

Cyrus Talks Laurel Meet; Plan Dinner

LAUREL—Farmers need not worry or be discouraged because their fall grain does not come up on account of the dry weather, according to W. F. Cyrus, county agent, who met with the local Farmers' Union unit at their regular meeting held in the community hall Thursday evening. He says it will eventually come and gave them some instructions on how to treat the grain on account of the lack of moisture. A discussion was held concerning next year's county fair and a committee appointed to attend the county meeting of the union in Hillsboro December 4 for further plans. A literary program, under the supervision of Mrs. Bird McCormick and Mr. Stiff, a card party, managed by Mrs. J. H. Felton and a dance will be held in the hall here Saturday evening, November 28.

Pupils absent from the Laurel school on account of illness are Dolores Sturm, Arthur McCoy, Doris White, Georgia Burke and Dorothy Shumacher. Ellen and Ruth Shattuck were ill last week, but returned Monday. Bonnie Jean Kleier was absent on account of a burn, but was able to return this week. Whooping cough and severe colds are the principal cause of absences.

A number of young folks from here attended the Rutchman-Finigan wedding at the Fitzgerald home on Chehalis Mountain Sunday evening.

Dinner November 29

The post-Thanksgiving dinner at the community hall is Sunday, November 29, instead of the 28th as was reported last week.

After Sunday school services were conducted by Mountain Home folks Sunday with Mrs. V. T. Speece in charge and leading the singing, short talks were made by Mrs. Browning, Mrs. Roy Ego and Harry Schmelzer. A vocal trio was given by Mr. and Mrs. Ego and Harry Schmelzer, accompanied by Mrs. Speece, concluded the services.

The Friendly Carvers Sunday school class met at the Raleigh Whitmore home Friday evening with fifteen present. An invitation was accepted from the Double-Tree class of Mountain Home Sunday school to be their guests in the church parlors December 18. Plans were made to entertain the young folks of this community with a party at the Mrs. Lena Meyers home during the holidays.

"Lattic Light" 4-H girls sewing club, held a meeting at the school house Wednesday and will have a social evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Wilma Schmelzer of Mountain Home, Friday evening.

Mrs. John McFee returned home Sunday after nearly three weeks spent in Hillsboro receiving medical aid. She is somewhat improved, but unable to work. Mr. McFee is ill at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whittle spent the week-end at the Mrs. Alice Lang home in Portland, Mrs.

Whittle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Deason, who are house guests of the Whittles, are spending several days at and near Kelso, Wash., visiting friends and viewing the country as a probable location for themselves and relatives.

C. P. Stafford is quite ill with a cold.

Mrs. Milo Whisman of Wenatchee, Wash., was a guest of her brother-in-law, H. M. Whisman, from Saturday until Tuesday, when she continued on a trip to California.

Work is progressing on the electric line extending west past the Ames Watkins home and houses are being ready for the "juice" in the near future.

Mrs. Minta Adams of Farmington is at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Mulloy, assisting in the care of their mother, Mrs. Millie Campbell, who is not at all well and also Miss Thelma Mulloy, who is still bedfast, but is slowly improving from her recent illness.

The 23-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sturm, who was taken to the Jones hospital six weeks ago with pneumonia, has been in the Doernbecher hospital the last four weeks. Two other children have the whooping cough very severely.

Mrs. E. Granstrom of Cascade Locks and Miss Gretchen Granstrom of Portland were Arrived Day guests at the Fred Schmidt home.

George Schmidt of Gold Beach and Charlie Schmidt, fire warden near Forest Grove, were Friday and Saturday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmidt.

Those among the chorus who will assist the cast are: Dan Drossen, Yacko Maeda, Earl McPeak, Patty Cook, Howard McDonald, Barbara Wilson, Jimmy Brown, Ike Wakagui, Juanita Wolford, Everett McCormick, Alvina Parnley, Rudolph Berwald, Rosie Kinoshita, Gene White, Alma Miller, John Johnson, Dale Eberly, Mary Bell, Marnie Kawamoto, Dorothy Miller. Those in the Dutch Dance are Connie Lou Kennedy, Kay Lien, Tillie Lou Moore, Mabel Kinoshita, Gene White, Alma Miller, Sam Maeda, and Janet Sellers. The operetta is full of mystery and fun, and is in the woodland nook, where a group of young artists are studying. They heartily believe that instead of being finished, art will finish them. There is a great deal of mystery in the play. Several rings and gold pieces are stolen. The costumes are very colorful and pretty.

Evelyn Shipley a junior in high school was operated on for appendicitis Friday. Her mother, Mrs. Emmett Shipley, stayed in Portland until Sunday and she returned with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shipley, who visited their granddaughter.

Ervin Mead son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Mead of Bald Mountain, is in the Emanuel hospital recovering from an appendicitis operation which was performed last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parnley and family have moved into their new house recently purchased from Mrs. Ida Grindle.

Junior class is sponsoring a hot dog sale today (Thursday). The plates will consist of a piece of apple pie and hot dog and pickles.

Mrs. Laven Delaune returned to her home here with her new born son, Robert Gerald, Saturday. The baby was born November 8. It weighed ten pounds at birth.

Banks high school "Clarion" (newspaper) will not be published this week, but a special "Thanksgiving Paper" will take its place. It will be published next Friday.

Bazaar November 28

American Legion Auxiliary holds its annual bazaar Saturday, November 28. The affair will last all day and evening. Free dancing in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bateman returned home Friday after a week's business trip to Redmond.

Ed Clark and Mrs. Leona Robertson spent all last week visiting Mrs. Robertson's children in Vancouver.

Jess Heard has leased the McGraw service station here and will start operation soon.

Mrs. Henry MacDonald was hostess Sunday evening when a group of friends enjoyed a turkey dinner. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lull of Thatcher and Daniel Herb of Kansas City and Mr. and Mrs. Henry MacDonald and two children Ellen and Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mung are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyer in Maupin.

Lyle Wolford spent from Saturday until Tuesday at the Bert Grindle home near McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stafford of Tualah visited relatives in Banks Wednesday.

Howard Wilbur of Port Angelus, Wash., spent the week-end in Banks with his wife, Mrs. Wilbur, who is a teacher in the Manning school.

Miss Evelyn Jackson of Oregon Normal spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jackson.

Mrs. Cass Wilson entertained the bridge club Friday afternoon. High score was made by Mrs. Alfred Lewis, second by Mrs. C. B. Hall, and Mrs. Otis Johnson won consolation. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Max Drezner, November 23. Entertainment by Patty McCormick accompanied Reid Glenwood and a group from the Hillsboro church to the county hospital Sunday afternoon, where they gave a few instrumental numbers as their part of the program.

David Barton and Ralph Lippert drove to Banks Thursday night from Klamath. Mr. Barton created a tombstone for his wife, formerly Louise Lippert.

American Legion turkey shoot Sunday was well attended. Sixty-two turkeys were disposed of.

BANKS—Banks high school football team defeated the second string of Forest Grove Friday on Banks field 6 to 0. The game this Friday will be at Beaverton.

Mrs. Bert Grindle and Mrs. Ida Grindle of McMinnville were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolford and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grindle entertained a group of friends of Frank's mother, Mrs. Ida Grindle, at their home in McMinnville Monday evening at their home in McMinnville, celebrating her 76th birthday.

Miss Ruth Bailey spent the week-end with friends at Seaside.

Elk Killed

Clifford Sandy, Harry Whitefield, Roy Sandy, George Kessler, Jess Heard and George Lamson returned home from their hunting trip in Eastern Oregon Friday. They had good luck, killing three elk bull elk. They were accompanied by Roy Sandy, Clifford Sandy and Jess Heard.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Washington.

Andrew J. McCann and Dorothy R. McCann, Plaintiffs, vs.

John H. Freel and Anna Freel, his wife, Defendants.

To the Defendants, John H. Freel and Anna Freel, his wife:

In the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint filed herein against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before the expiration of four (4) weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit, on or before December 1st, 1936, and if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint for want thereof the plaintiffs will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in their complaint on file herein, to-wit, that you and each of you be strictly foreclosed and barred of all right, title, interest and estate in and to the following described real property situated in Washington County, State of Oregon, to-wit:

Lot numbered twenty-nine (29) in Millard and VanSchuyver Tract, being a Subdivision of the Southwest quarter (SW 1/4) of Section 28, and the Northwest quarter (NW 1/4), and the North half (N 1/2) of the Southwest quarter (SW 1/4) of Section 33, Township 1 South of Range 1 West of Willamette Meridian, in said County of Washington, State of Oregon, according to the plat of record in the Recorder's Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, recorded in book "Z" at page 69, said lot 29 embracing 30 acres more or less as per plat.

and under that certain contract in your favor from Anna Malmborg, a widow, dated December

5, 1934, covering said premises, unless you shall, on or before a date to be fixed by the decree herein, pay or cause to be paid to the plaintiffs their costs and disbursements incurred herein, together with a reasonable attorney's fee to be allowed and fixed by such decree and also to pay to plaintiffs all of the installments past due and payable under said contract, together with all further installments hereunder as may become due and payable to the plaintiffs during the time allowed by such decree for making such payments and also interest on the unpaid principal said contract at the rate of seven per cent (7%) per annum from January 23, 1937, until the date of such payment, and shall also pay all sums expended for taxes by plaintiffs on said premises, together with interest thereon at the legal rate, and that plaintiffs have immediate restitution and possession of said premises during such period allowed by the court for the payment of such sums, and that upon your failure to pay all such sums and to redeem in accordance with such decree that the forfeiture and foreclosure of all your right, title, interest and estate in and to said premises and under and by virtue of said contract be decreed to be absolute and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable in the premises;

This summons is served upon you by publication by order of the Hon. R. Frank Peters, Judge of the above entitled court, in Washington County, Oregon, once each week for four (4) successive weeks, the first publication being on the 29th day of October, 1936, and the last publication being on the 26th day of November, 1936.
