

Play Planned Laurel Soon; Groups Elect

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)

LAUREL—A one-act farce comedy, "In the Fountain of Youth," will be given at the community hall Saturday evening, February 6, by members of the Ladies' Social club. Time of the play is one and one-half hours. The scene is a beauty parlor the afternoon before the ladies of the Home Town Aid and Betterment society are to give an entertainment in the town hall and are they getting "dolled" up? Wow! Come and see how those taking part are Mesdames Dorothy Buedefeldt, Evelyn Rutschman, Edna McNay, Elsie Stevens, Marie Spiering, Goldie Davis, Ruby Meyers, Lucy Felton, Bert Reese, Mildred Whitmore, Lucille Schumacher, Bernice Brown, Lillie Will and Edna Whittle. Mrs. H. Borgell is director. Dancing will follow the play.

Cecil Schmidt is carrying mail on route two from Hillsboro owing to the illness of the regular carrier.

Mrs. Buedefeldt President

Mrs. Dorothy Buedefeldt was elected president of the Friendly Corner class of the Sunday school at the monthly meeting held at the W. L. Stevens home last Wednesday evening. Other officers elected were Mrs. W. H. McNay, vice president; Leon Davis, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Leon Davis, chorister and Mrs. Olive Mulloy, organist. The class voted to entertain all the older folks in the community who do not attend the parties, at the next meeting, which will be held at F. L. Brown home February 12. Leon Davis entertained the group with pictures with a most card projector of scenes in France, of the Argonne forest and devastated villages as well as some castles and chateaus south of Paris, which he visited following the signing of the armistice. Fourteen members were present.

Invitation Withdrawn

Evangelical churches of the Chehalis field at the quarterly conference January 13 held at the Laurel church, decided after due consideration to withdraw its invitation of entertaining the annual conference session. The conference was to have been held May 19 to 23. The church which will entertain the conference at the same dates has as yet not been announced.

Rev. V. T. Speece of this field wishes to extend his most hearty thanks and appreciation for the gracious spirit of co-operation which the Ladies of the Laurel, Kinton and Mountain Home communities rendered in regard to the canned food supply for the conference. The slips which were given out for solicitation of canned foods were returned almost one hundred per cent. Many slips had recorded more jars than had been asked for. The pastor sincerely hopes that no one has been placed to any extra expense, nor shall feel disappointed in regard to this matter.

Billy McNay President

Billy McNay was elected president of the Broadcasters' class of the Sunday school at a meeting held at the home of Howard Davis Friday evening. Bernice Brown was elected vice-president and Howard Davis secretary-treasurer. Fourteen members, their teacher, Mrs. Raleigh Whitmore, and Rev. and Mrs. V. T. Speece were present. Next meeting will be held at the Raleigh Whitmore home February 19.

Make Good Records

Laurel school pupils with perfect attendance records for the month ending January 22 were DeLaurie Sturm, Raymond, Ruth, Marjorie and Edward Losli, Lucille Spiering, Jimmie Stoller, Dorothy Schumacher, Ruth Shattuck, Bernice Stoller, Marjorie Will, Betty Jean Davis, Nellie Burke and Virginia Varenhorst. Those receiving one and two in all subjects were DeLaurie Sturm, Marjorie Will, Betty Jean Davis, Nellie Burke and Virginia Varenhorst. Pupils of the five lower grades enjoyed a vacation Monday while the upper grades were taking mid-term county examinations.

Taken to Hospital

Adolph Schmidt was taken to the Jones hospital Saturday, seriously ill with influenza.
