

Reedville Folk to Join with Bethany Group

(By Mary Sinclair)
REEDVILLE—The Bethany women have extended an invitation to the Reedville women to join with them in the World Day of Prayer at the Bethany church Friday at 1:30 p. m. Provisions are being made for all who can go.

J. A. Kirkwood of Portland visited over the week-end in Reedville. He formerly lived here.

Husband Honored
Mrs. Glenn Stiff entertained with a dinner Thursday in honor of her husband's birthday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Loren Slade, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brownlee and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Imlay and family and Mrs. George Imlay and family.

Haggis Moves
Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Haggis and family, who lived on the Fisher place, moved to a place a mile south of North Plains.

Move from Portland
Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Key of Portland, formerly of Wyoming, moved into the Becker house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Liebenow. Mr. Key is helping on the bridge north of Hillsboro.

Retired Local Farmer Dead

August Heilebuycck, 79, resident near Hillsboro for the last 47 years died Thursday in a Portland hospital of pneumonia. He came to the United States in 1887 from Belgium, where he was born January 21, 1858. He was a retired farmer.

Children's Clinic Planned Saturdays

Plans are underway by the Washington county health department to start toxoid and smallpox vaccination clinics to immunize against diphtheria and smallpox. The purpose of the clinics is to furnish vaccination and diphtheria immunization to children from families unable to procure the service in the regular way, and financial assistance will be given through the American Legion and various other organizations, Dr. McDonald said.

Bus Company Seeks to Abandon Service

Transportation service between Progress and Scholls and intermediate points, carried on for the last year by the Garden Home Busses, Inc., will be abandoned if the request made by the company is granted.
