Founders' Program Held at Reedville

(By Mary Sinclair) REEDVILLE—The annual Founders' Day meeting of the P. T. A. was held Friday afternoon at the Reedville school house.

Quite an interesting enumeration of the many things accomplished since the organization of the P. T. A. was given by different members.

Successful hot lunch lunchees have been carried out for several years, a piano purchased, shrubbery planted, radio purchased, and the group is working now toward a gymnasium.

Owing to so many absences among the school children it was impossible to have the program which had been planned to be given by the school children. This program has been postponed to a later date.

Francis Key, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Key, was brought home from the hospital and is much improved.

Donald Hagg, who has been ill for some time with the chickenpox, was able to return to school this week.

Early Resident of County Succumbs

SCHOLLS—Mrs. Sarah Velvett Lawrence, 88, died at the home of her son in Gresham Saturday.

Mrs. Lawrence was born in Illinois, March 13, 1849, and came to Oregon in 1883. She was married in 1895 to Samuel B. Lawrence, who died in 1907. The family lived on what is now known as the Sam Penne farm. Surviving relatives are four sons and one daughter, 11 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and one great-great-granddaughter and little Lila Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Potter and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Snyder.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church in Scholls Monday at 2 p. m. Interment was in Mount-taine cemetery. Her four sons were pall-bearers.

BEAVERTON—Accompanied by her husband and family she came to Oregon in 1889, arriving at Scholls February 18. Mrs. Lawrence was a continuous resident of Washington county for 45 years, living at Scholls, Forest Grove, and Raleigh, before moving to Gresham two years ago.

She and her husband became members of the Church of God in 1874 in Kansas and were identified with the Scholls church of that denomination, which is now owned by the Scholls Methodist Episcopal church.

Surviving here are one daughter, Mrs. David W. Esk of Multnomah county; Samuel B. of Raleigh, Lou L. of Oregon City, Bert F. of Gresham, John W. of Portland; one sister, Sue M. Black of Manhattan, Kan.; one brother, Charles Marrs of Portland; eleven grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren and one great-great-granddaughter.

Mr. Philip Mohr and Richard spent the past week in Corvallis at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mohr, to whom a baby has been born.

Water Does Many Chores

The older generation will remember a quaint character known either as the "handy man" about the place, or "the man who does the chores."

Many of the chores performed by the almost-vanished "handyman" are done by your water company.

Instead of drawing water in pails, either from well or cistern for various domestic uses, a turn of faucet or hydrant handle delivers water on the spot.
