

A. H. Dallmann Dies at Kinton; Services Held

(By Mrs. E. L. Cox)
KINTON—August H. Dallmann, 73, who has been a resident of this town for many years, died at his home on Scholls Ferry road, early Monday morning. Mr. Dallmann had been in poor health for some time but had been very ill during the past two weeks.

Deceased is survived by the widow, Sarah L., and the following children: Olga Gerig, Salem; Oscar, Timber; Lydia Ohrist, Hillsdale; Louise Enabitt, Vancouver, Wash.; Emil Dallmann and Bertha Harris, Skamania, Wash.; Renata Lierman and Luella Faix, Beaverton, and Albert, at home. There are also 23 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Peeg's chapel at Beaverton and interment was in Crescent Grove cemetery.

Mrs. C. Enabitt, Louise Dallmann of Vancouver, Wash., spent a couple of days last week with her parents, called by the serious illness of her father, August H. Dallmann. The newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Teufel, were given a charitable last Tuesday evening at the Teufel home by the young people around town.

Rev. Virgil Speece, who has been away for two weeks, is expected to take charge of the preaching service at 9:45 at the church Sunday, followed by Bible school at 10:45. Public is invited. Services last Sunday were conducted by Mrs. Speece and three students from Pacific college.

Pat Brooks of Waldport visited a few days last week with his sister, Mrs. Everett D. Wright, Cooper mountain.

The fog has been very thick around here during the past week. A bad auto accident happened early Saturday morning, near the residence of the Dallmanns, their daughter, Mrs. Jake Faix, and parties from Scholls being involved.

The Faix car was quite badly damaged and the parties in the other car were shaken up and cut some, but proceeded towards Portland. Mrs. Faix escaped with a few bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pomeroy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett D. Wright and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox attended the open meeting of the Evangelical Brotherhood at Mt. Home last Tuesday evening.

Birthday Observed at Mountindale

(By Miss Margaret Mathison)
MOUNTINDALE—Mrs. P. A. Qualls entertained with a pot luck dinner Tuesday in honor of her birthday anniversary. Guests, dressed as "kids" and place cards and motifs followed out the occasion.
