

Children's Day Program at Scholls Sunday

(By Miss Lorraine Demmin)
SCHOLLS—The following children will participate in the Children's day program at 11 a. m. Sunday at the M. E. church: Glenn David and Paul Jaquith, Muriel Kellogg, Ruth, Donny and Esther Christensen, Raymond, Betty and Berneen McCann, Ethel and Iris Newberry, June Hatfield, Myron Bish, Doris Brittain, Mary Jane Seiffert, Albert Livingston, Dorothy Orr, Robert McCune, Amy Alice Howard, Lucille Pavey, Alma and Arthur Erickson and Maryann McDaniels.

Mrs. Stanley Trefren and family of St. Maries, Idaho, are at the home of her parents for several days while Mr. Trefren is attending conference in Washington.

Mrs. Kays Honored
Scholls Ladies' Aid met at the Mrs. Ida Kays home Friday with about 18 present. Mrs. Kays was presented with a large cake in honor of her birthday.

Miss Nelson Bride
Miss June Nelson and Robert Meadows were married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Saturday morning. Dr. Heisey officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Meadows will make their home at Gale's Creek.

Miss Elizabeth Bishop of Boston, Mass., visited last week at the M. B. Bozorth and M. Wolfe homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Prantel of Gervais were guests at the L. J. Murray home Thursday.

Rev. T. J. Hazelton of Newberg, who was pastor of the Scholls M. E. church 25 years ago, was a visitor here Sunday.

All Bakke of Gilford, Mont., came Sunday for several days' visit at the Verne Smith home.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kenner of Huron, S. D., spent last week with his nephew, A. J. Weller, and family. Mr. Kenner is Mr. Weller's only living uncle.

Dick, Bruce and Dale Meyers of Huston, Wash., spent the past two weeks visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Weller, and Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers of near Hillsboro.

Dorothy Orr, Ethel Newberry, Wallace Flint, Myron Bish and Lewis Hesse are attending the daily vacation Bible school in Hillsboro.

Dr. Chandee Honored
Complimenting Dr. William B. Chandee, Mrs. Chandee entertained the following guests Tuesday evening: Dr. J. Allen Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis, Mr. and Tom Blake, Miss May Mulley, Miss Gladys Spencer, O. Perry Beck, Alfred Ogilbee, all of Portland, and Dr. and Mrs. Mito Martindale of Oregon City. Following the dinner the gentlemen accompanied Dr. Chandee to Sherwood, where he was given the Master Mason's degree in the Sherwood A. F. and M. A. at a later hour the party gathered outside around the open fireplace at the Chandee home for a wicker roast. Miss Annie Chandee and Doris Lewellin served.

Hazeldale

(By Mrs. John Imlah)
Dorene Carey and Wilva Edwards returned home Sunday from a week at O. S. C. summer school at Corvallis.

Engagement Announced
Mr. and Mrs. B. Leonetti announced the engagement of their daughter Virginia to Dick Schleigh of Beaverton at a dinner party at their home Sunday.

Gertrude Gulbranson and daughter Betty are spending their vacation visiting in California.

Catherina and Joseph Blazer and Betty Kauffmann have returned to their homes after spending the winter with their grandmother, Mrs. Alstead, and attending St. Mary's school at Beaverton.

Mrs. Rebecca Ellerson spent the week-end in Portland with her granddaughter, Mrs. Russell Olson.

Anna Marie Nelson has returned to her home at Carlton after spending the winter with her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Kemmer, and attending St. Mary's school at Beaverton.

Wilbur Crocker and James Guertzo built a chicken house last week for Mrs. Dinett.

Mrs. Wes Bany spent several days last week in Portland at the Carlton hotel with her daughter, Mrs. May Pizer, who was chaperon for the girls with the Seaside band at the Rose Festival.

Sons of Legion Formed at Banks; Mix Davis Captain

(By Miss Mary Sandy)
BANKS—Twenty-five sons of the Banks Legionnaires have signed the applications for a charter for a squadron of the Sons of the American Legion. Officers of the Sons of Legion have been elected as follows: Mix Davis, captain; Duke Bach, 1st lieutenant; Dwight Davis, 2nd lieutenant; Boyd Bush, adjutant; Fred Klum, finance officer; Jimmy Brown, sergeant-at-arms; Amer Vandehey, chaplain; Richard Jensen, historian.

Post Holds Nomination
Post officers nominated for the Banks Unit No. 80 of Banks are as follows: Russell Thatcher and Paul Cop, commanders; George Vandehey and Bob Brown, vice-commander; W. F. Klum, adjutant; H. L. Jensen, finance officer; C. V. Emery, sergeant-at-arms; J. E. Smith, service officer; J. E. Smith, cop. alternates. Officers will be elected at the next meeting.

Commander J. L. Smith, Legionnaires and Unit members, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brown and Miss Lena Taylor, of the Banks post, drove to Salem Thursday evening to greet the National commander, Harry Colmery.

Buy Softball Equipment
Banks Legion post has purchased equipment for soft ball and expects to have a team in the near future. The post is also planning a senior and junior rifle club.

Chaplain F. G. Phillips was the speaker at the Townsend rally at Rippling Waters Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Thompson of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Sandy at Banks.

Norman Hines and Miss Laverna Hopkins of Tillamook spent the week-end in Banks with Mrs. Alice Parney. Miss Hopkins remained for a week with Mrs. Parney, who is her grandmother.

Billy Kessler Honored
A surprise party was given for Billy Kessler Wednesday evening in honor of his fourteenth birthday anniversary. Present were Wilma McPeak, Beulah and Dorothy Shigeno, Geraldine Gherst, Alvina Parney, June Bateman, Sheila Hall, Kasie Kinoshita, Evelyn Kessler, Dan McDonald, Earl McPeak, Roy Moss, Vernon Wolford, Dale and Bobby Eberly, Howard Kauffman, Bobby Stohler and Billy Kessler.

Douglas Dreezen, a teacher in the McClips, Wash., high school, is spending his vacation with his parents in Banks.

Phillips Named Chaplain
Chaplain F. G. Phillips, pastor of the Banks M. E. church, is now chaplain for CCC camps in the Vancouver district. He had this position before coming to Banks Sunday in company with P. U. last fall. Chaplain Phillips will leave Saturday for the annual M. E. conference at Klamath Falls which begins Sunday. There will be no church here next Sunday but Sunday school will be held as usual.

Mrs. Jane Baxter of Dallas is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. N. Berdan.

Mr. Lloyd and family left Wednesday for Iowa after spending a year in Banks. They made many friends during their stay here, who predict they will sometime return to Oregon.

Alvie Kauffman, who is employed in Portland, spent the week-end in Banks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kauffman.

Roy Moss of Seaside spent last week in Banks with relatives. Mrs. George Moss and son Ralph, also of Seaside, spent the week-end with relatives here. Roy returned home with them Sunday evening.

Mrs. Jeff Kennedy and Mrs. Vern Prickett visited Mrs. Alfred Lewis and her new daughter in the Forest Grove hospital Wednesday. The baby girl was born June 5 and was named Mary Margaret.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hutchens attended a picnic and reunion of former pupils, teachers and patrons of the High Heaven school near McMinnville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore, Don Moore and Bob Stohler of Banks, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Moore and sons, Billy and Rodney, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Barnhart and family, all of Portland picnicked Sunday at Blue Lake. Billy Moore played there in a baseball game. He is on the Kuhnhauser electric company baseball team.

Mrs. E. E. Hopkins is home from the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, where she underwent an operation on her feet two weeks ago. She is improving rapidly.

Mrs. F. G. Phillips is much improved after her recent illness and is able to be up and around.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stafford and son Roy of Taft visited relatives in Banks Sunday. Evelyn Kessler returned to Taft with them for a week's visit.

Curringtons Move
S. N. Currington and family are moving this week to a place in Scoggins valley, which they have recently purchased.

Mrs. Nettie Roe of Vancouver, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Leona Robertson, the past few weeks, returned home for a few days, but will soon return.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fields and family of Vancouver, Wash., were Wednesday visitors in Banks. Fields' mother, Mrs. Leona Robertson, who is slowly improving from her recent illness.

Ed Kerr of Hillsboro, who is a blacksmith, was a visitor here Monday. He has been very ill the past few weeks at his home, but is improving now. He will not resume his work in Banks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Tilton of Yamhill were visitors in Banks Monday. Rev. Tilton was a former pastor in Banks.

Miss Evelyn McKee and a girl friend arrived in Banks last week from Browns Valley, Minn. The two are now employed in the Bode's barrel plant. Miss McKee spent the winter here with her parents and went back to Minnesota with them early in the spring, but was anxious to return to Banks with her father's berry harvest. She reports that prospects for a good crop are the best in years in Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Lee and daughter Ruth of Harlan, Kan., and Mr. and Mrs. W. Lee of Smith Center, Kan., arrived in Banks Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. George McGraw and other relatives here for a few weeks.

Pete Peterson and two sons of Vancouver are visiting Ed Clark and Mrs. Leona Robertson, who are ill at their home here.

Miriam Doyle of Hillsboro is employed at the Hartwick home here in Banks.

Rites Held for Local Resident
John Carl Radke, 64, resident of Hillsboro route 1 for 25 years, died Thursday at his home, following an attack of pneumonia. He was ill five days.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning from Donelson & Sewell chapel with Rev. Brinkman of the Portland Lutheran church officiating. Burial was at the Portland crematorium.

Radke was born November 12, 1872, in Wisconsin. Surviving are the widow, Catherine Radke; daughters, Mrs. Almy Lurah, Mrs. Catherine Hahn and Mrs. Dorothy Nelson, all of Portland; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Mackler, Mrs. Bertha Heartlein, and a brother, Emil, all of Milwaukee, Wis.

Funeral Sprays and FLORAL DESIGNS are a specialty with us
Potter's Flower Shop With Fred's Market Phone 3491

Donelson & Sewell Phone 953 -- Hillsboro FUNERAL DIRECTORS and LICENSED EMBALMERS

Farmington Club to Meet Friday
(By Miss Helene Schultz)
FARMINGTON—Community Welfare club will meet at the home of Mrs. S. S. Dalby Friday.

Miss Gladys Burkhalter visited in Portland last week with her cousin, Miss Delores Pearson.

W. T. Putnam Sr. is visiting his son, Philip, and family on the Fidel-

Laurel School to Elect Two New Officers

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)
LAUREL—Annual school meeting of Laurel school district will be held Monday evening at the school house. A clerk and one director will be elected. Laurelview school will hold a similar meeting in their school house for the same purpose.

Twenty members of the Friendly Corner Sunday school class attended the monthly meeting at the F. L. Brown home Friday evening.

After the business meeting and some indoor games, a wicker feast was enjoyed around a bonfire. July meeting will be postponed on account of harvest, time and place for the August meeting to be decided later.

48th Anniversary Celebrated
Mr. and Mrs. John Will Sr. of Beaverton were honored on their 48th wedding anniversary Monday evening when their son, John Will, and Mrs. Will and their daughter, Mrs. S. E. Stoller, with Mr. Stoller and their children Viola, Bernice and Jimmy visited them at their home and served luncheon. The aged couple are former residents of this community.

Mrs. E. Watkins of Portland is at the home of her son Amos for an indefinite visit.

Exercises Presented
Children's day exercises at the church Sunday consisted of the following numbers: Song by congregation; exercise by four primary boys; song by junior girls; exercise by junior boys; recitation by Dorothy Whisman; exercise by primary girls; song by Irene Whitmore, Jean Watkins and Bernice Stoller; recitation by Evelyn O'Dell and song by primary children. The church was decorated with beautiful bouquets, white and pink peonies predominating. Rev. Plummer, the newly appointed pastor, preached, following the program.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Stoller and children Viola, Bernice and Jimmy were guests of Mr. Stoller's sister, Mrs. Lloyd Waymire of Woodburn, last Wednesday. Their mother, Mrs. Anna Kaufman of Woodburn and her sisters, Mrs. Guy Sanders and Mrs. Emma Kaufman of Silverton, were guests there also.

Many folks from here were guests at the Stevens-Merz wedding and reception in the First Friends church in Portland Saturday evening.

C. W. Brown of Portland was an overnight guest of his brother, W. L. Brown, Sunday. His grandson, Dickie Brown, who accompanied him, is a guest at the Leo Brown home this week.

Helen Vorhees received a badly burned foot when she stepped in the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and children have moved into the Gardner place. They came from Oklahama last year.

Anna June and Clara Hunger returned Sunday after spending a

Cornelius Girl Fractures Arm

CORNELIUS—Zora Belle Henderson fell while at play at her home last week and broke her arm. August Messine is visiting friends in Minnesota.

Thursday was observed as cleanup day at the M. E. church.

Program Presented
Annual mite box opening for the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church was held Monday evening with Mrs. A. J. Oliver, president, in charge. Following program was given: Piano solo, Miss Helen Oliver; devotionals, Mrs. Louise Black; vocal duet, Betty and Alice Delmonte; vocal solo, Frank Oliver; trumpet solo, Bobby Edwards; playlet, "Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Doolittle," Miss Doris and Geneva Shay; readings by Miss Lavinia Robbett and Blanche Wall; play, "Missionary Magic" with parts taken by Mrs. F. O. Shay and Lauri.

Mrs. Mattie Smith and Misses Dorothy Cooke and Blanche Wall, with intermittent singing by choir and a piano solo, Miss Blanche Finegan. Following the program a social time.

Miss Shay to Marry
Sunday morning, June 20, at 11 o'clock, Miss Doris Shay will be married to the bride of Seth Smith at a wedding at the M. E. church.

Mrs. Media French has just returned home from a winter employment in Bend, followed by a vacation in California.

Mrs. George Holcher spent several days in Portland with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Powell and baby.

A number of friends attended the funeral services for Wesley Ebert in the Forest Grove Undertaking company parlors Wednesday.

Gene Edwards of Reedport spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Evelyn Edwards, who with her son Bobby, are staying at the A. J. Oliver home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Bailey of Los Angeles, and Mrs. L. J. Carl and Mrs. Robert Baker of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cooke and family Sunday.

Miss Lavinia Robbett is working in a nursery in Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doehner attended a Postmasters' convention in Astoria Friday.

Dore Place Bought
Mr. and Mrs. F. Collinge, recently of South Dakota, who have been visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Simantal, have purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dore.

Program Presented
A children's day program was presented by the M. E. Sunday school during the church hour Sunday.

Funeral Sprays and FLORAL DESIGNS are a specialty with us
Potter's Flower Shop With Fred's Market Phone 3491

Donelson & Sewell Phone 953 -- Hillsboro FUNERAL DIRECTORS and LICENSED EMBALMERS

Farmington Club to Meet Friday
(By Miss Helene Schultz)
FARMINGTON—Community Welfare club will meet at the home of Mrs. S. S. Dalby Friday.

Miss Gladys Burkhalter visited in Portland last week with her cousin, Miss Delores Pearson.

W. T. Putnam Sr. is visiting his son, Philip, and family on the Fidel-

Orcharddale

(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and children have moved into the Gardner place. They came from Oklahama last year.

Anna June and Clara Hunger returned Sunday after spending a

the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and children have moved into the Gardner place. They came from Oklahama last year.

Anna June and Clara Hunger returned Sunday after spending a

the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and children have moved into the Gardner place. They came from Oklahama last year.

Anna June and Clara Hunger returned Sunday after spending a

the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and children have moved into the Gardner place. They came from Oklahama last year.

Anna June and Clara Hunger returned Sunday after spending a

the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and children have moved into the Gardner place. They came from Oklahama last year.

Anna June and Clara Hunger returned Sunday after spending a

the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and children have moved into the Gardner place. They came from Oklahama last year.

Anna June and Clara Hunger returned Sunday after spending a

the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Laurel School to Elect Two New Officers

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)
LAUREL—Annual school meeting of Laurel school district will be held Monday evening at the school house. A clerk and one director will be elected. Laurelview school will hold a similar meeting in their school house for the same purpose.

Twenty members of the Friendly Corner Sunday school class attended the monthly meeting at the F. L. Brown home Friday evening.

After the business meeting and some indoor games, a wicker feast was enjoyed around a bonfire. July meeting will be postponed on account of harvest, time and place for the August meeting to be decided later.

48th Anniversary Celebrated
Mr. and Mrs. John Will Sr. of Beaverton were honored on their 48th wedding anniversary Monday evening when their son, John Will, and Mrs. Will and their daughter, Mrs. S. E. Stoller, with Mr. Stoller and their children Viola, Bernice and Jimmy visited them at their home and served luncheon. The aged couple are former residents of this community.

Mrs. E. Watkins of Portland is at the home of her son Amos for an indefinite visit.

Exercises Presented
Children's day exercises at the church Sunday consisted of the following numbers: Song by congregation; exercise by four primary boys; song by junior girls; exercise by junior boys; recitation by Dorothy Whisman; exercise by primary girls; song by Irene Whitmore, Jean Watkins and Bernice Stoller; recitation by Evelyn O'Dell and song by primary children. The church was decorated with beautiful bouquets, white and pink peonies predominating. Rev. Plummer, the newly appointed pastor, preached, following the program.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Stoller and children Viola, Bernice and Jimmy were guests of Mr. Stoller's sister, Mrs. Lloyd Waymire of Woodburn, last Wednesday. Their mother, Mrs. Anna Kaufman of Woodburn and her sisters, Mrs. Guy Sanders and Mrs. Emma Kaufman of Silverton, were guests there also.

Many folks from here were guests at the Stevens-Merz wedding and reception in the First Friends church in Portland Saturday evening.

C. W. Brown of Portland was an overnight guest of his brother, W. L. Brown, Sunday. His grandson, Dickie Brown, who accompanied him, is a guest at the Leo Brown home this week.

Helen Vorhees received a badly burned foot when she stepped in

the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and children have moved into the Gardner place. They came from Oklahama last year.

Anna June and Clara Hunger returned Sunday after spending a

the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and children have moved into the Gardner place. They came from Oklahama last year.

Anna June and Clara Hunger returned Sunday after spending a

the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and children have moved into the Gardner place. They came from Oklahama last year.

Anna June and Clara Hunger returned Sunday after spending a

the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a talk on Indians at the Orcharddale Sunday school Sunday. Among other things she said they still practice trial marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and children have moved into the Gardner place. They came from Oklahama last year.

Anna June and Clara Hunger returned Sunday after spending a

the remains of a bonfire, the heat being concealed in an underground root.

Mr. and Mrs. Ade Rutschman and sons Adolf and Robert were Saturday and Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrich of Portland.

Orcharddale
(By Mrs. R. Hunger)
The strawberry pickers on the Jackson farm gave an impromptu dance Wednesday evening in the Jackson barn.

Miss Marjorie Parson of the White Swan Indian mission gave a