Former Club Employee Held

Wanted here on a warrant charging obtaining money under false pretenses, Harold Burwood, 28, former employe at Forest Hills Golf club, is in jail at Twin Falls, Idaho, according to word received this week by Sheriff John Connell. Plans are being made to return the man here for trial.

Burwood, it is alleged, passed about 10 bad checks to merchants of Forest Grove, Cornelius and Hillsboro. The checks were for sums of from $3 to $7.50 mostly drawn on the Forest Grove National bank.

Before leaving, Burwood, the officers allege, purchased an automobile in Portland from the Capitol purchase company and financed its purchase through the Pacific Finance company. The machine was captured with him in Twin Falls.

Records show, Connell said, that the man also is wanted on a check charge in Grand Island, Neb.

Orders filed this week in circuit court include J. C. Rowe vs. Emil Ault, permission for plaintiff to file amended complaint; August Kaptur vs. Eleanor A. McDougall et al. decree.

New cases in circuit court this week include Oregon Securities company vs. Gwendolyn Paddock, recovery of personal property; Erick Enquist vs. August Nyland, foreclosure; Martin E. Oakes vs. Helen Cameron, foreclosure mechanic's lien.

Breeders Offer Holstein Heifer

Washington County Holstein breeders have again taken an active lead in the activities of the breed association of this state, reports L. E. Francis, assistant county agent. Each year the Oregon State Holstein association has sponsored the award of a purebred Holstein heifer as a breed special at the Oregon state fair.

The breed specials for the next three years are being awarded by Washington county breeders, Arthur Connell, Hillsboro; J. A. Lindow & Sons, Bethany; A. J. Evers, Verboort, are awarding the heifers at the 1937, 1938 and 1939 fairs, respectively.

The awarding of breed specials has been one of the principal sources of support offered the 4-H program by the various breed associations. Francis said, and is a real encouragement for progressive work on the part of the club members.

Vacation Bible School Planned

Registration for a daily vacation Bible school in Hillsboro will open Monday, June 7, at 9 a. m. in the Christian church. It was decided Tuesday at a meeting of interested workers, and representatives from the various churches of the community. The meeting was in the Methodist church at the invitation of the Ministerial association.

Miss Dulcinea Brown and Miss Louise Hunderup of Portland conducted a coaching school in connection with the meeting. Rev. O. W. Winger was elected general chairman in charge with Esther Turner, secretary, and Rev. R. L. Putnam, director of the school. The theme for study is "God's Wonder Book." Rev. G. P. Duffield will direct the music and have charge of visual instruction.

There are to be four departments including, beginners, primary, junior and intermediate. Parents and church school workers of the community are urged to cooperate by sending children and passing information on the school along to acquaintances.

Library Notes

Library will hold a Summer Reading contest. Slogan for this year is "Round the World Via the Book Route," and every student entering will be issued a ticket. There are many new books, which will count. Prizes for winners in each grade in each school will be given. Visit the library for further details.

The library people and patrons are very proud of the drinking fountain just installed by the Coffee club, and wish to thank the club for it.

Those interested in the psychology lectures by Dr. Ballard will be pleased to learn that the library has the following books recommended by him: Overstreet, "About Ourselves," Oliver, "Fear," Link, "Return to Religion," Galsbo, "Secrets of Effective Living."

New rental books include Ostensio, "Stone Field," a story of the breaking up of the old order within our boundaries and the relationship between humans and the land, and Gibbs, "The Need We Have," a story of the possessive mother who poisons her son's mind against his wife, a sentimental story of Irish country life.
