

Apathy of Women in Politics Pointed Out

Apathy of citizens, toward use of their right of suffrage is leading to control of legislation by organized minorities, according to Mrs. Dorothy McCullough Lee in her talk before the Business and Professional Women's club Friday evening. She urged women to take more interest in problems of government and to vote intelligently.

Mrs. Lee discussed the place of women in all phases of government and also gave a very interesting talk on what confronts the present state legislature. Legislative committee, Mesdames C. E. Wells and Miss Boscow, co-chairmen, had charge of program.

Mesdames L. C. Kramien, director, C. J. Crittenden, C. E. Wells, and Fred Caldwell, members of the American Legion Auxiliary quartet gave several vocal selections, accompanied by Mrs. Leona Howe at the piano.

Dinner tables carried out a patriotic motif with red and blue balloons, red candies, and interesting color arrangement of foods. Committee in charge was Mrs. Edna Turley and Miss Rose C. E. Wells, chairmen. Mesdames H. H. Stannard, L. M. Townsend, and Miss Julia Tatom, Marie Smith, Arline Kamna and Gussie Sigher.

An invitation was received from Rev. T. Arthur Dungan of the Congregational church to attend church on Sunday, March 14, the opening of National Business Women's Week. The invitation was accepted, and tentative plans reported for the observance of the remainder of the week included a joint business and social meeting on Monday night at the home of one of the chairmen, and the public relations' banquet on Friday night, March 19.

Rainbow Assembly Plans Two Events

Hillsboro Assembly of Rainbow for Girls, met Monday evening at the Masonic temple. Pot luck supper was planned for the girls and their parents at the next meeting, March 8. Plans were also discussed for a dance for the girls and their escorts at the hall March 12.

Best Sellers Non-Fiction Added Library

New non-fiction books added to the library shelves are "Inside Europe," by John Gunther. A completely revised edition. This is the only title which appears on every list of year's best books, also a best seller. "Inside Europe" is the one book you need to keep abreast of current happenings and to understand tomorrow's headlines. The book is a collection of personality portraits of the men who are shaping policies in Europe, with some comments on political and economic issues. Situations are well summed up and very understandable.

A book about the weather, by Charles F. Talman. Weather is a much talked about subject, but this book gives you really something to talk about. You may always have thought of the weather as only temperature and the state of the sky, but it is a vast subject including all kinds of phenomena. The illustrations on typical forms of clouds are very interesting. The chapter on "When Water Breaks Loose" is of timely interest, also one on "New Science of Atmospheric Comfort" or air conditioning. A very instructive, entertaining book. "Life of a Spider" by J. Henri Fabre. In this book we watch the habits of the spider, learn the different kinds of spiders and how much better equipped for his life the spider is than are we for our life.

A set of books which has been in the library some time but which you may not have noticed: "Photographic History of the Civil War." This set is of especial interest to those who have read "Gone With the Wind" as it pictures many events and places mentioned in the book.

J. H. Garrett and C. T. Richardson attended a meeting of the Sons of the American Revolution in Portland Monday evening.

A Message to Washington County TAXPAYERS

You Can SAVE 3% On Your TAXES

By Paying Them On or Before MARCH 15
No Rebates After March 15

FOR THE CURRENT TAXPAYER
The Total Possible Savings Under the Present Tax Law are Very Large

In Washington County alone, 3% of the tax roll represents the sum of almost $30,000. You, as a taxpayer, can share in further benefits to be derived from prompt payment of taxes. Among such benefits are decreased warrant indebtedness and corresponding decrease in interest paid on outstanding warrants. The present law which allows this 3% discount is therefore of direct interest to taxpayers as individuals as well as to the communities in which they reside.

FOR THE DELINQUENT TAXPAYER
Waiver of Interest Penalty Possible

Waiver of interest and penalty on delinquent taxes for the years 1934 and prior, with the exception of one-fourth of the oldest year's delinquency, is possible upon payment of the 1937 current tax in full. Details of this opportunity are available at the county tax office.
