CONGRESSMAN MOTT is one of the recognized leaders of the National House of Representa-

He has placed the First Congressional District of Oregon in the most commanding and secure position it has ever occupied in the Hause.

He has obtained for his District more beneficial legislation and more Federal revenue than it has ever received be-

He is a ranking member of the two standing committees of the House (the Committee on Roads and the Committee on Public Lands) which together control most of the national legislation directly affecting the First Oregon District.

He is a member of the Committee on Committees-the most powerful appointive au-thority of the House of Representatives,

He holds a strategic place in the floor organization of his own party in the House and is a member of the council which determines its legislative policy in that body.

HIS RE-ELECTION ASSURES CONTINUED ACTIVE AND EXPER-IENCED REPRESENTATION IN CONGRESS.

His opponent, M. K. Abrahams of Forest Grove, however, was present and spoke, declaring that first he was for impartial law enforcement. He believed, he said, that an officer should set an example in ment. He believed, he said, that an officer should set an example in his personal conduct. Another point, he said, was in co-operation between the different county officials and between the sheriffs office and the state police. More attention should be paid to uncollected and unsecured personal taxes. Abrahams said. The office, if he was elected, he remarked, would be operated with the same personnel so long as it was found efficient.

First of the legislative candidates to speak was A. M. Jannsen of Reedville, republican, who opened his statement with the declaration that the same personnel so long as it was found efficient.
