

State President Visits Coffee Club Tuesday

Mrs. A. C. McIntyre of Pendleton, president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, will be a guest of the Coffee club Tuesday afternoon at the chamber of commerce. The regular meeting of the club was postponed from Friday afternoon to Tuesday on account of the president's visit.

Mrs. E. J. Kortzborn, chairman of the American Home department, will have charge of the program, and has announced that Prof. F. M. Wilcox of Laurelwood academy will speak on "American Home." A group of music students from the academy will furnish the music.

Everyone is especially invited to exhibit any home art-craft or industry at the meeting. Also old household articles and utensils that are cherished because of age and associations. There will also be a showing of some of the newest and finest of home-making helps.

Other federated clubs of the community have been invited to attend. Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mesdames E. L. Moore, E. J. Peterson, R. Frank Peters and Elwood Johnson.

Play Scheduled Monday to Show Evils of Liquor

The drama and trial, "Prisoner at the Bar," will be presented in the Hillsboro union high school Monday at 8 p. m. The cast is composed of twenty-two Hillsboro citizens. Ralph Jones, the prisoner, is accused by the state of the murder of his wife. One of the touching scenes in the trial is when his six-year-old daughter is brought on the witness stand to testify against her father. The trial brings an indictment against present day conditions as a result of the liquor traffic.

The cast follows: Judge, M. B. Bump; prosecuting attorney, H. A. Kurall; defense attorney, Wesley Foster; prisoner at the bar, Hayward H. Johnson; prisoner's little daughter, Bonnie Jean Corn; sheriff, W. W. Webber; fingerprint expert, George Erickson; court clerk, John Eldridge; star witness, Helen Parr; court bailiff, Rev. G. P. Duffield.

Summoned on the jury: P. A. Anderson, J. H. Garrett, Albert Hood, Mrs. A. T. Barber, B. W. Barnes, Delmar Wyatt, Mrs. J. N. Walker, Richard Wiley, John Green, Leon Pulsifer, Mrs. W. H. Bucher, Rex Howell.

The trial has been given throughout the country. Admission is free, but a collection will be taken. Hayward Johnson will speak at the high school and junior high Monday afternoon.

Honored at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Zurcher entertained Sunday with a dinner party for Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Carick of Portland. Other guests were Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Gibson, Misses Margaret and Emma Gibson, John Robert and Mesdames H. L. Hoefel, Otto Schulz, Ernest Zurcher, and Glen Epler. Mrs. Hoefel and Mrs. Zurcher made high scores.

Kehrlis Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kehrlis of Portland entertained Hillsboro friends with a monopoly party Saturday evening. Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames H. L. Hoefel, Otto Schulz, Ernest Zurcher, and Glen Epler. Mrs. Hoefel and Mrs. Zurcher made high scores.

P-T. A. to Elect

Garden Home P-T. A. meets Friday at 2:30 p. m. for nomination and election of officers. All Garden Homers are urged to attend the "Better English" class that meets each Friday at 1:30 p. m. with Mrs. Burns.

League Pitcher Visits

Clarence Kumalae of Hollywood, Cal., enroute to Vancouver, B. C., to pitch for that city in the Northwestern International league, visited his sister, Mrs. Verlin Cochran, over Tuesday.

Old Neighbors Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mock of Silverton, Colo., spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Lomax. They were neighbors in Ridgeway, Colo., 15 years ago.

Card Party Friday

St. Matthews Altar society will sponsor a card party at St. Matthews school hall Friday evening. "Five hundred" will be played.

Sea Scouts at Dance

Sea Scout Ship Rainbow members attended a basket social and dance given on the Battleship Oregon Monday night by the Scout Ship Columbia, Sea Scout Ship John Allen members of Camas, Wash., were also present. Rev. Reginald Hicks was introduced as chaplain of S. S. S. Columbia. Friday eight from the local ship attended a swim at Pacific university tanks and Sunday nine of them worked on the site of the new sea scout base on the west end of the Portland Yacht club.

Family Living Conference Held Here April 16

A new and interesting feature of the county Family Living conference, which will be held at the Methodist church in Hillsboro on Friday, April 16, will be a demonstration on "The Care of Silver and Other Metals in the Home." The demonstration will be given by Mrs. Louise Harwood, Home Economics staff, Oregon State college, according to L. E. Francis, assistant county agent. The demonstration will include such subjects as inexpensive home-made polishes, labor-saving methods, the selection and storing of silverware, the care of plumbing fixtures, bathroom fixtures, pewter, iron and tin.

The Family Living conference will open at 9:45, followed by a special surprise feature at 10 o'clock which promises to be of considerable interest. An additional feature that will be of interest to homemakers will be a demonstration on spring salads and their place in the diet by Miss Lucy A. Case, extension specialist in foods and nutrition from Oregon State college. Miss Case will demonstrate labor and time-saving salad dressings, salad equipment and short cuts in preparing everyday salads. The salads demonstrated will be sampled at the noon luncheon.

There will be a covered dish luncheon with reports from the various home economics units of the county in connection with their project work. The conference will also include the plans for home economics activities in the county for the coming year and will close promptly at 4 o'clock. All homemakers of the county are cordially invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

District Officer's Visit is Postponed

Mrs. Otella Mardis of Dallas, district president of the American Legion Auxiliary, was unable to attend the meeting Tuesday night of Hillsboro unit as scheduled.

Mrs. L. C. Kramien, music chairman and director of the chorus, reported that contest numbers for the state convention had been received, and urged all who could possibly do so to meet with the present group for rehearsal. Several more voices are needed. Monday nights are rehearsal times. A rehearsal will be held Monday night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. A. Griffith, 152 N. Fifth avenue.

Mrs. A. F. Kroeger and Mrs. Fred Engeldinger reported on the Camp Fire group sponsored by the Auxiliary, and plans were discussed for helping them. The Auxiliary also voted to contribute $5 to the playground fund.

State President Visits D. U. V.

Miss Ora Cox of Medford, state president of the Daughters of Union Veterans, made an official visit to Alma Olden Bennett Tent here Monday night at the Veterans' hall. Initiation was held, followed by a program and social hour. The high school boys' quartet furnished music for the occasion.

Mrs. O. M. Heaton Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. Etta Littell, matron of the I. O. O. F. home, Mrs. Grace Christiansen, past president of the Rebekah assembly, Mrs. Bertha McCollum, secretary board of control of Theta Rho, initiation was held, followed by luncheon party guests Thursday of Mrs. O. M. Heaton.

Peter Evers of Forest Grove has been admitted to the Jones hospital for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tisdale spent Sunday at Taft with Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Abrams.

Mrs. Thomas Connell is confined to her home this week with illness.

The Great American Home

ONLY YESTERDAY THE FIRST AIRPLANE SEEN IN ROSSBY CENTER.

Barnes Couple Honored on the 50th Anniversary

(By Alice I. Wood)

BARNES—Mr. and Mrs. D. Anderson Shearer were honored with a surprise celebration on their fiftieth wedding anniversary March 25. The crowd surprised them at the house and then went to the Barnes school for the evening.

A mock wedding was performed in which Wilhelm Wellin was bride, Paul Mead, the bridegroom; Roger Johnson, the trainbearer; and William Ross, the minister. The characters were most appropriately dressed and the bride carried a vegetable bouquet.

The mock wedding was followed with dancing and lunch. Mrs. N. P. Johnson cut cakes and Mrs. E. T. Mettler cut the wedding cake. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Shearer's daughter, Mrs. E. F. Mettler, and three grandsons, Raymond Shearer, Wilbur Mettler and Walter Shearer, and about 40 others.

Mr. and Mrs. Shearer were presented with an electric refrigerator by their many friends and relatives.

Many Attend Dance

A large crowd attended the hard time dance held at the Barnes school March 30. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. William Madson, who was attired in a gunny sack dress, and men's prize went to Charles Boy, bedecked in rags and Mrs. Shearer's daughter, Mrs. E. F. Mettler, and three grandsons, Raymond Shearer, Wilbur Mettler and Walter Shearer, and about 40 others.

State Officer Visits

Mrs. R. H. Jonas, vice-president of the Rebekah assembly of Prineville visited Tuesday at the O. M. Heaton home.

General Aid Wednesday

General meeting of M. E. Ladies' Aid will be held Wednesday afternoon at the church.

Mrs. Gardner Convalescing

Mrs. John Gardner was taken home Tuesday and is convalescing after a week's illness in the Jones hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray V. Thomas, W. Thomas and Howard Thomas visited Sunday with Willis Thomas of Tucson, Ariz., who is with his sister, Mrs. Claude Edwards at Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hixson of Hoodport, Wash., are at the Washington hotel this week, looking after business interests here.

Mrs. R. Hornby and granddaughter, Janet Ruth of Corvallis, spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Thwaite.

George Tews of Gaston underwent an appendix operation Wednesday morning at Smith's hospital. Dr. F. S. Richards of Forest Grove was surgeon.

Subscribe for the Argus.

Seventh Grade Class Presents Health Drama

Designed to show the benefit of immunization against diphtheria, the health play, "The Magic Fluid," was given by the 7A class of the Junior high school, March 26.

Cast included Everett Padgett, Erma Williams, Henrietta Van Meltebeke, Max Snyder, Doyle McCullough, Vernon Schoen, Donald Bretthauer, Bruce Estep, Children of all nationalities and inhabitants of the land of youth: Viola Bean, American; Violet Lundin, Swiss; Carolyn Kalkwarf, Italian; Mary Ellen Morrison, Gypsy; Gladys Thompson, American; Fern Wentz, Danish; Freda Sturm, Dutch; Violet Lundin, Mary Ellen Morrison, Carolyn Kalkwarf and Viola Bean sang. Second grade had an Easter party Friday and a play called the "Easter Rabbit" was given.

The 7B class at the junior high surprised the home-room teacher Friday afternoon with a farewell party in her honor. The table was beautifully decorated in shades of green, yellow, and lavender. All junior high teachers were invited.

William Gettle Injured

William Gettle of the 7B class was seriously injured Thursday afternoon while helping his father pull stumps with a tractor, and is now at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland. The 7B class hopes he will be back in school before the end of the year.

Junior high teachers spent spring vacation in the following places: Mrs. Emery, Portland and Hillsboro; Miss Brown, Seaside and Newberg; Mrs. Ide, Salem and home; Mrs. Crockell, Portland and Hillsboro; Mr. Jones, Portland, Salem and Hillsboro; Mrs. Krueck, Portland; Mr. Henry, Hillsboro; Miss Fisher, Portland.

Mrs. Mary Whitley of Portland, formerly of Hillsboro, was a dinner guest Sunday of her aunt, Mrs. A. M. Carlie. Mrs. Whitley is receiving congratulations of being grandmother of a son having been born last week to her son Milton and wife.

Demonstration of all sewing machine appliances will be made by a representative of the Singer company at the adult education class in sewing Tuesday morning at Peter Boscow school.

V. F. W. Plans Father and Son Banquet Soon

Veterans of Foreign Wars are planning a father and son banquet, to be held later in the month, the date to be decided at their next meeting. All fathers and sons are included in the invitation. It is hoped that all fathers not having sons will make arrangements to take sons not having fathers.

An essay contest is being introduced in the schools for boys in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades by C. H. Nosler, superintendent of grade schools. The theme will be a discussion on "Why My Dad and I Are Pals." The winner will be determined by judges chosen by Mr. Nosler and will be announced later. A prize will be given for the best essay and the winner will be invited to read his theme at the banquet.

The banquet is being planned on a large scale and it is hoped it will be attended by all fathers and sons in the district. It has been enthusiastically received by leaders of civic and public affairs that it will probably be made an annual affair.

Mrs. Cecil Ager and daughter of LaGrande are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wilkes. Dr. Ager is attending a post graduate school for eye, ear, nose and throat specialists in Portland this week.

Mrs. Margaret McFarland of Portland spent the week-end at the home of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caldwell, Mrs. McFarland formerly resided here.

Mrs. J. B. Dinsmore and Tommy spent Easter vacation week with friends in San Francisco, Cal. They returned home Sunday.

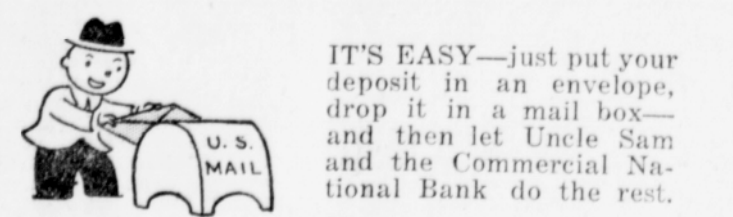

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Cody of Portland have moved to Hillsboro. He will be in the field department of the cannery.

John and Verne Ballantyne of Corvallis are in Hillsboro this week working with Mr. Madson on rural rehabilitation.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Woodman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Moore at Newberg.

If you are too busy to drive into town or if it is not convenient to come into the bank with your deposit, use our BANK-BY-MAIL service.

IT'S EASY—just put your deposit in an envelope, drop it in a mail box—and then let Uncle Sam and the Commercial National Bank do the rest.

We assure you of the same courteous, efficient service that would be given if you presented the deposit personally.

BANK-BY MAIL is but one of the many personalized services that your home owned, independent bank offers you.

Ask about these services today!

Commercial National Bank
Member Independent Bankers' Association
Hillsboro, Oregon
MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Wed 50 Years

Residents of Oregon and Washington county since 1891, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. VanKleeck of Kinton recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. They were married in Walnut Grove, Neb., March 20, 1887. Cut courtesy The Oregonian.

Travel Pictures to be Shown at B. P. Meeting

Fred E. Taylor, traveling passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, will show pictures of Mexico and other places at the Business and Professional Women's club meeting at the chamber of commerce Friday night, April 16. These pictures are a feature of the travel service of the Southern Pacific, and have been greatly admired wherever shown.

The jamboree committee, Mrs. Edna Tupper and Miss Rose Cave, joint chairmen, will have charge of the program, and the 6:30 dinner will be in charge of the emblem committee with Miss Margaret Cady and Mrs. Edna Margaret as joint chairmen.

Mrs. Jack Stanton of Portland is visiting Hillsboro friends this week.

Federated Clubs Meet April 17

County Federation of Women's clubs will be held Saturday, April 17, at Cornelius, when representatives from the fourteen affiliated clubs will be in attendance. Mrs. E. W. Conklin of Metzger, vice-president of the federation, will have charge of the program.

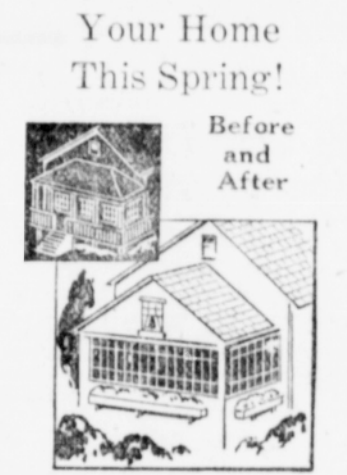

Hillsboro clubs belonging to the County Federation are the Coffee Club, Service club, and Needlecraft club.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Amacher are moving this week to 326 E. Jackson street, the residence formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bailey. The Amachers have purchased the residence.

Fred Bush and his brother-in-law, Dee Whittick of Mist, spent Thursday with W. E. Bush and family.

Say you saw it in the Argus.

REMODEL Your Home This Spring!

Material and labor costs are reasonable—rents are climbing—finances can be arranged on small monthly payments—everything points to this spring as the ideal time to remodel or build.

You can enjoy added comfort, greater convenience and increased pride in your home—and at the same time enhance the resale value of your home.

Invest in Remodeling This Spring!

Courtesy and Building Materials

POOL-GARDNER Lumber Co.
Franchised Fuller Dealers
Phone 2691
151 W. Baseline Street

VENETIAN

Friday and Saturday THIS WEEK
2 MAJOR FEATURES 2

JACK HOLT
in ZANE GREY'S pulse-racing tale of the Rough Riders!

JANE WITHERS
"GINGER" JANE IS DIXIE'S HONEY CHILD IN A JULEP TIME JUBILEE!

Continuous Show Saturday 1:30 to 11 P. M.

SUN. - MON. - TUES. April 11, 12, 13

Continuous Show Sunday — 2 p. m. to 11 p. m.
THE THRILL IN A MILLION!
...and if you live to be a million... you'll never have another like it!

Her best Friends Couldn't Tell her
STYLES CHANGE SO...EVEN IN WEDDINGS

One in a Million
SONJA HENIE
ADOLPHE MENJOU - JEAN HERSHOLT
NED SPARKS - DON AMECHE
RITZ BROTHERS
ARLINE JUDGE, BORRAH MINEVITCH
DIXIE DUNBAR, LEAH RAY, SHIRLEY DEANE

PLUS—Selected Short Subjects

Public Notice

TO OUR PRESENT AND PROSPECTIVE PATRONS:

Due to the increased business in the Savings and Loan field, we are pleased to announce at this time, that hereafter our manager, Mr. J. M. Person, will devote his entire time and effort to the Savings and Loan business.

Federal Land Bank loans and business will be removed to another office and be under different management.

As in the past our office will be glad to give mortgage advice to the public, without obligation.

Washington Savings and Loan Association
Tualatin Valley Federal Savings and Loan Association
Savings and Loan Building—163 S. 2nd Ave. Hillsboro, Oregon