Save Existing Safeguards

THE PROPOSED constitutional amendment titled "Amendment Forbidding Prevention or Regulation of Certain Advertising if Truthful", would, if enacted, invalidate all existing laws controlling misleading, deceptive, indecent and even fraudulent advertising. It utterly fails to replace these present enactments with adequate safeguards against vicious advertising practices.

President Roosevelt having signed the project additional funds will insure the completion of the 17-mile gap on the Wolf creek and allow grading and clearing of the remaining portion of Wilson river. E. J. Griffith, state administrator of WPA, said.

Preview of 1933 Chevrolet Held

A preview of the 1937 Chevrolet passenger and commercial cars was held in Portland Wednesday with more than 700 dealers, men, bankers and newspapermen in attendance. All were guests of the Chevrolet Motor company at a luncheon at the Multnomah hotel at noon.

The new line with the improvements and refinements were pointed out in talks and by moving pictures throughout the day. The extensive advertising plans for the new cars were outlined in a moving picture and increased use of newspaper space was promised.

Hillsboro Motor company, local Chevrolet dealers, had the following in attendance: Frank M. V. Whitelaw, in attendance; Frank Pauli, Elzie Lovellett, George Wick, M. J. McEntee, Earl Morley, C. B. May, Charles Follett, Ed Grace, Dale Barber, and Robert White-lake. Others here were W. C. Christensen and J. Searley of the Commercial National bank, William G. Hare and W. Verne McKinney.

The new cars will be on display in the salesrooms of the local dealer November 7.

Former Head of Rotary is Speaker

Donald A. Adams of New Haven, Conn., spoke before a joint meeting of the Hillsboro and Forest Grove Rotary clubs Friday night. He is a former president of Rotary International and is now chairman of the laymen's advisory committee of the Congregational church of the United States.

Dictatorships of the past were brought about through a breakdown of loyalties, according to the speaker, who held that we must be willing to assume individual responsibilities of citizenship and come out publicly for the right.
