

Cherry Grove Given a Fire Scare in Wind

CHERRY GROVE—Quite a bit of excitement was caused in town Monday when a brush fire, started by Mr. Reed got out of control in the high wind and burned across the hill north of Cherry Grove. A number of men had to fight hard to save the John Fern house, which was directly in the fire's path.

Another fire started by Karl Herring got out of control Sunday and swept through brush and timber on the Bob Tompkins and Pat Brown hill about two miles east of Cherry Grove. The high east wind the first of the week made fighting these fires difficult.

Sigmud Wallin of Oregon State college at Corvallis spent from Thursday till Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wallin.

Roll Call Success

Miss Lillian Swanson, Red Cross roll call worker for this vicinity, concluded a successful drive here last Saturday by turning in $30.60 to Red Cross treasurer Alf Johnson of the Forest Grove National bank. Miss Swanson was the second worker to turn in her finished report.

Mrs. E. J. Philpot of Wichita, Kan., came Sunday to the Oscar Davis home where she will stay until after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Anna Lindbloom of Portland spent from Tuesday until Thursday of last week visiting her friend, Mrs. Olaf.

Quite a number from town attended the senior play "Calm Yourself" presented at the Gaston union high school auditorium Friday evening. They particularly enjoyed the performance of Clarence Anderson, a local senior boy.

The New 1937 Dodge and Plymouth

The Easy Choice for the Family Christmas

The 1937 DODGE is the greatest economy Dodge of them all . . . phenomenal in beauty, roominess, and comfort. Windstream styling, chair-height seats, improved weight distribution and new body mounting to banish road noises, genuine hydraulic brakes, safety all-steel body, and many other new features—yet, with all this extra value, the 1937 DODGE costs little more than the lowest-priced cars.

You never saw a low-priced car so beautiful . . . nor so big as the 1937 PLYMOUTH! It's three full inches wider than before—wider seats—more leg, shoulder and head room. New sound deadening insulation, new ventilating windshield, floating power, hydraulic brakes, all safety steel body, balanced springing, aero-hydraulic shock absorbers . . . The biggest value in PLYMOUTH history.
