

Many Attend Pot Luck at Laurel Hall

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)
LAUREL—About 175 persons were seated at the pot luck supper given at the community hall Friday evening under the auspices of the local Farmers' Union. Many others came later for the three-act play "The Whole Town's Broke," given by the young people of Blooming under the direction of the pastor of the Lutheran church at that place. Walter Orr, president of the local, announced that each second Thursday evening of the month is the business meeting of the union. James Will returned Saturday to his work as saw filer in a mill at Valsec after two weeks in Portland and Beaverton, receiving medical aid.

Catherine Galloway is a new pupil in the third grade of the Laurel school. The family moved from Portland to the former Rogers place.

Build Home
 A cottage is being built on the Raleigh Whitmore place to be occupied by Henry Mushalek. He will assist with the work there and other places when needed. Mushalek was injured by a horse a few years ago and has never fully recovered his health.

Change Services January 31
 Announcement of preaching services at the church next Sunday evening has been withdrawn and services will be held the next Sunday, both morning and evening, when Rev. Petticoat of Salem, district superintendent, will be present.

Mrs. Minta Adams of Farmington, who has been at the J. W. Mulloy home the past two months helping care for her mother, the late Mrs. Amelia Campbell, went home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisk of Portland and son Graydon, who attend college at Corvallis, were Sunday evening dinner guests at the J. W. Mulloy home after attending the funeral of Mrs. Fisk's aunt, Mrs. Amelia Campbell.

Clubs Plan for Joint Rally Here

Tri-county Townsend rally, including Yamhill, Columbia and Washington counties, has been called by Mrs. C. O. Thomas of Vernonia in Hillsboro, Sunday, January 31, at 2 p. m. The meeting will be in the old Grange hall on Main street.

Arthur Moore, district organizer of congressional district No. 1, will be present to outline to the delegates from each club the new Townsend set-up recently adopted by national headquarters.

Under this policy there will be no state Townsend headquarters, and clubs will contact national headquarters in Chicago through the congressional district organization. National headquarters will be supported by the National Townsend Weekly, national publication of Townsend movement. Local clubs will finance state work through congressional district organization.

Local club meets Monday evening in the Christian church for a pot luck dinner at 6:30, election of officers and social. The president, R. L. Putnam, points out that according to rules only those present may vote. He also has announced that the new Townsend bill for congress is in the January 18 edition of National Townsend Weekly.

Chehalem Mountain

(By Mrs. Bird McCormick)
 Mrs. John Walker and Mrs. Clayton Whitmore read articles of interest to the Fir Grove Ladies Social club at their meeting with Mrs. Granville Everest January 12. Mrs. Lena Meyer will be hostess at her home January 26.

Lee Herman came from Portland Friday and is spending this week at the Granville Everest home, where his wife and little daughter are house guests.

Doris Ornduff and Keith Marlow returned Friday from a two weeks' visit with relatives near Pendleton. Stanley and Earl Parrish accompanied them. They, with Ed Parrish, returned home Tuesday. Mrs. Stanley Parrish is staying here with a sister, Mrs. Rufus Ornduff, while receiving medical treatment in Portland.

Robert Ornduff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ornduff, is ill with throat

Organize Health Unit

Dr. C. D. McDonald (right), county health physician, and Miss Clara O. Engstrom, nurse, (left) this week emerged from the rush of establishing the new county health unit and began making schedules for school visits, office hours, and other details of the numerous tasks which confront them. The unit began organization January 2 and now occupies offices on the second floor in the northwest corner of the courthouse. —Cut courtesy The Oregonian trouble and will be absent from Mountain Top school for more than a month.

Miss Ann Ornduff is improving from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism and expects to be able to walk a little with the aid of crutches this week.

Mrs. E. C. Wohlischegel was called to Newberg Saturday to take care of a daughter, Phyllis, who was ill with flu at the L. I. Hult home in Newberg. Phyllis had been staying there during the storm and attending high school.

Mrs. Ted Rutschman entertained with a dinner party Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. James Ruchan of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neiting and son Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shuck and Stanley Shuck of Hillsboro and Mrs. Otto Ornduff.

Mrs. Oscar Hagg and daughter Ida Lue of Reedville visited Mrs. Ted Rutschman Monday and Tuesday while her husband made a business visit to Corvallis.

There was no school the first three days of last week at Mountain Top and Pleasant View owing to the roads being blocked with snow drifts. Buck Heaven and Fir Grove both had good attendance all week.

Newberg high school bus was unable to get to Mountain Top all last week, causing the absence of Lloyd Guenther, Iva Mae and Arthur Stewart and Geneva Wenger. Surviving are the widower, and five sisters: Mrs. Etta Myers, Charleston, Ill.; Mrs. Elizabeth Owens, Newberg; Mrs. Edna Stelgner, Peoria, Ill.; Mrs. Josephine Shank and Mrs. J. H. Shank, Clayton, Ill.

Rites Monday for Mrs. Minton

Jessie Maud Minton, wife of Charles D. Minton of Forest Grove, died at her home there Thursday evening. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the chapel of the Forest Grove Undertaking company with burial in Riverview cemetery.

Services at the chapel were conducted by Rev. E. D. Kellogg and members of the Eastern Star lodge conducted the lodge ritual. Members of the P. E. O. acted as honorary pallbearers.

Mrs. Minton was born in Lewiston, Ill., and had been a resident of Forest Grove for the last 27 years. She was past matron of the Eastern Star three times, past president of the P. E. O., and a past president of the Ladies Aid of the Congregational church.

Surviving are the widower, and five sisters: Mrs. Etta Myers, Charleston, Ill.; Mrs. Elizabeth Owens, Newberg; Mrs. Edna Stelgner, Peoria, Ill.; Mrs. Josephine Shank and Mrs. J. H. Shank, Clayton, Ill.

Firdale-Iowa Hill

(By Mrs. John Haase)
 Several families from the local communities attended the pot luck supper of the Laurel-Scholls Farmers' Union at Laurel Friday night. The young folks have been enjoying ice skating for the past week on the Robinson pond.

Mrs. John Goetze is convalescing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitesell in Portland after several months' illness.

Roy Carter, who works on the P. S. Dreger Mickie stationed at Astoria, is home for a two weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haase, Mr. and Mrs. John Haase and Mrs. Henry Peters attended the funeral of Mrs. Leslie Doane of Portland, sister of Mrs. Fred Haase, Tuesday afternoon at the Cornelius cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Doane were former residents of Cornelius.

Manners Make the Man

Conductor—"Did you get home all right last night, sir?"
 Passenger—"Of course, why do you ask?"
 Conductor—"Well, when you got up and gave the lady your seat last night, you were the only two in the car."—Ex.

Scholls Events Postponed; Plan Benefit

(By Lorraine Demmin)
SCHOLLS—Annual birthday dinner, sponsored by the Scholls Ladies' Aid, which was to be held Friday evening at the M. E. church, has been postponed indefinitely due to the flu epidemic. Joint installation of Scholls I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs, scheduled for Wednesday evening, was also postponed indefinitely.

Committee Named
 Mrs. Peter Havie, Mrs. Velma Ziegler, Wilma Herd and Evelyn Hesse are the committee in charge of the benefit carnival dinner to be given in the grange hall February 3, sponsored by the Scholls Junior Women's club.

Roy McCool went to Taft Sunday to help build summer cabins for several months.

An all day Grange meeting was held at the Grange hall Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Freudenthal and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Freudenthal of Thermopolis, Wyo., were Wednesday visitors at the Ed Demmin home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Petter were weekend-end visitors at the Frank Petter home at Mills City.

Birthday Celebrated
 Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bradway of Independence and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Murray were dinner guests at the Ed Wohlischegel home Sunday in honor of Mr. Bradway's birthday.

Attendance Record Cut by Illness

(By Mable B. Allison)
MOUNTAIN HOME—Attendance is about 50 per cent at Mountain Home on account of illness, reports the teacher, Mrs. George Kirkpatrick. Two new pupils in this school are Marjorie and Eleanor Anderson, both in the fifth grade. They make their home with their grandmother, Mrs. W. L. Peters.

P. T. Club Meets
 Mountain Home Parent-Teacher club met at the school house on Friday afternoon. Mrs. V. T. Speece presented a paper on the subject of friendliness. February meeting is scheduled to be at the school house again, with Mrs. Clarence Nelson leading the discussion on intelligence.

Try Earlier Service
 Preaching services at 4 p. m., instead of the evening services, at Mountain Home Evangelical church for the month of January, is being tried. The plan seems to meet with the approval of the people, and may be continued until later in the season.

Rev. V. T. Speece is attending a series of meetings for ministers at

DOES BLADDER IRRITATION WAKE YOU UP?

It's not normal. It's nature's warning. "DANGER AHEAD." Make this 25c test. Use the "ADLERKA" medicine. It's a new drug made into little green tablets, to flush out excess acids and impurities. Excess acids cause irritation resulting in getting up nights, scanty flow, frequent desire, burning, backache, and wetting. Put my "Bullets" in your drug store. In four days if not pleased your 25c will be refunded.—Delta Drug Store.—Adv.

Constipation
 If constipation causes you Gas, Indigestion, Headaches, Bad Sleep, Flimsy Skin, get quick relief with ADLERKA. It's a new drug in action yet entirely gentle and safe.
