

Helvetia Sunshine Club Plans Party

(By Mrs. John M. Davidson)
 HELVETIA—Sunshine club met with Mrs. Minnie Blake November 18. Mrs. Dayton Mays was assistant hostess. Mrs. D. Chamberlain was song leader. Mrs. Lelah Poe joined the club, which now has over 60 members. All members are expected to attend the next meeting at the home of Mrs. R. Sandfor December 18. A Christmas tree will be ready for the presents and members will know who their unknown friend is. Mrs. Blake presented a souvenir handkerchief to all present and later was presented with a pair of embroidered pillow slips for her birthday, which was this month.

Robert Gisler of San Francisco, Cal., was a week-end guest at the J. J. Nussbaumer home. Gisler is a distributor of Bovosan products in the western territory of the United States. This product is prepared by Dr. Eugene Gisler in Zug, Switzerland, a specialist. Donald Guerber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Guerber, is improving from an operation for appendix November 18 at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

Mrs. C. E. Korn has been ill for some time, and her daughter Edna is taking care of her.

A record crowd attended the shooting match at Helvetia Sunday. The weather was ideal and many made the trip to watch the contests. Several came from a distance. The turkeys were disposed of quite early in the afternoon.

School benefit program at the school house Friday night was a success, socially and financially. The plays were entertaining and well presented. Several band and other musical numbers were enjoyed.

Mrs. J. J. Nussbaumer spent last week visiting Mrs. Gfeller at North Plains.

Rev. Fresenberg, Mr. and Mrs. John Boehli and Elizabeth and Ruth were dinner party guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Tschaboid Sunday.

Fred Yungen, who returned from the Good Samaritan hospital two weeks ago, went to Portland this week for treatments. His injured knee is not improving. He will stay at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Sam Trachsel.

The Fred Yungen family went to Longview, Wash., Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nyegger and their new baby, Martha M. Nyegger, who has been staying here with her grandparents for the past two months, returned to her home Sunday.

Mrs. Rossbach Dies at Pumpkin Ridge

Mrs. H. W. Rossbach, 79, died at the home of her son, Herman Alfred Rossbach of Pumpkin Ridge, November 19. Funeral services were held Saturday at the Arcade school under direction of Young's Funeral Home. Interment was in Arcade cemetery.

Wilhelmina Ulbricht was born near Freiberg, Saxony, Germany, October 18, 1857, came to America in January, 1896, and settled in Wiseonsin. In 1923 Mr. Rossbach died and in 1927 Mrs. Rossbach came to Oregon to make her home with her son at Pumpkin Ridge. She is survived by five children, Camilla Graham and Albert Rossbach of St. Paul, Mrs. Lily May of Hillsboro and Mrs. Meta Black and Alfred of Pumpkin Ridge.
