Kerkman Dwelling Damaged by Fire

Considerable damage resulted in the interior of the Herman Kerkman home near Schefflin Monday when fire, resulting from an overheated stove, burned a six-foot hole in the wall between the kitchen and the dining room.

Smoke was discovered about 11:30 by Mrs. Kerkman, who immediately called the commissioner at the court house. Accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Johnson and Busch, Kerkman hurried to the scene only to meet with difficulty in locating the fire as smoke was pouring out from the walls in all parts of the house.

As the search went on, Mrs. Kerkman called the Hillsboro fire department and the country pump was immediately dispatched. However, fire in the meantime broke through the wall and water from the farm pumping plant subdued the blaze before the firemen arrived.

Bombs Shatter Homes in Madrid

Thousands of Madrid's citizens were left homeless as rebel planes made repeated attacks on the capital, bombing streets, public buildings, and homes. In this picture the victims are huddling amid the debris preparatory to salvaging what is left of their possessions. Like other homeless thousands, they may seek refuge outside their native city.

Time Set for Potato Display

Washington county farmers are urged to take part in the potato show which is being sponsored by the Sherwood Commercial club for farmers and 4-H club members on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, January 2, 3, and 4, according to L. E. Francis, assistant county agent.

Final plans and awards have been announced by a group in charge. Exhibits will consist of 40 potatoes. Any variety may be shown. Classes for the farmers exhibit will not be determined until all of the exhibits are at the show. At that time any variety of potatoes of which there are sufficient entries to make a special class will be grouped separately. The remaining varieties will be exhibited in a miscellaneous division. The Sherwood merchants have provided merchandise awards for the winners in the farmers' division of the show.

Saturday at 1:30 p. m. W. F. Cyrus, county agent, will discuss at an open meeting held in conjunction with the potato show, "The Use of Lime on Washington County Soils."

A special division will be sponsored for 4-H club exhibitors from Washington and Clackamas counties. Seven premiums of $5, $3, $2, $2, $1, $1, and $1 have been provided.

A special award will be made to the sweetpotato winner. This award will be of special interest at the show because it will be a contest between the first placing winners in the farmers' and 4-H divisions. Judging will be Saturday morning. All exhibits should be in place by noon Thursday, January 2.

SELL IT THIS WAY

We used to watch B. J. Palmer, the Southern Oregon piano dealer, handle his customers. First thing, right off, B. J. would name the price and terms—$350 for this one, $25 down and the balance 15 a month," and the deal was under way.

Now carry this over into the biggest business of all, that of selling religion. Set out the terms at the very start, like this—"Yes, Mr. Tired-of-Sin, right now, right where you stand on it that your death sentence was turned over to Christ and that he died under it to set you free. Count on his death to clear you and cleared you are. That is the Bible. Stand on it that since you have taken Christ as your saviour, then God has received you as his own. To all who received Him, trust in his death, to trust in his name. He has given the privilege of becoming the children of God." And that is Bible too.

Your name is now in the Book of Life and for the rest of your days you are to look away from self and look to Christ for the power of the Christ-life. That is Bible again. So you have made a good start with Mr. Tired-of-Sin if he is looking for deliverance from the power of sin in this life and escape from the pains of hell in the life to come.

Don't forget to tell him there are two kinds of sinners. Saved sinners and the lost. The saved knew they had earned eternal separation from God, called The Second Death. They heard and believed that escape was not by silver, gold nor good deeds but by the precious blood of Christ as of a lamb without blemish. For Christ was sinless and without blemish. Being counted free from all guilt by his blood we shall be saved from wrath through Him, you recall.

Instead of locking for religious thrills your saved sinner looks into the Bible for his marching orders and to God for the power to go ahead.

Being counted guiltless by trusting in Christ we have peace with God. That is better than religious thrills.—George N. Taylor, Beaverton.—Paid adv.
