

Laurel Unit to Convene Friday

Hallowe'en Party Attracts Many Folk Saturday

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)
LAUREL—Local home extension unit will meet Friday at 10:30 a. m. at the community hall for a demonstration on "table service" given by Mrs. Edna McNay and Mrs. Bernice Brown. A planned lunch will be served at noon. Everyone is invited to attend.

Birthday Celebrated
Messrs. and Mesdames Jacob and Walter Schmidt were guests at a birthday party Sunday at the home of Mrs. Jacob Schmidt's sister, Mrs. Philip Messinger of Beaver Creek, celebrating Mr. Messinger's anniversary. About 35 relatives were present.

Attendance Good
More than one hundred people attended the Hallowe'en party at the hall Saturday evening. Miss Blanche Eickworth of Hillsboro conducted the games, which caused much merriment and enjoyment. The people of the community express their appreciation of Miss Eickworth's presence and help in making the evening a successful one.

Celebrate Birthdays
Mrs. W. L. Stevens entertained with a dinner party at home Sunday, celebrating the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. George Stevens of Portland and Miss Irene Stevens of Oswego, who spent the week-end at home. Other guests were George Stevens of Portland, Mrs. Hattie Williams and Clay Freeman of Hillsboro, Miss Ina Stevens and Tom Bateman of Vernonia, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevens, W. L. Stevens and Dorothy and Betty Anne Stevens.

Beaverton

"The Man Who Owns One" is the best Salesman for 'Caterpillar' Tractors

Our "Caterpillar" is six years old, has done a good job and earned us some money. It is in very good shape and we have no idea of trading it in.

We have instructed the Dealer that if he can't sell tractors, to bring the prospects to us and we will do the selling for him.

Yours truly,
