

Mr. and Mrs. J. Connell Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connell celebrated their golden wedding anniversary December 30 at their home on Third avenue and Oak street with an "open house" in the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, and again in the evening. Many friends and relatives from this county and from Portland called during the day to offer felicitations to the bride and groom of fifty years. Many lovely gifts and flowers were received, golden colored flowers predominating.

Mrs. Richard Connell and Mrs. Thomas Connell Sr. presided at the table, and assisting about the rooms were the daughter, Mrs. A. G. E. Abendroth, and her daughters, Mrs. Henry Bushman and Miss Lucile Abendroth of Portland; Mrs. Frank Connell and daughter Jean Ann, and Mrs. Arthur Connell.

Rev. Alexander Hawthorne of the Methodist church, of which they are both members, offered prayer during the afternoon, and the Ladies Aid sang "Blest be the Tie that Binds," led by Mrs. E. L. McCormick.

Mr. and Mrs. Connell were married December 30, 1887, at the home of the bride's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Zina Wood of southwest Hillsboro. They made their home on the farm at Connell station until about 24 years ago, when they turned the farm over to their sons and moved to their present home in Hillsboro.

Mr. Connell was born in Canada in 1856 and came to Oregon in 1874 with his parents, settling at the farm now owned by Thomas Connell, near the site of old Glenwood. Mr. Connell (Mildred Wood) was born in Hillsboro in 1856, and has made her home in this community ever since. Three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Connell, one son, Frank, dying on April 17, 1885. A daughter, Grace Abendroth, lives in Portland, and a son, Arthur, lives on the home farm. They also have seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Connell has one brother living, Zina Wood of Hillsboro, and Mr. Connell has three brothers and one sister, Thomas and John Connell of Hillsboro, Dr. E. DeWitt Connell and Mrs. John Lewis (Jennie Connell) of Portland.

Mrs. Hodges Hostess—Mrs. A. A. Hodges will be hostess to the Neidertraf club meeting today (Thursday). Installation of officers will be held.

Give Costume Party—Mr. and Mrs. Alf O. Johnson entertained Hillsboro and Portland friends with a costume party and buffet supper New Year's eve at their home in Forest Grove. Mrs. Rex Parsons and Floyd Miller won.
