Scout Dies After a Brief Illness

HELVETIA—Freddie Sorensen, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sigurd Sorensen of Linnton, died at the Doernbecher hospital November 10 after three days illness. Funeral services were held at the Pearson's funeral church in Portland with Rev. Place of Linnton Community House officiating. Interment was in Helvetia cemetery. He was born at Westport November 9, 1923. Deceased is survived by his parents and two brothers, Calvin and James. Freddie joined the Boy Scouts during the four years that he lived in this district and over a year ago when the family moved to Linnton he was transferred to troop 72, and the funeral service was conducted by the scouts at Helvetia with Scoutmaster Joseph Wenzel officiating. The service was similar to that for a soldier. The official neckerchief and emblem draped the casket. Taps were played after the scoutmaster and scouts repeated the scout oath. Two Sea Scouts and Boy Scouts from Linnton troop joined troop 247 at the grave where the flag was at half mast.

Scout Dies After a Brief Illness

Freddie attended scout meeting Thursday night and was in good health except for a slight cold. On Saturday he had an internal hemorrhage and was taken to the hospital. Many will remember him as the little boy who was always willing to sing and yodel at local entertainments.

Mr. and Mrs. Sorensen wish to thank all for their sympathy and the immense floral offerings.

He was the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Badetscher of this vicinity.
