

J. H. Jacobson Unit President; Social Planned

West Union unit of the Farmers' Union elected following officers at the North Plains Knights of Pythias hall Thursday night: J. H. Jacobson, president; Clyde Lincoln (re-elected), vice-president; Elsie Leming, secretary-treasurer; John M. Davidson, doorkeeper; Russell Loftis, conductor; Tennie Davidson, chaplain; Edna Corey, Clyde Lincoln and John Riley, executive board.

Delegates for county convention include Pete Jorgensen, Pete Junker, John Riley, Lucy Baker, John Davidson, Russell Loftis, Fred Jessy, John Gates, P. Hergert, G. Essner. Alternates are Dan Erdman, Edna Corey, Joe Baker, John Pabols, Eva Meek.

Next meeting will be a social December 17, when the "Nightingales" will play for a hard times dance. Four prizes will be given to those best representing hard times. Ladies are asked to bring lunch as usual.

Jacobson outlined plans for the expansion of the warehouse in Hillsboro and reported on the cooperative board meeting. Mrs. Leming reported on the activities of the building committee. She announced that she would have crop insurance material on hand for next meeting.

John Gates is retiring president.

Students Give Play Friday

"Mystery at Midnight," a mystery in three acts by Mabel Conkling Allyn, will be presented by the Hillsboro high school Friday night in the high school auditorium under the direction of Miss Marie Houguez.

Billy McNay is business manager and Charles Crittenden lighting operator. Manual training classes are in charge of stage arrangements.

The play centers around the weird, lonely Wentworth house during a stormy night, when six strangers are thrust together. Rathburne Wentworth is determined to let his aunt have no contact with others, but is forced to let Barbara,

Alma Cory, Mr. Parker, Dick Lawrence, Lety, and Oscar stay in the house for the night. Ghostly faces appear at the window, sound of wailing, the horrible idol's blazing eyes, harsh voice, and threatening of death make this an unusually exciting and thrilling play.

Musical numbers will be given between acts.
