

Laurel Sunday School Elects New Officers

(Mrs. F. L. Brown)

LAUREL—Mrs. Amos Watkins was re-elected superintendent of the Sunday school for the coming year at the election of officers held after service Sunday. Other officers elected were Walter Schmidt, assistant superintendent; Mrs. W. H. McNay, secretary; Mrs. Lena Meyers, treasurer; Mrs. Leon Davis, organist; Miss Thelma Mulloy, assistant organist; F. L. Brown, chorister; Mrs. Davis, assistant chorister; and Viola Stoller, librarian. Mrs. Walter Schmidt was elected one of the trustees of the church for the next three years.

Program Well Attended

The Laurel school Christmas program given at the hall last Wednesday evening was well attended and enjoyed. Although five of the pupils, who had parts in the two plays given, were ill and unable to be present, Mrs. Wilma Schmetzler and the children, too, were congratulated on the success of the entire program. A Christmas tree added to the festivities. Bags of candy and oranges were distributed by the Ladies' Social club.

Mr. and Mrs. James Will of Valsetz visited his brother, John, and sister, Mrs. S. E. Stoller, and families last Saturday. They came over to spend the holidays with his parents at Beaverton and hers at Aloha.

Christmas dinner party guests at the Richard Whittle home were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Whittle, Mr.

and Mrs. E. V. Deason and Doris Whittle.

Arthur McCoy has been quite ill with bronchial pneumonia following whooping cough.

Mr. and Mrs. John Will and daughter Marjorie were guests at the wedding of Miss Leone Forcia and Walter Daly in Portland Sunday. Miss Forcia is a former resident here, having attended grade school at Laurel and high school in Hillsboro. They will make their home in Portland where the groom is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNay entertained the McNay clan with a Christmas dinner party at their home. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Paddock of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. McNay and daughters Patricia and Barbara of Forest Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stretch, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Elliott and sons Wilbur and Wayne, C. S. McNay and Fieda Eshel, Miss Irene Stevens of Oswego, McNay and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schmidt were Christmas day dinner party guests of her sister, Mrs. Howard Rice, of near Hillsboro.

The W. L. Stevens family and Miss Mildred Merz of Portland were Christmas day dinner party guests of Mrs. Stevens' sister, Mrs. Hattie Williams, of Hillsboro. Miss Irene Stevens of Vernonia was a guest of her parents until Monday. Miss Merz returned home Sunday. Miss Irene Stevens of Oswego is spending this week with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmidt entertained with a Christmas dinner party at their home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider and Mrs. Chester Rookledge and three children of Portland. George Schmidt of Gold Beach, Charlie Schmidt of Forest Grove and Mr. and Mrs. John Will, Marjorie Will and Cecil Schmidt.

A Christmas Eve party at the F. L. Brown home was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. B. G. McNay and two daughters of Forest Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Brown, Lillie Brown and William McClary. The McNays were guests until Sunday.

Christmas dinner party guests at the Ade Rutschman home were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heineck, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Veeck and four children and Gordon Heineck, all of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Larsen and children of Albany visited his mother, Mrs. A. Naderer, Sunday. She is improving from an attack of influenza. Her nurse, Mrs. Anna Morse, of Newberg spent Christmas at home. Mrs. Mabel Guenther of Chehalum Mountain cared for her mother during the nurse's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Stoller visited Mrs. J. H. Rogers in Portland Thursday where she has been with a daughter, Mrs. Gail Poe, for several months, convalescing from a severe illness. She is now up and about the house. Mr. Rogers has sold the place here, sixteen acres were sold early in the fall to a man who will set it to filberts. The remainder of the place, including the buildings, was traded recently and Mr. Rogers plans to move soon to his new home near St. Johns.

Christmas dinner party guests at the S. H. Davis home were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Davis, Mr. and Mrs. D. Buedefeldt and son Ronald and Howard and Betty Jean Davis.

Mrs. Flora Baker and Earl and Jim Baker were Christmas dinner party guests at the William Joss home in Hillsboro.

Mrs. I. E. Haveman of Chehalum Mountain is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. Whitmore, helping care for Irene and Elaine Whitmore, who are quite ill with whooping cough.

Mr. and Mrs. Stern on the A. Michael place received word Sunday morning that their two-year-old child would have to undergo another operation to draw water from its lungs. The child has been in the Doernbecher hospital about three months following a seizure of pneumonia.

Mrs. Minta Adams of Farmington, who has been helping care for her mother, Mrs. Millie Campbell, at the J. W. Mulloy home, spent Christmas at her home. Mrs. Campbell is still confined to her bed most of the time.

Christmas dinner party guests at the Adolf Rutschman home were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brethauer and Ted Rutschman of Chehalum Mountain and Al Ewing.

Christmas day guests at the J. H. Felton home were Mrs. Felton's sister, Mrs. Ada Thomas, and sons Richie and Alwyn of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander and son, who have been in Idaho where he is teaching, came to look after his place here Saturday.

There was such a large crowd at the Christmas tree Thursday evening that all could not get in the school house.

Guy Mott and son of Dallas are visiting his brother, R. Mott, and sister, Mrs. Rex Oberman, a few days.

Mrs. Rudy Lepschat, who has been sick, is not much better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tower of Strassel were here Wednesday afternoon with their aunt, Mrs. Lou Wright, to take their grandmother, Mrs. Sara Haney, home with them. She has been here visiting the past two months.
