

North Plains Aids Bandon

St. Edwards Ladies Give Bazaar Next Tuesday

By LaVelle Jackson NORTH PLAINS—Pythian Sisters are collecting clothing, linens, rugs and anything useful to the people in distress at Bandon. Mrs. Henry Cypher is in charge of this project and if anyone has something to contribute in this line it would be appreciated. Mrs. Cypher stated that they will send the box the latter part of the week.

Place Sold Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kroetch, who have lived in this vicinity for the past few years, sold their home to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Peck of eastern Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Kroetch are undecided as to where they will locate, but for the present they will visit friends and relatives in Washington.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ruecker were Mrs. Allie Robnett of Waldport, her son and family. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oswald of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Samway and Miss Dale Ruecker of Portland.

Bazaar Tuesday Ladies of the St. Edwards' church will give a bazaar Tuesday, at the K. of P. hall. They will have a variety of work, grab bag, candy, fish pond and many other amusements. The boys from St. Mary's school at Beaverton will present a play, "Feed Store Mystery." Everybody is welcome.

P.-T. A. to Meet North Plains Parent-Teacher association will meet Tuesday at 3 p. m. at the school house. "Is Honesty the Best Policy" is the topic for discussion. The leaders are Mrs. Tom Stigum and Mrs. Carl Christner. All members are urged to attend.

Miss Eickworth Talks "Understand Yourself and You Will Be Able to Understand Your Friends," was the topic discussed by Miss Blanche Eickworth, home demonstration agent, at the unit meeting at North Plains October 14. Local homemakers are showing a great deal of interest in these meetings and attendance is improving.

Miss Marlene Kaufman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kaufman, returned to her home Sunday after spending two weeks in Portland with her grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Kaufman.

Mrs. Richard Sandford and Mrs. Thomas Connell visited Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead at Nehalem over the week-end. They reported the weather was wonderful on the beach all the time they were there.

Miss Einora Sandford, who is now teaching in the high school at Sherwood, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sandford, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Ray Miller of Cascade Locks spent Sunday visiting her mother, Mrs. Frank Keenen.

Miss Marjerie Vandehey, who is working in the telephone office here, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Vandehey, in Hillsboro.

Miss Eugenie Cypher attended a dinner party Saturday evening in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Savage.

Pythian Sisters have planned a bazaar to be given in the North Plains K. of P. hall November 14.

Cherry Grove (By Mrs. P. Patton) Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Olaf Anderson last Thursday. The meteorologist on Mt. Richmond states that there has only been .78 of an inch of rain since July 31. Walnut growers are waiting for a good rain to bring their nuts down.

Andrew Frid, who is convalescing from a broken hip in the Washington county hospital, is able to be up in a wheel chair. J. H. Baker of Dallas is helping J. J. Mord pour concrete for a basement under his house this week.

John Morell is having the concrete poured this week for a basement under a new house that he has started to build. Mrs. Ludwell Moore, with her infant son Thomas Alfred, came Sunday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wallin. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Anderson and daughter Gladys visited friends and attended church in Vener-burg, Wash. Sunday. The Anderson family made their home in Venerburg at one time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Rydervood, Wash., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, and other relatives Saturday.

Some of the new victims of the mumps are Herb Davis, Viola Wikander and Dorothy Folsom.

Beaverton Woman Falls, Breaks Leg

BEAVERTON—Mrs. J. H. Hulett, wife of the editor of the Beaverton Review, fell Sunday evening while in her home and broke her left leg just below the hip.

Those from Beaverton attending the Congregational state board meeting at the First Congregational church in Portland Tuesday were Mrs. Harper Burns, Mrs. L. D. Shellenberger, Miss Juliette Carter, Mrs. H. M. Metcalf, Mrs. W. C. McKell and Mrs. L. W. Tucker.

Mrs. J. Gibson Sr. returned Tuesday last week from a five-months' stay in California. Mrs. W. J. Scott was hostess Tuesday to a bridge luncheon at the Campbell Club in Portland.

Those from Beaverton attending were Messadmes Doy Gray, F. H. Schoene, E. E. Stipe, R. R. Summers, John Summers, George Blosser, W. H. Boyd, G. G. McCormick, C. M. McKell, A. E. Hanson, H. R. Nelson, F. G. Donaldson and Miss Juliette Carter. Prizes were won by Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Nelson.

A silver tea was held at the Christian church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. and Mrs. Jack Fleetwood of Jewell are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell and small daughter of Lexington, O., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sylvester have moved into their recently purchased home on the Beaverton highway, east of Beaverton. Mr. and Mrs. John Gray and small daughter Joene of Eugene spent Sunday with Mr. Gray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doy Gray, of Beaverton, in compliment of Mrs. Doy Gray's birthday.

Beaver chapter, O. E. S., was honored October 13 in having a large delegation of visitors from Portland and St. Helens chapters. Advance night was observed, and degrees were conferred.

Service Quarters Being Remodeled Service quarters of the local Hudson-Terraplane agency are being remodeled and reconditioned to conform with Hudson-Terraplane standards. The Hudson-Terraplane will be the first agency in Oregon outside of Portland to comply, according to Thomas S. Sholes, proprietor.

New equipment is being installed to permit any type of mechanical service on all cars as well as Hudson-Terraplane approved service. Sholes also states that he plans to open a complete body and fender department in the very near future.

Frank Warrens, formerly employed by Godfrey-Seaberg Co. in Portland, has been added to the local mechanical force.

Dixie Mountain Grange to Meet DIXIE MOUNTAIN—The Grange will meet this coming Friday evening instead of October 30 as stated before. The Hillsboro Grange will be guests.

Program Planned The school will give a Halloween program a week later. Harry Conklin is at home again after a month in San Francisco.

House Brokers are beginning the building of a house on their tract of land.

Turkey Grading School Interests Raisers Here Turkey raisers of Washington county will be interested in the Turkey grading school which will be held in Eugene October 30 and 31, reports L. E. Francis, assistant county agent. These schools, are sponsored by the extension service and conducted by representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Neighborhood news from 30 Argus correspondents in different sections of Washington county appear in the Argus each week. Learn what your friends are doing for less than three cents a week.

Frenz Sanitary NAPKINS 17c Klenzo Facial TISSUES 200 Sheets 10c Tudor Alarm CLOCKS 98c The Delta Drug Store

Ruth Nominated for Mayor at Cornelius Caucus; Add Books

(By Mrs. Dorothy Cooke) CORNELIUS—A caucus meeting was held at the city hall on Wednesday evening. C. C. Ruth was nominated for mayor, and George Holscher Sr., and O. Charter for councilmen. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Klatt and family of Salem visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Goodin Thursday.

Buy New Books The board of the Cornelius public library met Monday evening. Eighty-two new books have been purchased and will be placed on the shelves in the near future.

Conference Planned Dr. Louis Magin, superintendent of the Salem district of the M. E. church, will be speaker at the morning worship at 10 o'clock at the local M. E. church, Sunday morning. Following the Hillsboro worship hour, at which Dr. Magin is speaker, a pot-luck dinner will be held and a joint quarterly conference meeting at the Hillsboro M. E. church.

The Fern Hill Ladies' club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Frank Hulsman for quilting. A pot-luck dinner was served at noon to about 30 present.

Family Moves The Crandall family, who have been living at the T. L. Stream place, moved to Hillsboro last week.

Mrs. George Wilcox entertained at her home on Friday evening with a party for the Men's and Women's Bible classes. Young People's class and Epworth League of the M. E. Sunday school. About 30 were present.

Mrs. Rowena Ketcham, teacher at Pleasant View, was a guest at the L. C. Mooberry home Saturday.

Farewell Party Held Mrs. R. B. Scott and Mrs. Meda French were honor guests at the Ladies' Aid meeting at the M. E. church Wednesday. Mrs. Scott is moving to Beaverton soon, and Mrs. French plans to leave soon for Bend. They were presented with gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Katon of Montevano, Wash., accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. John Partridge and daughter of Maine, were guests a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith and family. Mr. and Mrs. Katon are Mrs. Smith's parents.

The Women's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church met at the church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Dorothy Poffenbarger, led the devotional meeting, using as her topic, "Appreciation." Mrs. F.

Farmington Group Will Meet Friday FARMINGTON—Women's club meets Friday afternoon in the club rooms at the school for a business meeting and a pot-luck lunch.

Betty Ann Stevens enrolled as a fifth grade pupil in the school Monday. She arrived here from Acquia, Idaho, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevens and family of Acquia, Idaho, arrived on Friday of last week. They are planning to make their home in this community on the property they own here.

Mrs. Nankess of near American Falls, Idaho, has been visiting her brother, John Burkey, and family the last two weeks.

Local friends have been providing the dinner tables with plenty of pheasants the last few days.

Miss Henrietta Dalby entertained at a dinner party at her home Sunday. Miss Helen Bagnell and Miss Esther Boze were among the guests. The community Sunday school had a record attendance of thirty last Sunday. Mrs. William Gembella is superintendent.

Bend People on Trip to England

(By Mrs. O. H. Peterson) BEND—Mrs. Wheaton and grandchildren Phyllis and Edwin; Wootendyke left last week for England. Mrs. Wheaton's former homeland, where they will visit relatives and friends for several months. They are en route for New York, from where they boarded the "Queen Mary" for Southampton, England.

Mrs. Ed Johnson entertained with a luncheon party Friday afternoon in honor of her birthday. Present were Mrs. Philip Adams, Mrs. H. L. Elsner and son Ronald and daughter Carol Jane, and Mrs. O. J. Tessel.

Mrs. Clancy and daughter, Mrs. Thomas and baby of Washington visited at the H. L. Elsner home the first of last week. The Clancys were former residents on the H. L. Elsner place.

Miss Eunice Mitchell left two weeks ago for Connecticut as a delegate from the Women's Missionary society state convention and conference of the United Brethren churches at Salem last August.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Meyer and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burris of Portland, spent several days last week at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weller and two daughters returned last week from Clifton, where he had employment for the summer. They are staying at the home of Mrs. Weller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. North and family for awhile.

The Tigard high school football team played Parkrose and defeated them 13 to 6. This Friday Tigard plays Estacada.

J. J. Young of Portland, formerly of here, celebrated his 78th birthday anniversary recently at the home of his son, Charles Young, and family in Sherwood.

The Sherwood high school has a new 31 person steam bus. It will seat 31 persons. This bus will make the Tualatin and Pleasant Hill route and will be driven by Joe Irel.

MRS. ORNA DELL HARSH Mrs. Orna Dell Harsh, 66, of Forest Grove died at Portland hospital October 18 and funeral services were held at the Forest Grove Undertaking company chapel Wednesday afternoon. Interment was in Mt. View cemetery.

Legal blanks, 5c and 10c. A complete supply available at the Hillsboro Argus.

Check That Dangerous Bronchitis Cough-Tonight Sleep Sound All Night Long ALL coughs look alike to BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE (triple acting)—one sip of this grand medicine usually stops an ordinary cough—the tough, old deep seated cough and the persistent bronchial cough are usually checked and under control after just a few doses—no more tormenting, sleepless nights.

BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE is different—its supreme—it acts like a flash, proves it with one small bottle at Hillsboro Pharmacy and all good druggists—guaranteed. Adv.

Kinton Ladies Plan Benefit

(By Mrs. E. L. Cox) KINTON—Everyone is invited to attend the chicken supper, sponsored by the Kinton Ladies' Aid society, to be held in the Grange hall next Thursday evening. Proceeds are to be used in connection with the church work.

J. C. Snider returned last week from a visit with his son, Clarence, and wife of Long Beach, Wash. His son, Lester Snider, is visiting at the home of his father for awhile.

Mrs. George H. Snider and daughters Mrs. Ivy Flint and Mrs. Lucille Saelens of Portland returned last week from a short visit in California.

Visit Scholls Grange Kinton Grange paid Scholls Grange a fraternal visit last Saturday, and presented them with the traveling gavel, which they in turn will take to Forest Grove Grange. There were about a dozen from the local grange who attended.

There is an epidemic of chicken pox in this community, of those who are ill are doing nicely.

Plan Bazaar Officers and members of the Home Economic club of the local grange are sponsoring a bazaar to be held at the grange hall December 11. There will be a program and other things of interest to all.

S. H. Pomeroy will be the leader of the Bible study and prayer meeting to be held at the church this Friday. Everyone is invited.

Funeral Rites Held Mrs. John Weber Mrs. Marie Weber, 58, resident of Hillsboro for the last 12 years, died here Friday after an illness of three months. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Donelson & Sewell funeral chapel with Rev. H. A. Deck officiating. Burial was in the River-view cemetery, Portland.

Mrs. Weber was a member of the Hillsboro chapter, Eastern Star, and a member of the Methodist church. She is survived by the widower, John K. Weber; a son, John D. of Oswego; and a daughter, Mary O. Barnes of Portland.

Legal blanks, 5c and 10c. A complete supply available at the Hillsboro Argus.

Say you saw it in the Argus.

SAXTON & LOONEY Producers of Quality SAND and GRAVEL Plant located 4 miles north of Forest Grove on Gales Creek. Phone 1609R

Fishing Tackle Guns, Ammunition CORWIN HARDWARE 128 S. 2nd Ave. Phone 72 Agent Long Radios

Dr. P. G. Brown DENTIST Don't Delay Your Dental Work PAY ON MY EASY PAYMENT PLAN

J. E. CARPENTIER Republican Nominee for County Assessor "Competent and Experienced"

Now serving first term. 16 years' experience deputy assessor. 24 years resident of Washington county. VOTE 43 X November 2, 1936 (Paid Adv.)

Dr. P. G. Brown DENTIST Commercial Bldg. Second and Main Sts. Hillsboro Phone 61

Who are Our DIRECTORS The directors of a bank are an excellent measure of its worth, soundness and integrity. We are proud to point publicly to the men who serve on our board. They have served from ten to twenty years . . . all lend their active guidance to the shaping of this bank's policy.

COMMERCIAL NATIONAL BANK BOARD OF DIRECTORS Edward Schulmerich—President E. I. Kuratli—Vice-President W. C. Christensen—Vice-President M. P. Cady—President Cady Motor Co. B. E. Maling—President B. E. Maling, Inc. R. R. Easter—District Manager PEPCO Lester Ireland—President Lester Ireland & Co.

Commercial National Bank "The Largest Independent Bank in Washington County" Hillsboro Oregon MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Money Saving Offer... The News-Telegram and Hillsboro Argus BOTH ONE YEAR BY MAIL FOR $3.50

Send Your Order to HILLSBORO ARGUS ACT NOW!

Southern Pacific News LOW SUMMER FARES EAST THIS WINTER! —plus a FREE TICKET through CALIFORNIA Low first-class roundtrip fares to the East (as low as summer excursion fares. Similarly reduced first-class winter fares) are in effect all this winter. These fares are good via sunny California and the balmy Southwest at no additional cost—in effect, a free ticket through California. For example, the winter first-class roundtrip fare from most west-

Sewer Connections On Easy Terms Get your order in now—No charge for sewer permits. ESTIMATES FREE. Call 72 or write P. O. Box 319. We will be glad to explain our plan to you. Sewer Work Repair Work New Installations "WE SAVE YOU MONEY" Hillsboro Plumbing Co. P. O. Box 319 at Corwin's Hardware Telephone 72

Richard G. Scott Representative Send a Farmer to the Legislature RICHARD G. SCOTT for Representative (Paid Adv.)