

Annual Laurel Dinner Sunday; Feltons Observe Anniversary

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)

LAUREL—The community dinner at the hall Sunday will be served at 1 o'clock. This is pot-luck and everyone is cordially invited to come and enjoy the get-together.

Kenneth Twigg, who was quite ill with bronchial pneumonia and whooping cough, is improving from the former ailment. Leland Twigg and Arthur McCoy are having a serious time with whooping cough.

Anniversary Observed

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Felton entertained at their home Friday evening, celebrating their thirty-ninth wedding anniversary. Present besides the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. J. Armishaw, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harvey and sons Wayne and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Pompey and son Buddy, Ed Pompey of Hillsdale, Miss Anne Schlappi of Portland and Ray Felton. Mrs. Felton's sister, Mrs. Ada Thomas and sons Richard and Alyn of Portland were dinner party guests Saturday, celebrating the anniversary.

May Locate Here

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whittle and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Deason, of York, Neb., took an auto trip Saturday to Tacoma, then back through Chehalis where they spent the night, returning home Sunday evening. The Deasons are viewing the country with the idea of locating here.

Mrs. W. L. Stevens and Mrs. J. H. Haase were guests at a luncheon in Portland Tuesday celebrating the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Haase's sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Whitsell, at her home.

Over Top on Quota

Red Cross funds from this community, under the solicitations of Mrs. Annie Schmidt, contributed by the Community club, the Sunday school, the Ladies' Social club and individual memberships, brought the amount at this writing above the quota of recent years.

After Sunday school services Sunday were in charge of Mrs. V. T. Speece, assisted by three young men from Pacific college at Newberg.

Folks from here conducted the services at Mountain Home Sunday evening. F. L. Brown led the singing. Mrs. Cora Schmidt, Raleigh Whitmore and Amos Watkins gave short talks and a vocal duet by Mrs. W. H. McNay and Mrs. Leon Davis and a quartet by F. L. Lee, Bernice and Lillie Brown were the special musical numbers.

Mrs. A. Naderer is seriously ill with influenza at her home. Her sons, Walter Larsen of Albany and Charles of Portland, visited her during the week-end. A daughter, Mrs. Ernest Guenther, of Chealem Mountain is assisting her sister, Mrs. Amos Watkins, in caring for their mother.

Ronald, small son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Buedefeldt, is quite ill with tonsillitis and complications.

Brother Passes

Mrs. J. H. Felton received word last week of the death of a brother in England in October. This is the first death in her family of four brothers and two sisters.

Club Entertained

The Laurel Lights 4-H Girls' sewing club was entertained by their leader, Mrs. Wilma Schmeltzer, at her home at Mountain Home Friday evening.

The two small children of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hult are with their aunt, Mrs. Walter Schmidt, for a few days on account of the illness of Mrs. Hult's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Meyers and her mother, Mrs. Ada Hanson, were guests at a birthday dinner at the home of Mrs. Meyers' sister, Mrs. M. Sweet, of Oregon City Sunday, celebrating the eleventh anniversary of the hostess' daughter Veryl. Mrs. Hanson remained to visit until after Thanksgiving.

Beaverton

Mrs. C. W. Craig of Los Angeles was a visitor in Beaverton Wednesday.

The social club of Beaver chapter held a card party in the Masonic hall Saturday evening with about eighty in attendance.

The Rebekah club sponsored a card party in the I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday evening.

To Present Play

Glee club of the Beaverton high school will present "Chonita," a musical gypsy romance, December 4. The leading parts will be played by Martha Lehman, Charles West and Charles Marshall.

A union Thanksgiving service was held at the Church of Christ Wednesday evening. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Harper Burns. Music was furnished by the Christian church choir.

The eighth and closing service of the Beaverton mission was held in the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Those from Beaverton attending the 25th anniversary of the founding of Multnomah chapter, O. E. S., in Kenton Tuesday evening were H. F. Eliander, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Denney, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Lawrence, Mrs. George Thyng and Mrs. F. H. Goyt.

Miss Ruth Filley was elected Honored Queen of the Beaverton Bethel, Daughters of Job, Wednesday evening. Official inspection of officers was conducted by Mrs. Cora Young, grand guardian of the Daughters of Job of Oregon.
