Hillsboro Residents Visit Boulder Dam

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. McDonald and Mrs. H. E. Staples returned Wednesday from a two weeks' trip to California. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald visited in San Francisco and Los Angeles, drove to Boulder Dam, Death Valley, Carson City, and Lake Tahoe. Returning along the Redwood highway and coast route Mrs. Staples visited her sister, Mrs. J. Birchell at Salinas, and other sister, Mrs. M. E. Brown in Oakland, and friends at Carmel, Monterey, and San Francisco.

The McDonalds were much impressed by the size and engineering of Boulder Dam. They went down into the dam on the Nevada side and saw the offices and machinery, and saw the installation of the third rotor. Only Los Angeles and Boulder City are now being supplied with power, but the capacity of the dam will supply power for 14 cities the size of Detroit.

Hillsboro Boys Return from Trip Orient Saturday

Robert Ellington and Stanley Kreier returned Saturday from a month's trip to the Orient on the steamship "General Sherman." They worked as waiters on the ship. Ports they visited were Yokohama and Kobe, Japan; Shanghai and Hongkong, China; and Manila, P. I.

The boys were particularly impressed with the military display in Japan, where streets are filled with motor lorries carrying Japanese soldiers. They were interested in the sham bayonet practice aboard Japanese war ships, where the soldiers wore protective wooden masks and fought each other with wooden guns. The boys were also in the terrible storm that did so much damage in the Philippine Islands. The ship was at sea and the force of the storm broke port-holes, flooding their sleeping quarters, and stung away part of the rail on the second deck. The ship docked at San Francisco the end of the week and the boys came home by train.

State Regent of D. A. R. Visits

David Hill chapter of D. A. R. met at the home of Mrs. C. E. Wells November 4. Mrs. G. Boone Harding, state regent, made her official visit. She gave the main talk of the afternoon, telling her visit as official delegate from Oregon to the Continental Congress in Washington, D. C., in April. She gave a general outline of special projects the various chapters in the state are interested in for this year. Especial mention was made of the part the D. A. R. is doing in the restoration of the McLoughlin house in Oregon City.

Mrs. Howard P. Arnest, past regent of Wahkeena chapter in Portland, and present state custodian, led the chapter in the pledge to the flag and the Daughter's Creed.

Marjorie Wells Simpson sang several solos and Mary Manley played a piano solo.

Tea was served. Mrs. Idylla Manley, regent, pouring.

Out of town members present were the various chapters in Beaverton of Willamette chapter and Mrs. Laura E. Currin of Yamhill chapter. McMinnville. Other guests included prospective members and the heads of the local women's patriotic organizations.

Conference at Klamath Falls— Mrs. Zola Morgan, state president of the Business and Professional Women's club, will leave tonight for Klamath Falls, where she will attend the Southern Oregon B. P. district conference over the week-end. Several other local members will go to Klamath Falls Saturday and attend the conference Sunday.

Miss Lytle Hostess— Miss Marion Lytle entertained her bridge club with a dinner party Monday evening at her apartment in the Washington hotel. Miss Lytle and Charles Ellis of Portland was a special guest.

Miss Catherine Boge Bride of E. Hatfield

At an impressive ceremony last Sunday afternoon at St. Paul's Methodist church, Miss Catherine Boge became the bride of Edward Hatfield, son of J. J. Hatfield of Hillsboro officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with full length train and veil. She carried a bouquet of roses and bouvardia.

The maid of honor, Miss Wanda Finegan, in lavender satin, and the bridesmaids, Miss Esther Boge, in aquamarine satin, and Miss Dora Withycombe in peach satin, carried old-fashioned nosegay bouquets. Little Misses Margaret and Maurine Putnam, quite colored in ankle-length rose colored silk dresses and nosegay bouquets, were the flower girls.

The ring bearer, little Pat Casey, wore a Fauntleroy suit of black and white. The groom, best man and ushers wore dark business suits.

Raymond Casey was best man, and Ted Rutschman and Ashley Dickinson, Jr. were ushers.

Decorations were very effective with the front of the church representing an altar with seven candles of seven candles each and bankings of palms, ferns and potted plants.

Mrs. Olga Harding played the prelude on the violin, accompanied on the piano by her father, Mr. Singer. Miss Minerva Fuller sang "I Love You Truly." She was accompanied by Miss Mildred James. Miss James played the wedding march by Lohengrin.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the parlors of the church to about 200 relatives and friends. Mrs. R. Casey, Mrs. R. Moore and Miss Evelyn Hatfield presided at the refreshment table, assisted by Miss Helen Bagnell and Miss Alta Clark. On a special table the wedding gifts were displayed.

They left immediately for a short wedding trip to California. On their return they plan to make their home on their farm near Hillsboro.

The bride is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and attended Pacific university. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Boge of Farmington, and is well known in this community.
