

Cornelius Pastor, Wife Honored; Ed Mohr Buys Bernards Store

(By Miss Dorothy Cooke)
CORNELIUS—Rev. and Mrs. A. Hawthorne of the Hillsboro-Cornelius M. E. pastorate, were surprised Saturday evening when a group of church members and friends gathered at the Cornelius church with Hillsboro church people as guests. The church was decorated in pink and silver, with lighted pink candelabra as the light for the program. As the couple entered the church, members of the congregation sang, "Happy Anniversary to You." Misses Ruth Price, Ruby Smoeke and Georgiana Jones sang "Put on Your Old Grey Bonnet" in costume. A skit, "Days of the Hawthornes," was read by Mrs. A. J. Oliver and acted by Misses Helen Oliver, Helene Shaw, Rose Lee Dermer, Helen Milne, Beverly Trites and Betty Delmonte, Julian Delmonte, George Milne, Frank Oliver, David Edmonston and John Mundorf. Other numbers: Mrs. Henry Bietlespach, reading; Mrs. George Wilcox and Mrs. Mattie Smith, original readings; David Edmonston and Frank Oliver, a duet; Helen Oliver and David Edmonston, duet; Mrs. R. Schultz, Mrs. R. Shaw and Mrs. Mattie Smith, trio. Mrs. Ray Shaw presented the Hawthornes with a floor lamp from the two congregations and Little Lois Kathan as a rosebud bride and Jack Delmonte as groom presented Mrs. Hawthorne with a bouquet. Miss Phoebe Hawthorne sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Alfred Boyer. J. R. Wilfrey presented the Hawthornes with a two-tier wedding cake. Refreshments were served to 80 present.
