

Beaverton-Hilhi Play Here Friday

Lucky Basket Turns Tables for Visitors

After losing their old rivals, Forest Grove high school basketball teamers through the first half, the Blue and White of Hilhi gave way to a concerted attack Friday night and allowed the visitors to lead 12 to 11 into the fourth quarter. Final score was 17 to 15 in favor of Forest Grove.

Stiffening their defenses and continuing to attack, Hilhi brought the score to a tie, 15 to 15, in the last three minutes of play only to lose by one basket as the whistle sounded the end of the game, when a Forest Grove man, free, for a moment on the far side of the floor and nearly behind center, loomed a long one through the basket to win.

In the first half, the Blue and White raced into a lead of 7 to 4 to increase the lead by one point in the second quarter with a score of 11 to 7.

In the last few minutes of play, Hilhi won a chance to score when Baumgartner, forward, managed to get into the clear long enough to launch a shot from the side which clung to the hoop and dropped out.

Scoring among the Hilhi quintet was scattered with nearly all members finding the basket at one time or another.

Friday night fans will see the locals in action against Beaverton on the Hilhi floor.

In the second half Hilhi again led field goals with five to the visitors' three free throws through the hoop to an equal number by Hilhi.

Washington county court house employees will have a half holiday Saturday afternoon if the bill introduced in the legislature by Senator E. L. Ross and Representatives J. W. Hughes and Ray L. Antrim, passes. The bill would regulate the hours of the court house employees of this county.

Senator Ross, in Hillsboro over the week-end during the recess of the legislature, declared that the chief legislation confronting that body was an attempt to void the milk control law.

The attack, he said, seemed to come from Portland retailers and other groups there, and had gained considerable strength. To combat the move, an attempt is being made to gain a compromise, he said.

In this compromise, the milk control law would set the price of milk for producers only, allowing distributors and retailers to proceed as they saw fit. He said that he had not yet been able to determine just what effect such a compromise would have on the producers.

Strike legislation seemed in the offing also, he said, promoted by strong interests from eastern Oregon, while another piece of important legislation would be the bill regulating old age pensions and lowering the age limit from 70 to 65 years.

Jury Convicts Gales Resident

Deliberating less than two minutes, a circuit court jury yesterday afternoon (Wednesday) found Theodor Bagley of Gales Creek guilty of driving an automobile while intoxicated. Trial of the case began before Judge R. Frank Peters Monday morning. Date for sentence will be set later.

Charged with removing mortgaged turkeys from the county, R. W. Woodson appeared Saturday in circuit court and was bound over to the grand jury under $250 bonds. The mortgage is said to have been held by Al Hurd of Banks.

Monday Steve Lawler of Beaverton pleaded guilty to larceny by bailie, and sentence was postponed to Saturday. The charge involves a case loaned by William Hunter of Beaverton to Lawler, and which Lawler later reported was missing. An investigation is said to have revealed that he sold the animal.

Judge R. Frank Peters Monday extended parole to Morris Knudsen, who has been serving sentence for attack with a dangerous weapon in connection with an argument at a resort near Tigard. Knudsen was arrested last Sunday.

Kate Heinrich has brought suit against B. L. Booth to collect $20,000 for injuries alleged to have been sustained in an accident on Sandy Boulevard September 26, 1936. ## Market Outlook for Meat, Dairy Products Good

(By College News Service)

The market outlook is somewhat more favorable for meat and dairy products in 1937 than for crop products for cash sales, according to an agricultural outlook report just released by the Oregon State college extension service. Owing to the drought and high prices for feeds, livestock marketings have been heavier during recent months, but the total supply of meat will be smaller during 1937.

"The reduction will be most pronounced in pork and the better grades of beef. As consumer purchasing power is expected to be stronger in 1937, the general level of livestock and meat prices is expected to be higher than in 1936 and higher than for several years," the report sets out.

On the other hand, the acreage of fall sown wheat is the largest on record and if growing conditions are normal the production of several other crops will likely be larger than in 1936. That the outlook is far from uniform, however, with respect to the various spring sown crops and vegetables is pointed out in the commodity sections dealing with wheat, rye, feed crops, seeds, potatoes, hops, beans, flaxseed, and various truck crops.

In respect to the current situation, the circular gives the general level of farm prices in Oregon at approximately 84 per cent of the 1926-1930 level. With farm prices around one-fifth higher, and more to sell, farm income from crop and animal production in Oregon during the 1936-37 marketing season will probably exceed that of the previous season by $15,000,000, more or less.

The report contains several tables of farm price and market data, and a number of outlook charts on economic subjects related to the agricultural industry. Copies are available free from county agricultural agents.
