

Chamber of Commerce Has Christmas Party

More than 100 members of the chamber of commerce, their wives and friends, were in attendance Monday night at the annual Christmas party held in the chamber of commerce rooms.

The festivities began with a turkey dinner at 6:30 o'clock followed by a short program which included piano numbers by Lloyd Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson; two readings by Deloss Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Anderson; and vocal solos by G. Russell Morgan and Mrs. V. W. Gardner, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Walker at the piano.

Invocation at the beginning of the meal was by Rev. Henry Young. At the close of the dinner, the chamber presented the cooks and girls waiting on tables, with gifts, Ralph Easter making the presentation. Paul Patterson, president of the organization, was master of ceremonies.

After dinner, the guests played contract and auction bridge and pinocle for prizes. Mrs. Howard Hadley and Morris Weil received high scores in pinocle. Mrs. C. L. Walker and Nye Bristol in auction bridge, and Mrs. Harry Morgan and Russell Morgan in contract bridge.

H. C. Vanner acted as Santa Claus and his grandniece, Patricia Kerr, was little Miss Santa Claus. Noisemakers were given to all present.

Pepco Employees, Families Party

Approximately ninety employees, wives and their children attended Pepco's Christmas party Monday evening. Highlight event of the evening was the children's program before the lighted Christmas tree. Charlotte Patterson and Richie Ringle played a violin duet of several Christmas carols; Donnie Davidson gave several selections on his accordion; Patsy Haldam and Patsy Ringle tap danced; Harold Steele, Billie Longfellow, Gordon Faber and Norman Mann Jr. spoke Christmas verses. These boys and girls are children of employees of the Portland General Electric company.

Several movie films were shown, including a Mickey Mouse comedy, a sport picture and the showing of Pepco's own film "Oregon." At the conclusion of the program, Santa Claus, otherwise known as Paul Ringle, appeared before the tree with his heavily-laden pack. Gifts and candy canes were presented to each child as the boys and girls formed a line of march. The remainder of those present exchanged gifts immediately following the "Children's Parade."

Ruth Longfellow and Ruth Lundgren, co-chairmen, assisted by Jack Murton, had charge of the program. Don Megargel was master of ceremonies.
