(By Miss Margaret Mathiesen) MOUNTINDALE Sunday school elected officers Sunday as follows: Elaine Corey, president; Dale Vandomelen, vice-president; Helen Tonissen, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Anderson of Detroit spent several days with relatives here the past week.

Attend Hearing
Mrs. E. Leming and Mrs. Warren Corey attended the discussion at the senate at Salem Friday evening over the milk control bill.

Mrs. L. L. Reen returned to her home in Portland Sunday after spending several weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Earl Hollenbeck.

Mrs. Loel Hollenbeck was hostess with a dinner and quilting party Friday for a few friends. Guests included Mrs. William Young, Mrs. DeWitt Shady Brook, Gabe Essner, Jess of Fowles, George Stewart, Archie Thompson, and James Mathiesen.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Williams were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Garrigus and daughter Joan of Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Vanderzanden of Forest Grove attended the milk control bill hearing in the senate at Salem Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vandomelen attended the joint installation of the Cornelius and Forest Grove Neighbors of the Woodcraft lodges held at Cornelius Saturday evening. A drill team from Portland was present.

A guest the past week of Mr. and Mrs. George Meacham was his niece, Miss Myrtle Smith of Myrtle Creek.

Appear on Program
Little folks in this community who took part in the entertainment at the meeting of the Farmers' Union in North Plains Thursday evening were Phyllis Rafferty, who gave a vocal number; Donald Hergert, who played number one on the accordion; and Betty Jean and Dale Vandomelen, who played a duet on the piano.

Gordon Layton was successful in killing two coons the past week.

Cherry Grove Man Succumbs Sunday

(By Mrs. P. Patton) CHERRY GROVE—Hugh W. Slaght, 77, died at his home in Cherry Grove Sunday morning. He has been in ill health for sometime. He is survived by his widow, Carrie B., and a daughter, Mrs. Maud Jones, and a grandson, Hugh Jones. His daughter and family lived with her parents. Funeral services were held in Portland Wednesday from Pearson's funeral church under the auspices of Mt. Hood Lodge, A. F. and A. M. Private commitment was at the Portland crematorium.

Carl Linde
Carl Linde, brother of S. E. Linde, died at the Washington county hospital last Thursday. He was nearly 80 years old and was born in Sweden, coming to this country as a young man. He was buried at Hillsboro Saturday.

Fourteen members of the sophomore class of the Gaston union high school had a party at Viola Wikander's home Saturday evening. The time was spent in playing games.

Wahlamere, Stanley and Alfonso Torshild, Einar and Roy Hedon and Clarence Anderson attended the show "God's Country and the Woman" at the Paramount theatre in Portland Saturday. One interesting feature of the picture was that Stanley and Alfonso Torshild were in the picture, which showed every phase of the logging operations in the northwest.

Young Elected Townshead

Serving as president since the organization of the Townshead club in Hillsboro more than two years ago, R. L. Putnam Monday night declined re-election to that post, and Henry Young, local undertaker, was named to succeed him.

In declining further service, Putnam pointed out that his duties as pastor of the Christian church are becoming more pressing, particularly in view of the 75th anniversary of the church and certain objectives to be obtained this year.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Grace Chantler, vice-president; J. F. Buckland, treasurer; and advisory board members include H. I. Patten, Mrs. A. Palmer, Mrs. W. H. Bucher, A. Blaker, Martha Shayler, C. C. Bannister.

J. F. Buckland served as chairman, in the absence of the president, at one of the best attended meetings held recently, beginning at 6:30 p. m. with a pot luck dinner.

G. N. Taggart, who is seriously ill, was elected honorary president of the club. Taggart has served efficiently as vice-president.

Delegates elected to the congressional district convention in Eugene in February are Henry Young, H. R. Chantler and J. A. Hockersmith. Delegates to the tri-county rally, to be held at some future time, are R. L. Putnam, Clifford Gillett and Henry Young.

Praise Given Bargain Day

Slippery roads, cold temperatures, and abundant cases of influenza, failed to hold the crowd away from Hillsboro Saturday for the first Bargain Day of the new year. Although the crowd was rather slim during the morning hours, by noon automobiles were beginning to fill the side streets while stores began to fill with bargain seekers attracted here, as always, by the great number of bargains offered.

The event was sponsored by the retail trades committee of the chamber of commerce and directed by Ed L. Moore, secretary.

Many Gifts
At 2 p. m. when the gifts were distributed at the chamber of commerce, more than 400 persons were on hand for the event and nearly 250 gifts were passed around among those present.

Where the crowd of shoppers participating in the plate throwing contest used previous ones, took part while the more active ones stood part, and many of the older ones, pressed themselves as well pleased with the change.

Speaker Used
Announcements concerning Bargain Day were given from time to time during the afternoon over a loud speaker system operated by Moore from the chamber of commerce rooms.

While the merchants taking part in the event reported smaller crowds in the stores throughout the day, being quite active and all expressed satisfaction with the results of the event, particularly with the enlarged number taking part in the gift distribution.

Plans already are underway for another Bargain Day to be staged sometime in March and operated on the same plan with possible minor adjustments, Moore said Saturday afternoon at the close of the gift distribution.
