

P.-T. A Founders' Day Program Enjoyed

An unusually large number of people attended the Founders' Day program of the Hillsboro Parent-Teacher association last Monday evening, which was in celebration of the fortieth anniversary of the national organization and the third anniversary of the Hillsboro P.-T. A.

Tribute was paid the two past presidents of the Hillsboro organization, Mrs. J. M. Person and Mrs. H. H. Starnes, by the county president, Mrs. G. Green, who also paid special tribute to Mrs. M. M. Romig, who is now president.

A play giving the history of the P.-T. A. was presented by Miss Gertrude Brown, Mrs. Elsie Emery, Mrs. C. M. Krueber and Mrs. Crockett, teachers of the junior high school, and Miss Maurine Moore directed eight little grade school pupils in a miniature play presented by Mrs. L. C. Kramen, Mrs. Ed Koltzborn, Mrs. R. R. Easter, and Mrs. F. S. Estep, accompanied by Miss Lucile Fisher. Miss Fisher also directed the community singing.

"Cubbing," the junior Boy Scout movement, which is sponsored by the Hillsboro P.-T. A., was explained by R. P. Rasmussen, chairman, and M. M. Romig, cub master, and several cubs were presented. It was pointed out that co-operation of the parents was particularly important in this movement and an invitation was extended to everyone interested to attend the meetings which are held on the third Tuesday of each month at 7 p. m. at the David Hill school.

Announcement was made that the Hillsboro P.-T. A. would sponsor a picture show at the Venetian theatre March 2, also that this association, with the assistance of other organizations, would undertake to finance a summer playground for children in Hillsboro.

A birthday cake baked by Mrs. R. W. Gates, chairman of the refreshment committee, was served during the social hour. Other members of this committee were Mesdames F. Baker, D. Leger, B. M. Goodman, L. Howe and F. Holznapel.

Miss Moore's room was again awarded the attendance banner.

Miss Schulmerich Arrives at Home

Miss Alma Schulmerich of Washington, D. C., arrived in Hillsboro a visit with her sisters and brothers. She was seriously ill in a hospital at the time of the death of her mother, Mrs. Anna Schulmerich.

Miss Schulmerich, who is an art instructor, suffered a bad injury to her hand and arm about two years ago, and has been disabled since. She received a judgment in court for $10,000 for the injury, but the case will probably be taken to the supreme court.

On the trip home very cold weather was encountered, the thermometer registering 14 below zero part of the time. The train was stalled in a snowdrift for 12 hours at one place, without heat.

Local Girl Named School Delegate in State Contest

(By Evelyn Hatfield)

Dixie Lee MacDowell has been chosen to represent the high school in the drawing at Salem for the delegate from Oregon to attend the Continental Congress at Washington, D. C. in April. Each year in a national program for "Good Citizenship," the Daughters of the American Revolution offer one Oregon senior high school girl who rates highest in good citizenship a free trip to Washington, D. C. A similar prize is offered in each state. Three girls, Ethyl Hendren, LaVelle Jackson and Dixie Lee MacDowell, were selected by the faculty under the qualifications of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism. The senior and junior classes then voted upon these three girls and selected Dixie Lee. Later this month she will be presented a "Good Citizenship Medal" by the local D. A. R. chapter.

Mr. Skenzie's sociology, geography, and history classes took up a collection and subscribed for several different magazines to use in connection with their work.
