New Year Finds Gaston Making Great Strides in Business

(By Denna Meredith)

GASTON—The new year finds the town of Gaston in the most prosperous condition in its history, Many improvements have been made during the past year. About 20 new residences have been built the semi-finals. If she wins this time she will reserve to the semi-finals. If she wins this time she will reserve to the semi-finals. If she wins this time she will reserve to the semi-finals. If she wins this time she will reserve to the semi-finals. If she wins this time she will reserve to the semi-finals. 20 new residences have been built and a number of homes repaired and remodeled. The Fleischhauer business and apartment block was completed and occupied. The Wap-ato lake project, which converted over 800 acres into garden tracts, went into operation with its big outlay for pumps and dykes and canals. The new sewer will be finished in three or four months. All business houses report increased trade and farming conditions in the surrounding country are excellent. Don E. Schank, recorder and treas-urer of the town, reports the town in fine financial condition with net resources above all indebted-ness at $1871.38. Thomas R. Roe, postmaster, reports the largest post office business in years. He reports stamp sales increased over 36 per cent in the last two years and the money order business increased over 40 per cent during the same period.

Exports from Gaston during the
