

Exercises at Blooming Set for Tonight

(By Mrs. E. W. Hinrichs)
 BLOOMING—Graduation of six pupils and a program by the Lutheran school children will be held in the basement of St. Peter's church tonight (Thursday) at 8 P. M. A Rimbach of Portland will speak. The public is invited.

Blooming 4-H Sewing club held its second annual spring outing in a trip up the Columbia river highway Sunday. Stops were made at Multnomah Falls, where the party had dinner and hiked part way up the mountain, at Bonneville Dam and the fish hatchery, and on the return trip at Washington park, where the group had supper and visited the zoo. The tour was made in a truck driven by Fred Kramer. Genevieve Weichbrod, Doris Simmons, Helen Liebenow, Anita and Evelyn Kramer, Jean and Beverly Hergert, Mildred and Marcella Brandew, Rev. E. W. Hinrichs and Myrtle and the chaperones, E. W. Hinrichs, Robert and Herman Jaenicke, were in the party. Most of the girls had not been on the Columbia river highway before.

To install Lights
 Residents on the Johnson school road are anxiously awaiting the installation of an electric power line.

Have Close Call
 The car driven by Miss Helen Helmdorf overturned at the golf course Saturday when the steering apparatus broke as she was making the turn. Her assistant, Clara, was also in the car, but fortunately neither was injured.

To Install Teacher
 Edwin Kiekhaefer will be ordained and installed as permanent teacher of the Lutheran school at a special service in the local church Sunday morning.

Make Good Showing
 Men on the Blooming softball team did commendable playing in an interesting game with Perfection Bakery at Cornelius Friday night, and with a little more practice the local team should be in excellent condition. Announcements of games to be played can be found on the sports page of the Argus each week. Local residents should attend these games and boost their community team.

Schefflin School Wins
 Pupils of Zion Lutheran school of Schefflin defeated the local parochial school at softball 20 to 13 in a game played at Blooming last Tuesday.

Picnic Next Sunday
 St. Peter's school and Sunday school picnic will be held on the church grounds Sunday. A pot luck dinner will be served in cafeteria style at noon.

Mrs. Reynolds Gehrig of St. Helens returned home last Wednesday. She had been visiting Mrs. John Kamra for about a week.

All of the pupils of Blooming school who took the county tests received passing grades. Doris Simmons and Robert Newman completed the eighth grade examinations. Following officers were elected: Tom Gregg, president; Bob Gregg, vice-president; Elmer Wendt, secretary-treasurer. Plans were laid to again be a 100-percent complete club.

Group singing and violin and guitar solo by Bob Gregg and Ed Seus were enjoyed and lunch was served. Next meeting will be at the home of Everett Padgett June 10.

Mrs. Ed Wendt is improving rapidly after a major operation.
