

Plan Bazaar at Orenco; Folks Move

(By Mrs. Gail Karns)

ORENCO—A delightful afternoon is being planned by the ladies of the Women's Circle for Wednesday, 2 to 5 o'clock, in the social rooms of the church. Christmas gift sale and program. Mrs. W. J. Enschede and Mrs. Frank Connell are general committee in charge.

Randalls Move

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Randall are moving into the Agnes Bryant house.

Remodels Home

Jack Rogers has been making several improvements to his house, which include a large French window on the east side of the house.

Installs Pump

M. R. Johnson, owner of the Oregon Nursery property, has installed a new electric pump with a large storage tank which takes the place of the city water tower, the tank on the tower has been leaking badly for the last year. The system does not furnish water to anyone living in Orenco except the properties owned by Johnson and the church.

Miss Catherine Goodman was quite ill from an attack of appendicitis last week.

Francis Brandenburg is now working near Grants Pass, getting out a large order of maple burls for a Portland firm.

Bernice Ensley is ill with the mumps.

Mrs. Francis Brandenburg is staying with her father, J. C. Raffety, of Mountindale, who is ill.

Dance Success

The local basketball club dance, which was held over Beck's grocery store Saturday night, was a success.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Betzer of Council, Idaho, are visiting their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Betzer.

Mrs. Beach received word last week of the death of her grandson, Richard Beach, 20, November 13 in Fremont, Ohio, of throat infection after an illness of four days. His father and mother are missionaries in Siam and are due on furlough next year. At one time Richard made his home with his cousin, Mrs. Garrett, in Portland and often visited in Orenco.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson and son spent last week in Yakima.

Wash. While in Yakima they visited friends in White Bluff, whom they hadn't seen for ten years.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Robison and daughters visited Mr. and Mrs. Mark Blodgett of Dallas Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ring and Hughie made a trip to the Tillamook beaches last week, where they are negotiating for a summer home, should they dispose of holdings in Portland and Washington county, they will make it their permanent home.

Donald Coffy and Miss Paulina Libby of Salem were Sunday guests at the W. H. Ring home.

Bend Folk Wed During Week

(By Mrs. O. H. Peterson)

BEND—Carl Johnson of Bull Mountain and Miss Marie Anderson of Tigard were married Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents in Tigard. Sunday evening the young couple were given a charivari at the home of the bride's uncle, Charles Lieberman, on Bull Mountain. Miss Anderson was given a shower by the Tigard Grangers Thursday evening with a large attendance at the Tigard Grange hall. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received.
