner party Sunday at the H. H. Neill home. Niells were neighbors of the hostess when they lived in southern Oregon prior to moving here.

Neighborhood news from 30 Argus correspondents in different sections of Washington county appear in the Argus every week. Learn what your friends are doing for less than three cents a week.

State Capitol News Letter—Giving the highlights of official activity at Salem—Every week in the Argus.

Have men returned Sunday evening after a 12 days' hunting trip. They first hunted in the Hardman country and later went to the Burns district where they each bagged a deer. The other two hunting parties from here, who hunted in the Hardman district, returned home last week without game.

A. Otto accompanied Frank Hill and Ed Hoffman, Hillsboro, on a hunting trip Sunday in the Coast range.

Alfred Hutchens delivered stumps to the Yamhill Electric, Newberg, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Morgan's little grandson, Allen, nearly two years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Newberg, was taken to Doernbecher hospital October 14, suffering with a peanut in his lungs.

Many people here are employed in the walnut harvest, either in their own orchards or for their neighbors. According to reports from here and the leaves are so plentiful on the ground they retard picking.

Ernest Guenther received first colts this spring's and last year's colts at the Farm Produce show in Newberg last week. Frank Schmeltzer received first for best sire of colts. Mrs. Ira G. McCormick received two firsts and two seconds on potted plants.

Potato buyers were here this week and last contacting growers. They were offering from $1.25 for No. 1 to $1.50 for commercial grades at the farms. No sales were reported.

Glenn Miller is giving his new barn a coat of paint.

Ely McDougal is building a log house 16 by 20.

Joan Robinson, who spent the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Ragan, returned to her home in Centralia, Wash., Friday.

There will be a workers' conference at the Mountain Top church this Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pratt of The Dalles visited his cousin, Clayton Whitmore, and family October 14. They were accompanied by Mrs. Arthur McCormick of Portland.

Fire Grove Ladies' Social club will meet with Mrs. Flora Baker October 27. Plans will be made for the fall and winter program. This is the first meeting since September 1 when meetings were discontinued until after the busy season. Meetings will again be held every two weeks.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick will have charge of the card room at the Scholla-Laurel Farmer's Union card party and dance at Laurel this Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank Christie, who is employed in the Portland Sanitarium, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hoffman and family visited Earl Nieberger at Ridgefield, Wash., Sunday.

Miss Beryl Deford, who teaches at Eugene and Buford Deford, who is driving a truck for a contractor on the Wolf creek cut-off construction work, spent the week-end at home.

Pleasant View school has been organized to teach the children parliamentary rule, according to the teacher, Mrs. Rowena Ketcham. Officers elected were Gordon Christie, president; Don Vaughn, vice-president; Ardyth Elzowier, secretary; and Willie Rogers and Charles Harriman, sergeants-at-arms. New officers will be elected each month in order to give all pupils the training.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith and son, Donald of Halsey and Mrs. I. M. Tutill of Sutherland were honor guests at a dinner party Sunday at the H. H. Neill home. Niells were neighbors of the hostess when they lived in southern Oregon prior to moving here.

Neighborhood news from 30 Argus correspondents in different sections of Washington county appear in the Argus every week. Learn what your friends are doing for less than three cents a week.

State Capitol News Letter—Giving the highlights of official activity at Salem—Every week in the Argus.

Have men returned Sunday evening after a 12 days' hunting trip. They first hunted in the Hardman country and later went to the Burns district where they each bagged a deer. The other two hunting parties from here, who hunted in the Hardman district, returned home last week without game.

A. Otto accompanied Frank Hill and Ed Hoffman, Hillsboro, on a hunting trip Sunday in the Coast range.

Alfred Hutchens delivered stumps to the Yamhill Electric, Newberg, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Morgan's little grandson, Allen, nearly two years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Newberg, was taken to Doernbecher hospital October 14, suffering with a peanut in his lungs.

Many people here are employed in the walnut harvest, either in their own orchards or for their neighbors. According to reports from here and the leaves are so plentiful on the ground they retard picking.

Ernest Guenther received first colts this spring's and last year's colts at the Farm Produce show in Newberg last week. Frank Schmeltzer received first for best sire of colts. Mrs. Ira G. McCormick received two firsts and two seconds on potted plants.

Potato buyers were here this week and last contacting growers. They were offering from $1.25 for No. 1 to $1.50 for commercial grades at the farms. No sales were reported.

Glenn Miller is giving his new barn a coat of paint.

Ely McDougal is building a log house 16 by 20.

Joan Robinson, who spent the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Ragan, returned to her home in Centralia, Wash., Friday.

There will be a workers' conference at the Mountain Top church this Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pratt of The Dalles visited his cousin, Clayton Whitmore, and family October 14. They were accompanied by Mrs. Arthur McCormick of Portland.

Fire Grove Ladies' Social club will meet with Mrs. Flora Baker October 27. Plans will be made for the fall and winter program. This is the first meeting since September 1 when meetings were discontinued until after the busy season. Meetings will again be held every two weeks.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick will have charge of the card room at the Scholla-Laurel Farmer's Union card party and dance at Laurel this Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank Christie, who is employed in the Portland Sanitarium, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hoffman and family visited Earl Nieberger at Ridgefield, Wash., Sunday.

Miss Beryl Deford, who teaches at Eugene and Buford Deford, who is driving a truck for a contractor on the Wolf creek cut-off construction work, spent the week-end at home.

Pleasant View school has been organized to teach the children parliamentary rule, according to the teacher, Mrs. Rowena Ketcham. Officers elected were Gordon Christie, president; Don Vaughn, vice-president; Ardyth Elzowier, secretary; and Willie Rogers and Charles Harriman, sergeants-at-arms. New officers will be elected each month in order to give all pupils the training.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith and son, Donald of Halsey and Mrs. I. M. Tutill of Sutherland were honor guests at a dinner party Sunday at the H. H. Neill home. Niells were neighbors of the hostess when they lived in southern Oregon prior to moving here.

Neighborhood news from 30 Argus correspondents in different sections of Washington county appear in the Argus every week. Learn what your friends are doing for less than three cents a week.

State Capitol News Letter—Giving the highlights of official activity at Salem—Every week in the Argus.

Have men returned Sunday evening after a 12 days' hunting trip. They first hunted in the Hardman country and later went to the Burns district where they each bagged a deer. The other two hunting parties from here, who hunted in the Hardman district, returned home last week without game.

A. Otto accompanied Frank Hill and Ed Hoffman, Hillsboro, on a hunting trip Sunday in the Coast range.

Alfred Hutchens delivered stumps to the Yamhill Electric, Newberg, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Morgan's little grandson, Allen, nearly two years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Newberg, was taken to Doernbecher hospital October 14, suffering with a peanut in his lungs.

Many people here are employed in the walnut harvest, either in their own orchards or for their neighbors. According to reports from here and the leaves are so plentiful on the ground they retard picking.

Ernest Guenther received first colts this spring's and last year's colts at the Farm Produce show in Newberg last week. Frank Schmeltzer received first for best sire of colts. Mrs. Ira G. McCormick received two firsts and two seconds on potted plants.

Potato buyers were here this week and last contacting growers. They were offering from $1.25 for No. 1 to $1.50 for commercial grades at the farms. No sales were reported.

Glenn Miller is giving his new barn a coat of paint.

Ely McDougal is building a log house 16 by 20.

Joan Robinson, who spent the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Ragan, returned to her home in Centralia, Wash., Friday.

There will be a workers' conference at the Mountain Top church this Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pratt of The Dalles visited his cousin, Clayton Whitmore, and family October 14. They were accompanied by Mrs. Arthur McCormick of Portland.

Fire Grove Ladies' Social club will meet with Mrs. Flora Baker October 27. Plans will be made for the fall and winter program. This is the first meeting since September 1 when meetings were discontinued until after the busy season. Meetings will again be held every two weeks.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick will have charge of the card room at the Scholla-Laurel Farmer's Union card party and dance at Laurel this Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank Christie, who is employed in the Portland Sanitarium, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hoffman and family visited Earl Nieberger at Ridgefield, Wash., Sunday.

Miss Beryl Deford, who teaches at Eugene and Buford Deford, who is driving a truck for a contractor on the Wolf creek cut-off construction work, spent the week-end at home.

Pleasant View school has been organized to teach the children parliamentary rule, according to the teacher, Mrs. Rowena Ketcham. Officers elected were Gordon Christie, president; Don Vaughn, vice-president; Ardyth Elzowier, secretary; and Willie Rogers and Charles Harriman, sergeants-at-arms. New officers will be elected each month in order to give all pupils the training.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith and son, Donald of Halsey and Mrs. I. M. Tutill of Sutherland were honor guests at a dinner party Sunday at the H. H. Neill home. Niells were neighbors of the hostess when they lived in southern Oregon prior to moving here.

Neighborhood news from 30 Argus correspondents in different sections of Washington county appear in the Argus every week. Learn what your friends are doing for less than three cents a week.

State Capitol News Letter—Giving the highlights of official activity at Salem—Every week in the Argus.

Have men returned Sunday evening after a 12 days' hunting trip. They first hunted in the Hardman country and later went to the Burns district where they each bagged a deer. The other two hunting parties from here, who hunted in the Hardman district, returned home last week without game.

A. Otto accompanied Frank Hill and Ed Hoffman, Hillsboro, on a hunting trip Sunday in the Coast range.

Alfred Hutchens delivered stumps to the Yamhill Electric, Newberg, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Morgan's little grandson, Allen, nearly two years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Newberg, was taken to Doernbecher hospital October 14, suffering with a peanut in his lungs.

Many people here are employed in the walnut harvest, either in their own orchards or for their neighbors. According to reports from here and the leaves are so plentiful on the ground they retard picking.

Ernest Guenther received first colts this spring's and last year's colts at the Farm Produce show in Newberg last week. Frank Schmeltzer received first for best sire of colts. Mrs. Ira G. McCormick received two firsts and two seconds on potted plants.

Potato buyers were here this week and last contacting growers. They were offering from $1.25 for No. 1 to $1.50 for commercial grades at the farms. No sales were reported.

Glenn Miller is giving his new barn a coat of paint.

Ely McDougal is building a log house 16 by 20.

Joan Robinson, who spent the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Ragan, returned to her home in Centralia, Wash., Friday.

There will be a workers' conference at the Mountain Top church this Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pratt of The Dalles visited his cousin, Clayton Whitmore, and family October 14. They were accompanied by Mrs. Arthur McCormick of Portland.

Fire Grove Ladies' Social club will meet with Mrs. Flora Baker October 27. Plans will be made for the fall and winter program. This is the first meeting since September 1 when meetings were discontinued until after the busy season. Meetings will again be held every two weeks.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick will have charge of the card room at the Scholla-Laurel Farmer's Union card party and dance at Laurel this Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank Christie, who is employed in the Portland Sanitarium, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hoffman and family visited Earl Nieberger at Ridgefield, Wash., Sunday.

Miss Beryl Deford, who teaches at Eugene and Buford Deford, who is driving a truck for a contractor on the Wolf creek cut-off construction work, spent the week-end at home.

Pleasant View school has been organized to teach the children parliamentary rule, according to the teacher, Mrs. Rowena Ketcham. Officers elected were Gordon Christie, president; Don Vaughn, vice-president; Ardyth Elzowier, secretary; and Willie Rogers and Charles Harriman, sergeants-at-arms. New officers will be elected each month in order to give all pupils the training.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith and son, Donald of Halsey and Mrs. I. M. Tutill of Sutherland were honor guests at a dinner party Sunday at the H. H. Neill home. Niells were neighbors of the hostess when they lived in southern Oregon prior to moving here.

Neighborhood news from 30 Argus correspondents in different sections of Washington county appear in the Argus every week. Learn what your friends are doing for less than three cents a week.

State Capitol News Letter—Giving the highlights of official activity at Salem—Every week in the Argus.

Have men returned Sunday evening after a 12 days' hunting trip. They first hunted in the Hardman country and later went to the Burns district where they each bagged a deer. The other two hunting parties from here, who hunted in the Hardman district, returned home last week without game.

A. Otto accompanied Frank Hill and Ed Hoffman, Hillsboro, on a hunting trip Sunday in the Coast range.

Alfred Hutchens delivered stumps to the Yamhill Electric, Newberg, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Morgan's little grandson, Allen, nearly two years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Newberg, was taken to Doernbecher hospital October 14, suffering with a peanut in his lungs.

Many people here are employed in the walnut harvest, either in their own orchards or for their neighbors. According to reports from here and the leaves are so plentiful on the ground they retard picking.

Ernest Guenther received first colts this spring's and last year's colts at the Farm Produce show in Newberg last week. Frank Schmeltzer received first for best sire of colts. Mrs. Ira G. McCormick received two firsts and two seconds on potted plants.

Potato buyers were here this week and last contacting growers. They were offering from $1.25 for No. 1 to $1.50 for commercial grades at the farms. No sales were reported.

Glenn Miller is giving his new barn a coat of paint.

Ely McDougal is building a log house 16 by 20.

Joan Robinson, who spent the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Ragan, returned to her home in Centralia, Wash., Friday.

There will be a workers' conference at the Mountain Top church this Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pratt of The Dalles visited his cousin, Clayton Whitmore, and family October 14. They were accompanied by Mrs. Arthur McCormick of Portland.

Fire Grove Ladies' Social club will meet with Mrs. Flora Baker October 27. Plans will be made for the fall and winter program. This is the first meeting since September 1 when meetings were discontinued until after the busy season. Meetings will again be held every two weeks.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick will have charge of the card room at the Scholla-Laurel Farmer's Union card party and dance at Laurel this Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank Christie, who is employed in the Portland Sanitarium, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hoffman and family visited Earl Nieberger at Ridgefield, Wash., Sunday.

Miss Beryl Deford, who teaches at Eugene and Buford Deford, who is driving a truck for a contractor on the Wolf creek cut-off construction work, spent the week-end at home.

Pleasant View school has been organized to teach the children parliamentary rule, according to the teacher, Mrs. Rowena Ketcham. Officers elected were Gordon Christie, president; Don Vaughn, vice-president; Ardyth Elzowier, secretary; and Willie Rogers and Charles Harriman, sergeants-at-arms. New officers will be elected each month in order to give all pupils the training.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith and son, Donald of Halsey and Mrs. I. M. Tutill of Sutherland were honor guests at a dinner party Sunday at the H. H. Neill home. Niells were neighbors of the hostess when they lived in southern Oregon prior to moving here.

Neighborhood news from 30 Argus correspondents in different sections of Washington county appear in the Argus every week. Learn what your friends are doing for less than three cents a week.

State Capitol News Letter—Giving the highlights of official activity at Salem—Every week in the Argus.

Have men returned Sunday evening after a 12 days' hunting trip. They first hunted in the Hardman country and later went to the Burns district where they each bagged a deer. The other two hunting parties from here, who hunted in the Hardman district, returned home last week without game.

A. Otto accompanied Frank Hill and Ed Hoffman, Hillsboro, on a hunting trip Sunday in the Coast range.

Alfred Hutchens delivered stumps to the Yamhill Electric, Newberg, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Morgan's little grandson, Allen, nearly two years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Newberg, was taken to Doernbecher hospital October 14, suffering with a peanut in his lungs.

Many people here are employed in the walnut harvest, either in their own orchards or for their neighbors. According to reports from here and the leaves are so plentiful on the ground they retard picking.

Ernest Guenther received first colts this spring's and last year's colts at the Farm Produce show in Newberg last week. Frank Schmeltzer received first for best sire of colts. Mrs. Ira G. McCormick received two firsts and two seconds on potted plants.

Potato buyers were here this week and last contacting growers. They were offering from $1.25 for No. 1 to $1.50 for commercial grades at the farms. No sales were reported.

Glenn Miller is giving his new barn a coat of paint.

Ely McDougal is building a log house 16 by 20.

Joan Robinson, who spent the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Ragan, returned to her home in Centralia, Wash., Friday.

There will be a workers' conference at the Mountain Top church this Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pratt of The Dalles visited his cousin, Clayton Whitmore, and family October 14. They were accompanied by Mrs. Arthur McCormick of Portland.

Fire Grove Ladies' Social club will meet with Mrs. Flora Baker October 27. Plans will be made for the fall and winter program. This is the first meeting since September 1 when meetings were discontinued until after the busy season. Meetings will again be held every two weeks.

Mrs. Ira G. McCormick will have charge of the card room at the Scholla-Laurel Farmer's Union card party and dance at Laurel this Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank Christie, who is employed in the Portland Sanitarium, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hoffman and family visited Earl Nieberger at Ridgefield, Wash., Sunday.

Miss Beryl Deford, who teaches at Eugene and Buford Deford, who is driving a truck for a contractor on the Wolf creek cut-off construction work, spent the week-end at home.

Pleasant View school has been organized to teach the children parliamentary rule, according to the teacher, Mrs. Rowena Ketcham. Officers elected were Gordon Christie, president; Don Vaughn, vice-president; Ardyth Elzowier, secretary; and Willie Rogers and Charles Harriman, sergeants-at-