

All Clubs Represented at County Meeting

County meeting of Federated Women's clubs was held Friday in the Christian church, with representatives present from the thirteen clubs of the federation in attendance. Mrs. Essex Marsh of Beaver-ton gave a report for the County Health association and tuberculosis seal sale. Mrs. Olin Hosford of Portland, vice-president of the State Federation, told about the publication of the Oregon Women's clubs magazine, and reports were given from clubs and committee chairmen.

Mrs. Thomas Connell, county president, announced department committee chairmen as follows:

Mrs. Hugh McGilvra of Forest Grove, child welfare; Mrs. W. S. Roberts of Forest Grove, press and publicity; Mrs. V. W. Gardner of Hillsboro, music; Mrs. Dona Meredith of Gaston, education; Miss Margaret Simmons of Tigard, scholarship loan fund; Miss Velda Koeber of Scholls club, junior membership; Mrs. Gladys Meyer of Hiteon club, parliamentary; Mrs. J. B. Ream of Metzger, legislation; Mrs. C. Eslinger of Service club, Hillsboro, Americanization and international relations; Mrs. John Sinclair of Leasville, American Home; Mrs. Art Williams of Metzger, dramatics; Mrs. S. S. Stearns of Scholls, Doernbecher hospital; Mrs. Alice McCormack of Cornelius, endowment fund; and Mrs. Harold Kellington of the Hillsboro Needlecraft club, art.

Luncheon was served in the basement of the church, and following luncheon the hostess clubs, Service and Needlecraft of Hillsboro, presented a program including a piano duet by Lynn Hall and reading by Mrs. H. H. Stannard. The music chairman presented vocal duets by Mrs. L. C. Kramien and Mrs. V. W. Gardner, with Mrs. Fred Sewell as accompanist, and a piano selection by Miss Blanche Finegan of Cornelius.

D. A. Norton, legislator of Multnomah county, was the speaker, and discussed the measures to be voted on Tuesday. He was introduced by Mrs. Edward Conklin, program chairman.

The club went on record as favoring a permanent home demonstration agent in the county, following a speech by Mrs. M. Romig, president of Hillsboro, P-T A. A full-time county health unit, proposed by Mrs. Hugh McGilvra of Forest Grove, was accepted as the year's project, and financial assistance will also be given. Five dollars was voted for the Red Cross membership roll-call, and Mrs. Gladys Meyer, whose home was lost by fire Thursday night was sent a friendly contribution from the club.

Three B. P. Clubs Meet November 9th

Business and Professional Women's club from Hillsboro and Portland will join St. Helens club in a "get-acquainted" meeting at St. Helens Monday night, November 9.
