

Coffee Club Speaker Draws Large Crowd

"Activities of Communists," was the topic of the address given before a large crowd at the Coffee club meeting Friday afternoon by Officer Bert Odale of the Portland police department. The program was arranged by the department of American Citizenship, with Mrs. Elwood Johnson as chairman.

"Americanism versus Communism" is a subject which should be given deep study, according to the speaker. His talk dealt with facts about the large number of communists in the country, what organizations they are working through, and the different ways in which they are exerting influence. He recommended proper legislation and deportation of aliens in combating this evil.

Other numbers on the program included the reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address by Jean Peterson, two vocal solos by Miss Maurine Moore, accompanied by Miss Mildred James.

Plans were discussed for the Colonial Silver tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Connell on February 26 from 2 to 5 p. m. for ladies of Hillsboro and vicinity, and invitations will be sent to other clubs and organizations.

Former Residents of City Observe 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. George V. Doughty, residents of Hillsboro for many years, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary February 9, at their home in San Diego, Cal., with an open house for their friends in the afternoon, and in the evening for their children, grandchildren and relatives.

As the program began by singing "You and I Were Young Maggie," the bride and groom of fifty years were facing a large painting hung on the wall, showing a scene of their childhood days in northwest Iowa: The hill, the oak grove, the little lake, and the log-built school house, where they received their early education.

One of the guests, Mrs. Anna Funk Wood, when a young school teacher, had written in Mrs. Doughty's autograph album fifty-five years ago, and now after so many years, she wrote her name again together with the other Iowa guests in the golden wedding book.

George V. Doughty was born in Maine January 13, 1855, and was taken by his parents to Iowa in 1856. Eliza M. Cocher was born in Iowa December 28, 1861. They were married at Forest Grove, Oregon, February 9, 1887, and went to make their home in San Diego in 1928.
