Mrs. Theo Tullock of Kahlotus, Wash., visited her aunt, Mrs. Elma Denby, the first of the week.

E. J. McAlear will spend the week-end in Idaho on a business trip.

J. F. Buckland, who has been ill for three weeks, is able to be up again.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Coman spent the week-end at Stayton with Mr. and Mrs. James Say.

Billy Allison, student at O. S. C., Corvallis, spent the week-end at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Woodman and son Wayne spent the week-end at Hubbard with her mother, Mrs. Emma Conrad.

Charles Wicklund is very ill in a Portland hospital.

Local Women Re-elected State Officers

Mrs. Zola F. Morgan, re-elected state president of Oregon Business and Professional Women's clubs; Miss Elaine Caldwell, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Emma C. McKinney, editor of Oregon Business Woman.

Miss Korn Bride of Rev. Fresenburg

Miss Edna Korn, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Korn of Helvetia, became the bride of Rev. B. M. Fresenburg of Phillips Tuesday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Simon Hershey, Rev. E. J. Scheidt performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and a veil with a halo of orange blossoms belonging to her sister. She carried a bouquet of flame-colored roses. Miss Edna Hershey, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore peach taffeta. She carried a bouquet of roses and sweetpeas. Frank Buehler, cousin of the bride, was best man. James Dierickx played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The house was decorated with banks of flowers, arranged on lattice and in sprays.

The couple will make their home at Phillips, where the bridegroom is pastor of the German Reformed church, and also of that at Helvetia.

Miss Ruth Lundgren Goes to Honolulu

Miss Ruth Lundgren of the Portland General Electric office left Tuesday for a vacation trip, which will include the bridge opening activities at San Francisco. From there she will sail on the Lurline for Los Angeles and on to Honolulu, where she will visit Miss Gretchen Moore. She is accompanied by Miss Marion Lamm of Portland, and the young ladies will make the return trip on the Princess Russia to Victoria, B. C. They expect to return to Portland June 20.

Entertain at Bridge

Mrs. R. R. Easter and Mrs. J. H. Murton entertained May 14 with luncheon and contract bridge. Mrs. C. T. Richardson and Mrs. Donald Megargel had high and second scores. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Erwin Barendsen and Mrs. Arthur King of McMinnville.

Easteners Visit—Mrs. Philip Walsh of Remus, Mich., and her daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Walsh of Detroit, are guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Walsh and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan. They will probably spend the summer here.

Have Candy Sale—The playground committee of the P. T. A. will have a candy sale tonight (Thursday) at the Venetian theatre to raise the balance on the $50 pledged by the organization for the playground.

Returns Home—Mrs. Anna Dall, who has been a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Kroeger, and other relatives for several months, left Tuesday for her home in Chicago.

Hold Rummage Sale—Ladies of the Congregational church will hold a rummage sale Friday and Saturday of this week at the corner of First and Main streets.

Phoenix Lodge Host at Joint Meeting Monday

Phoenix lodge, Knights of Pythias, held the first of a series of joint social meetings with the Pythian Sisters at the K. P. hall Monday night, the theme of the meeting being "Friendship." Fred J. Sewell presided. William E. Bouscain, the only charter member of the Knights' lodge present, was introduced and given a seat of honor, as was Mrs. Emma McKinney, past grand chief of the Pythian Sisters.

Hugh S. Rogers, vice-chancellor of Phoenix lodge, gave an address stressing patriotism and friendship, and Mrs. J. W. Barney, most excellent chief of Phoenicia Temple, gave an address on Friendship.

G. Russell Morgan sang several solos and led in group singing of old familiar songs, with Mrs. Fred Sewell as accompanist. Miss Marjorie Sewell played several violin selections and Harry Pearson gave accordion numbers. Following the short musical program, picture slides were shown, stressing the great lesson of Friendship as exemplified in the ritual of the order, with A. W. Havens telling the picture story.

Dancing was enjoyed the remainder of the evening and refreshments were served by a committee of Pythian Sisters and Knights. Orchestra for dancing was composed of James Peppard, drums; Harry Pearson, accordion; Mr. Clapham and Miss Marjorie Sewell, violins, and Mrs. Sewell, pianist. The Knights plan to have a joint social meeting once a month and were well pleased with the success of the first meeting. Committees of the two orders are also planning for a picnic to be held soon.

High Official Honor Guest

R. R. Easter was a guest of Franklin T. Griffith, president of the Portland General Electric company, Tuesday evening at a dinner at the Arlington club honoring C. W. Kellogg, president of the Edison Electrical institute. Mr. Griffith, L. T. Merwin, president of the Northwestern Electric, and Paul McKee, president of the Pacific Power and Light, were hosts for their district managers and department heads.

Past Chiefs' Club Meets

Mrs. John Kamna Jr. will be hostess for the Past Chiefs' club of Phoenicia Temple, Pythian Sisters, Thursday night, June 3, at her home south of Hillsboro.

Members of the choir are Jean Ann Pasley, Colene MacDowell, Marjorie Patterson, Helen Hallam, Margret Flint, Eva Peppard, Elva May Bradley, Caroline Fuller, Barbara Burdette, and Verna Dillon.

Officers of Waverly Assembly in Portland conducted the installation, among them being Miss Elizabeth Eckhardt, grand musician, Sunny-side DeMolay boys, under the leadership of their master counselor, John Hancock, crowned the worthy advisor in their usual impressive crowning ceremony.

Dancing was enjoyed after the installation.

Kindergarten Work in Schools Urged

Addition of kindergarten grades to the permanent set-up of the Hillsboro grade school was suggested to the community at a special meeting of the nursery school council Thursday afternoon. Nursery school council's interest in the kindergarten work, it was explained, was that the beneficial training of children in nursery school might not be lost between their leaving nursery school and their entrance in the first grade. The council, however, is not prepared to sponsor the kindergarten project.

Nursery school will remain in session throughout the summer months, and the council will continue to meet each third Thursday. Four new pupils have been added to the roll. Thanks of the council is extended to Mrs. C. E. Wells for her contribution to the school project.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Hande and children of Silverton spent several days this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Connell.
