

Farm Aid Food Program Helps County Families

Canning and food preservation carried on by the homemakers in the 78 Washington county families under the resettlement administration...

Reports from 45 of these families show over 17,500 quarts of fruit, vegetables and meats representing $3923 worth of food at present prices...

Revised home plans for the coming year are being prepared for all the families with the past year's records as a basis for more adequate budgets...

Families under this program have the assistance of the home supervisors in planning budgets, in food preservation work, clothing needs, purchasing of household equipment...

Cherry Grove Unit to Continue Work

(By Mrs. P. Patton)

CHERRY GROVE—Twenty-four ladies attended the meeting of the Cherry Grove home economic extension unit at Mrs. Charles Williams' home Friday.

Although Miss Eickworth will not be present at the other meetings, it was decided to continue meetings through the coming year, hoping that the proper authorities will grant an appropriation to carry on the work the following year...

Mrs. George W. Kurtz left Monday for Seattle, after having spent ten days with his family. George is employed by the Union Pacific company.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Clark of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. Clark's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott. Mr. Clark is policeman at the Farmers' Eastside Early market.

Charles Deverell was ill at his home several days last week, but is now improved.

Miss Mildred and Ferd Steinhoff entertained at their home Sunday with a dinner party. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kahlo and son Ernest, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Knorr and son Alvin, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson and twin son and daughter.

Richard and Marian of Portland and Arthur Steinhoff, all are relatives. Mrs. Anderson, sister of the Steinhoffs, remained to visit until Friday.

Women at Timber Plan New Group

TIMBER—Mrs. George Tolson entertained a group of her friends Thursday. Monopoly was played. Plans were made for organizing a Monopoly club to meet every two weeks at the various homes.

Mrs. Bowman of Portland spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. Ed Hallam, here.

Mrs. A. B. Stephens was in Timber Tuesday looking after her furniture. Mrs. Stephens has been with her husband in Klamath Falls the past two months where he is employed as a fireman on the S. P.

Mrs. Mae Tallman and daughter Maveene visited their aunt, Mrs. M. E. Casule, in Hillsboro Monday.

Mrs. Ed Hallam went to Portland Tuesday, where she is visiting her mother, Mrs. Bowman, until Sunday.

Lorraine Tallman spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Riggie, in Buxton.

Gilbert Frost and Bill Best of Harrisburg spent from Thursday till Wednesday visiting friends here and in Buxton.

Laverne Kilburg and Maveene Tallman spent the week-end in Buxton.

1937 Dodge -- Easy Family Xmas Choice!

The greatest all-around economy Dodge of them all! Famous "L" head engine, rugged and powerful, turning out 18 to 24 miles per gallon, saving 20 per cent on oil — new voltage regulated generator that saves your battery — improved oil filter to further reduce oil costs. These features and others such as hydraulic brakes, all-steel body, beauty, roominess and comfort for little more than the lowest priced cars.

Sensational New 1937 Plymouth

You never saw a low priced car so beautiful—nor so big as the 1937 PLYMOUTH. It's a full three inches wider than before—wider seats, more leg, shoulder and head room. New sound deadening insulation, ventilating windshield, floating power, hydraulic brakes, all-steel body, balanced springing, aero-hydraulic shock absorbers—in fact, the biggest value in Plymouth history!
