Traffic Victim Laid to Rest at Cornelius

(By Dorothy Cooke)
CORNELIUS—Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at the Cornelius Lutheran church for Henry Rithaler, 66, victim of a traffic accident January 19. Mr. Rithaler is survived by his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Archie Handeworth of Portland, six sons, Jake and William of Portland, Peter of Salem, George of Timber, Philip of California and Walter of Cornelius. Interment was in the local Lutheran cemetery.

Mrs. George Holscher was pleasantly surprised Wednesday afternoon when a group gathered at her home for quilting. Present were Mesdames George Holscher, Joseph Finegan, R. Schultz, Belle Lilly, Joseph Cochran, W. R. Cooke, Earl Smith, J. R. Wilfley, Mike Henderson and Alfred Dore.

Mrs. Ed Bietspach and Mrs. Leo Wittcock are ill this week.

Burial Here
A number of local people attended the funeral services of Mrs. Leslie Doane of Oregon City Tuesday. Interment was in the Cornelius cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rithaler of Timber spent several days here where they were called by the death of Mr. Rithaler's father, Henry Rithaler.

Mrs. D. Barrett is improving from a recent attack of bronchial pneumonia.

Franklin Move to Portland
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Franklin and son Glen recently moved to Portland, where he is employed.

New officers of the Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge were installed at an appropriate service in the grade school auditorium Saturday evening. Mrs. L. K. Fiske was installing officer and Miss Lottie Chestnut assistant. Grand Captain George and his team from Portland put on the floor work. Officers from the Forest Grove chapter were installed at the same time. Talks were given by Mrs. Maier, guardian neighbor of Forest Grove; Mrs. John Beck, guardian neighbor of district No. 11; and Mr. Walker, the general field representative.

Captain George and Mrs. L. K. Fiske. Mrs. Joseph Finegan, Mrs. John Beck, Mrs. William VanLom and Rudolph Schultz were presented with gifts from the local chapter. Presentations were made by Mesdames Frank Docher, L. K. Fiske and William VanLom. Following the installation, dancing was enjoyed with Mrs. Kitty Nolan and Charles Walker furnishing the music. Refreshments were served at attractively set tables using red and white decorations in miniature gumdrop trees and candles to over 100 guests present. Officers installed were Mrs. William VanLom, past guardian neighbor; Mrs. Lester Mooberry, guardian neighbor; Mrs. Frank Docher, advisor; Mrs. Joseph Finegan, musician; Rudolph Schultz, banker; Earl Phelps, captain of the guards; Miss Olea Berger, flag bearer; Mrs. Ted Wilkins, juvenile guardian; Mrs. John VanLom, attendant; Ted Wilkins, inner sentinel; Ray Shaw, outer sentinel; Mrs. Ed Wolfe and Frank Docher, managers; and Mrs. Rudolph Schultz, clerk.

Mrs. George Milne spent part of last week at Beaverton with her mother, who has been ill. Mrs. Leonard Melanson is visiting relatives in Seattle. Mrs. Joseph Morrassy of Salem spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Melanson, made in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Pidcock are living in Portland.
